$15,000 Added to School Tax, Making $39,000 to Be Voted

Unless legal technicallities intervene to prevent, the taxpayers of Council Bluffs will be called upon to vote taxes to the amount of $39,000, instead of $24,000, to build new school houses in Council Bluffs this year. The extra $15,000 came as a surprise to the Board of Education and was presented at a special meeting hurriedly called for the purpose at 6 o'clock last evening at the office of Secretary Hughes. The board had no option in the matter and was compelled under the law to submit the proposition. The extra levy is to build a second addition to the Thirtysecond street school building. Action was forced on the presentation of a delayed petition presented by O. Hakenson, a grocer located at Thirtyfourth street and Broadway. A special board meeting was called at which all were present except Members Schoedsack and Peterson. The absence of these members may make the action illegal. The law specifically says that if fifty citizens in cities of the first class petition the board to order the submission of such a proposition that it "shall" be done. The petition was found to bear ninety-five names. The official action was quickly taken and Secretary Hughes instructed to make the first publication

Say School Tickets Are Now Too Limited

Complaints were made at the mass meeting to name a nonpartisan school board ticket that the street railway company was not extending the same considerations to the pupils of the Council Bluffs schools as to those in Omaha and South Omaha. It was asserted that the reduced rate tickets, thirty for $1. for the exclusive use of the school chiland only at the hours when children are coming or going from school. One instance was reported where a pupil residing in the extreme western part of the city, and who is obliged to go to the Washington avenue building, had to receive surgical treatment for nosebleed. The incident occurred at the noon hour and when the teacher found it impossible to stop the hemorrhage, she sent the boy to the office of a physician. The doctor found it necessary to use anesthetic and cauterize the nostril. At the end of the operation the child was in no condition to return to school, but was put on a car by order of the doctor and sent home. The boy was provided with his car tickets, but had no money and when the conductor came along, the rules forbade the acceptance of the ticket offered, and the conductor without knowing the condition the boy was in, put him off. Someone learning the plight of the child provided the necessary nickel to take him hime.

The matter was called to the attention of Mayor Maloney yesterday and he took the matter up at once with the street railway officials for the purpose of ascertaining what justice there is in the complaint. He will also seek conditions equal with those of Omaha, if they
