WOMAN'S HEIRS SECURE RIGHTS UNDER HER WILL

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—The heirs of Mary Miller, deceased, won an important verdict in the district court before a jury, with Judge Corcoran of York presiding. In life Mrs. Miller was the owner of eighty acres of land in this county, which she deeded to her sister, Jane Worth, and at the same time made a will devising the land to her. Mrs. Miller's children began a suit in district court to set the deed aside on grounds of incompetency, which was done by Judge Travis and Mrs. Worth appealed to the supreme court. While the case was pending in supreme court Mrs. Miller died, having a short time before her death executed a revocation of her will. The supreme court sustained Judge Travis' decision setting aside the deed. Mrs. Worth then filed the will for probate, claiming under the will. The matter was appealed to the district court, where the jury decided that the revocation executed just prior by the deceased was her last will. This decision, if un-reversed, will allow the land to descend to the children and husband of the deceased.

BANQUET TO BE BIG ONE

Legislative League Will Hold Great Reunion in Lincoln.

CHURCH HOWE ON PROGRAM

Number of Odd Measures Will Be Discussed at Gathering, Which Promises to Be Feted by Witty Discussions.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 1.—(Special.)—Legislators are whetting their appetites for the second annual banquet of the Nebraska Legislative league to be held at the Lincoln hotel, on the evening of March 12. This function, according to Henry C. Richmond, chief clerk of the house, and secretary of the league, will be the best thing of the kind ever pulled off in Nebraska. The price is $1.50 per plate and Richmond declares that $5 would be a modest price for the occasion. In addition to an elegant dinner, the Nebraska state band, Church Howe and other features worth while will be present, and a fine list of speakers is arranged. It is planned to have a regular legislative session. The banquet will resolve themselves into a committee of the whole to consider bills, the title of which it is said would make a dog laugh. Secretary Richmond is already receiving a number of these bills from members over the state, and the indications are that the kind of legislation that will be passed at this dinner will go down in history as the most spectacular and astonishing that has ever been heard of in the annals of Nebraska legislation. Checks and money orders for the banquet are already coming into the chief clerk's office. It is expected that no less than 500 will attend. Secretary Richmond says that every former member of the house and senate and the first and second clerks are entitled to attend. George W. Collins of Pawnee county, the first speaker of the house, is to have a place on the program. Secretary Richmond requests that reservations for banquet be made early so as to insure the best arrangements for the big crowd.

There were two other bids, one for $6,800 and the other for $6,500, which were rejected. These are the two buildings which have been completed for some time, but were not equipped with furniture because of the lack of an appropriation for the purpose and the board was of the opinion that no deficiency could be made for the purpose.

Important Witness May Have Perished in Hotel Holocaust

Doors of the penitentiary, which have been opening for David Kroll, may have been cheated of their prey by the Dewey hotel tragedy, for David Emrick of Blair, whose testimony has been expected to convict Kroll of highway robbery, is believed to have lost his life in the hotel holocaust. Thursday evening Emrick left Fremont for Omaha, telling friends he was going to appear against Kroll. Nothing has been seen nor heard of him since. On former visits to the city he has been known to stop at the Belmont hotel. Emrick was held up and robbed of $21 near Twelfth and Howard streets the night of December 31. Kroll was arrested, identified by Emrick, and held for trial in district court. Emrick went to his home in Blair, promising to return and face Kroll, whenever called by the county attorney. Recently the county attorney wrote Emrick the Kroll case would come to trial yesterday. Kroll answered that he would be on hand on that day. When the county attorney was about to go to trial with the robbery case yesterday it was found Emrick was not on hand. Telephone inquiry at Blair was answered with the statement that Emrick had gone to Fremont. Friends of his in Fremont, responding to the county attorney's inquiry, said Emrick left Thursday evening for Omaha, saying he was going to testify against the man who robbed him.

UNI REMOVAL NOT SETTLED

Wellness of Institution Seriously Menaced by Procedure. (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—Those wise statesmen of the house, who stood sponsor for the bonding houses of Lincoln located around the university, and harkened to the voices of the business men of Lincoln, who annually collect thousands of dollars from the students of the university, make wince-up shortly to the fact that the question of university removal and the question of putting up new buildings on the university campus is by no means settled. And they may also discover they have seriously menaced the welfare of the institution by their action in refusing to consolidate at the farm and in passing the bill to make a 1/2-mill levy for new buildings on the present site. The senate does not take kindly to creating a fund for new buildings on the present campus. It had previously gone on record for consolidation at the farm. The bonding houses lobby insisted on the house passing the McKinick bill and worked on the theory that the senate would not dare go on record in opposition to the building fund levy passed by the house.

Many Oppose Levy.

Many senators are opposed to any more levies being made for support of state institutions. Those interviewed insist that every state institution should make its own way to the legislature and receive its appropriations in specific amounts. Not only are the people of Lincoln asking a levy to build new buildings on the present campus, but the normal schools are also asking for a levy instead of specific appropriations. Were the vote taken today on the university fund levy bill, it is the opinion of the leaders in the senate that the bill would be killed. Should this occur it would be up to the house to the legislature to amend one of the appropriation bills or have the governor introduce a bill for an appropriation for building purposes. The senate cannot be influenced by the pernicious Lincoln lobbyists and neither can it be bulldozed by the democratic majority in the house. At least that is the opinion of some of its leaders.

Iowa Veterans Will Have Grand Reunion in Des Moines in June

DES MOINES, Ia., March 1.—(Special.)—The greatest encampment of Iowa soldiers in history is planned for the coming summer in Des Moines. It is to be a semi-centennial of the homecoming of the soldier boys and it will commence June 9. General Grenville M. Dodge has been chosen commander of the encampment and he has issued a general order to active committees and a force of aides. The legislature has been asked for an appropriation of $5,000 to aid in making the encampment a great success. It is believed that a great many thousands of the Iowa soldiers will come from other states to attend the reunion. Prominent speakers will be invited to address the numerous meetings. There will be reunions of different regiments of Iowa cavalry and infantry and battalions of batteries. Everything that goes to make such a reunion a delight to the men who fought in the war of fifty years ago will be provided. In his first executive order Commander Dodge makes the following staff appointments: Adjutant General—Guy E. Logan, Des Moines; Assistant Adjutant General—Hubert A. Allen, Des Moines; Edwin E. Lucas, Des Moines; Ernest E. Mennert, Des Moines; Major J. G. Hart, Des Moines; Leon V. Alinsworth, Des Moines. First Vice President—Hugh M. Pickett, Des Moines; Second Vice President—D. J. All brigade and regimental associations of Iowa soldiers have been requested to hold their annual, biennial or special gatherings that would come this year in conformity with the dates and place of this big Iowa homecoming. In this way all can assemble in one grand reunion and at the same time have their division gatherings.

POISONED THROUGH DRUGGIST'S MISTAKE

SIDNEY, Ia., March 1.—(Special.)—Fred Sifton, a baker at the Hiatt restaurant, narrowly escaped death by accidental poisoning. At a drug store he called for Rochelle salts and supposed that that was what the druggist gave him. When he reached home and took a dose of the supposed salts he was immediately seized with a violent vomiting. He telephoned for a doctor who by prompt action saved his life. The drug Sifton had taken proved to be sulphate of zinc.

WEBB LIQUOR BILL IS A LAW

Both Houses of Congress Pass it Over President's Veto. IN INTEREST OF DRY STATES This is the Second Time in Fifteen Years that Congress Has Overridden a Veto—Vote in Each House Decisive.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—By a vote of 244 to 164 the house today re-passed over President Taft's veto, the Webb bill prohibiting shipments of intoxicating liquors into "dry states." The senate passed it over the veto last night and the bill now becomes law. Only one other time in the last fifteen years has congress overridden a president's veto. That was when the Rainey river dam bill was passed over President Roosevelt's disapproval. Supporters of the bill say it will make effective the prohibition laws of "dry" states, which they say now are violated because intoxicants are shipped into private individuals and have had the effect of nullifying the local laws. The Webb bill passed both houses of congress and went to the president ten days ago. His veto message reached the senate about 2 o'clock Friday, accompanied by an opinion from Attorney General

Wickersham. Having his decision upon the attorney general's finding, the president expressed the belief that the measure clearly was unconstitutional because it gave the states the right to interfere with interstate commerce. The senate took up the bill at once. Attorney General Wickersham's opinion was not read and Senator Kern asked that a final vote on the overriding of the veto be delayed until tomorrow so senators might have the opportunity to examine the attorney general's arguments. A motion made by Mr. Kern to postpone the vote until 12 o'clock tomorrow was defeated, 71 to 2.

Veto Based on Mistake. Senator McCumber declared both the president and the attorney general had misconstrued the grounds upon which congress had passed the prohibition law. He said it had not attempted to give the states the right to interfere with commerce, but simply had declared liquor an "outlaw" and had then prescribed conditions under which it might enter interstate commerce. Senator Kenyon also briefly argued passage of the bill, while Senators Paynter and Percy supported President Taft's veto.

Vote to Sustain President. The following senators voted to sustain the president: Bradley, Brandegee, Catron, Crane, Dupont, Foster, Guggenheim, McLean, Martin, O'Gorman, Paynter, Penrose, Percy, Perkins, Pomerene, Richardson, Root,

Wickersham. Having his decision upon the attorney general's finding, the president expressed the belief that the measure clearly was unconstitutional because it gave the states the right to interfere with interstate commerce. The senate took up the bill at once. Attorney General Wickersham's opinion was not read and Senator Kern asked that a final vote on the overriding of the veto be delayed until tomorrow so senators might have the opportunity to examine the attorney general's arguments. A motion made by Mr. Kern to postpone the vote until 12 o'clock tomorrow was defeated, 71 to 2.

How to Escape the Bad Effects of March Weather

MRS. CHARLES ANSPAUGH.

Peruna is a remedy for grip have been uniformly good. Very few if any have been disappointed in Peruna as a grip remedy. Mr. C. G. Peterson, of No. 327 N. Hamilton Ave., Chicago, Illinois, had a severe attack of the grip, which left him very weak. He was in a condition that he was unable to do any work. He began to take Peruna and in two weeks was strong and well. The consequence is he always keeps Peruna in his home. Mr. George E. Pratt, No. 228 1/2 St. Moine, Illinois, writes concerning his wife: She had had the grip. After using two bottles of Peruna she was greatly relieved. So much so that she continued the treatment for a short time, when she was thoroughly cured. After noting the effect that Peruna had in the case of his wife Mr. Pratt took the medicine himself for the grip. Not, however, until after he had taken several other remedies without any improvement. The Peruna completely cured him. Mr. C. J. Powers, No. 1511 Williams St., Denver, Colorado, says that the grip left him very weak. He took Peruna and at once he began to gain strength and was finally cured. Since then when I do not feel well or have taken a cold I always take Peruna and it never disappoints me in its action. Thus we might go on indefinitely to recite cases where people have suffered from the after-effects of grip. Then they have reported to this remedy or that remedy. Finally they have been constrained to take Peruna. The result is always favorable. If the people generally understood the benefit of Peruna no household would be without it, during the month of March especially, when climatic diseases prevail so extensively. Mrs. Charles Anspaugh, R. F. D. 1, Kimmell, Indiana, whose portrait is given above, writes: "Peruna has been a god-send to me. I can feel safe in saying that it saved my life, as I was all run down and was just miserable when I commenced taking your Peruna, but am on the road to recovery now. I cannot thank you too much."
