(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 36-(Special.)-So desperate have become the special interesti which are working to prevent a consolidation of the state university with the state farm that threats are being made against members of the Board of Regents w

The speaker of the house has received one letter mailed in Lincoln, telling him what should be done to the regents, and Frank L. Peller, a regent, is now in recipt of another. Both evidently were written by the same party and those familiar with the working of the great bustness men's lobby of Lincoln are of the opinion if the federal authorities got busy he guilty party could be found right here

The Haller letter is as follows: "I am more than surprised to read your letter condemning the boarding uses, Lincoln property owners and department stores for robbing the student ody with exorbitant rents. Now, you know this to be an infernal lie. How about Omaha? Every one knows that you are paid by the Bruries of Omaha to kill Lincoln and no doubt serve other Omaha firms. Now, it was these very people you talk about that made it pos sible for me and many other poor boys to get what education we have. Rents and board are not exorbitant, and you are a D. L. and you will have to prove it or sease comeeing to Lincoln. Seven Thousand for Death of Fireman

Without suing for any specific sum, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller of Sarpy county, won a verdict for $7,000 for the death of their son, Frank J. Miller, a Burlington railroad fireman, in district court. The verdict came from a jury before Judge Sears in the law division. Miller met death near Laketon, Neb. ing him out of the cab. The father, as administrator of the son's estate, sued the raifroad. The petition set out that the young man had contributed $20 a month to his parents' support and had promised to continue to do so as long as they should live. The jury was asked to find for the parents in whatever sum might deem just.
