Mme. Osborn's Entire Dressmaking Stock

24 & 26 East 46th Street, New York--Retired From Business

At Less Than One-Half New York Prices Sale Begins Monday

No dressmaker and designer of costumes in New York had a higher standing among exclusive social sets than Madame Osborn. Each season she designed many gowns and dresses for prominent leaders in the world of fashion. When she retired from business, our New York buyer secured her entire stock, including immense quantities of fabrics and trimmings that she had selected personally abroad and imported for making her finest spring costumes. Many of these fabrics and patterns are absolutely exclusive and cannot be seen anywhere else in this country.

In the entire history of Omaha, fabrics and trimmings of such exquisite character have never before been offered at a special sale. The prices will be one-half and in many cases barely one-fourth the figure Madame Osborn would have asked. Included in the stock are many finished gowns and costumes designed personally by Mme. Osborn in accordance with the newest spring style dictates. Nearly our entire main floor devoted to the fabrics and trimmings in this sale.
