JANINA SURRENDERS TO GREEKS AFTER TWO DAYS' BOMBARDMENT

Key to Province of Epirus is Captured After Thirty Thousand Shells Are Thrown in City.
Greeks Take Thirty-Two Thousand Prisoners of War.
Great Rejoicing Follows
Victory Puts Greece in Good Position for Final Negotiations.

HUNDREDS OF SERBIANS DROWN

Report Printed in Vienna Says Three Transports Were Sunk Off Aegean Sea by Turkish Battleships.

ATHENS, Greece, March 6.—The Turkish fortress of Janina, the key to the possession of the province of Epirus, with its garrison of 25,000 men surrendered to the Greek army today after a defense which forms one of the most brilliant points of the war.
The surrender was preceded by a fierce bombardment lasting without cessation for two days and two nights. Every available gun, including a number of heavy Howitzers lent by the Serbian artillery, was brought to bear on the forts defending the beleaguered city.
No fewer than 30,000 shells were fired by the Greek guns during the first day's bombardment. Gradually the Turkish batteries at Bizani, Manolara, Sakini and elsewhere were silenced.
The Greek commanders by a feint led the Turks to believe that their attack would be made from the right. As soon as the attention of the defenders had been attracted, the Greeks hurled large bodies of infantry onto the Turkish left. The Ottoman troops utterly surprised, fell back in disorder.
The batteries on the heights of Bizani, the mainstay of the defense, had been unable to stand the peering of the shells and were reduced to complete silence at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.
The Greeks pushed their forward movement during the afternoon and occupied the Turkish batteries on the Sakini and Elia Hills, capturing all the guns and 100 artillery men. Then the Greek battalions gradually deployed onto the plain in front of the city itself.
The Turkish flight immediately became general, despite efforts of the Ottoman officers to rally their men, whose detachments succumbed to panic and joined in a mad race into the city. The Greek troops followed in hot pursuit almost to the walls.

Turks Raise White Flag.
With all the defending batteries in the hands of the Greeks and the Hellespont soldiers at the gates of Janina, Esmaad Pascha, the Turkish commander, at 6 o'clock this morning sent messengers under a flag of truce to Crown Prince Constantine of Greece, announcing the surrender of the city and all troops under his command.
The fall of Janina was announced by the crown prince to Greek war officers in the following dispatch:
"Enigma, Greek headquarters, 6 a. m. The Greek army having occupied the entire left front of the city of Janina, and also Bizani and Castritza having been surrounded by our troops, Esmaad Pascha has just informed me that his troops surrender as prisoners of war."
"I will send you shortly details of the great victory of our gallant army."
Wild enthusiasm reigned in the streets of Athens on the announcement of the news. All the houses were decorated with flags. Excited people thronged the thoroughfares singing the Greek national anthem while joyous peals rang out from every church steeple in the capital.

Siege Begins in December.
The Greek advance on Janina began late in October. The Turks retired rapidly before their opponents, and operations round the fortress opened about the beginning of December. The attack continued with varying success even during the winter months.

DARROW MAKES FINAL PLEA

Attorney Concludes Argument in His Own Behalf.
SAYS THERE IS NOTHING IN CASE
Insists He is Being Prosecuted Because He is Enemy of the Rich—Defends McNamara Settlement.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 6.—"They would send me to the penitentiary because I am an enemy of the rich."
This was the plea today of Clarence Darrow as he renewed his arguments for an acquittal at the hands of the jury trying him a second time on charges of having bribed a juror in the trial of the McNamara brothers, for whom he was chief counsel.
Many women wept as Darrow pleaded for his liberty before a crowd even larger than listened to him yesterday.
"I'd die before I asked the mercy of the gang of brigands who have been seeking my blood. I can still fight," continued Darrow, shouting at the array of witnesses who had testified against him.
"I follow my duty as a lawyer and forget all except those I had sworn to serve. Praise McNamara Settlement.
"Some day when I am known as I truly am, it will be written that my settlement of that case—compromise by which the McNamaras entered pleas of guilty—was one of the most successful ever accomplished by a lawyer. I am willing to be judged on it by God and by men."
"I know something of what the world calls criminals. They have the same warm handclasp. Their skulls and the brains in them were fashioned by the same power.
"You and I may have been criminal instincts and it may have been our good fortune never to have temptations thrown in our path.
"When I see a man placing himself upon a pedestal and calling his fellow men criminals, I mistrust that man.
"We all fill our places in life, playing the game until we go out forever. I know the human side of criminals and I know that human lives are much alike. I did what I could to save the McNamaras—did it honestly; did it bravely.
"I am growing older. I have grown weary and tired of life, but it is not fair. It is not just, it is not human that I should have been tried again upon a charge on which I had once been acquitted. If my enemies had any sense of justice, I should not have been called to defend myself again.
"I am ready for the eternal sleep. I have loved peace and I have loved my fellow men. I have believed in law and love. Yet almost from the time I first opened my eyes I have been fighting, fighting for my fellow men. I have practiced kindness and gentleness and mercy the best I could as the years have gone. That's why I am here—because I have loved, not judged, my fellow men.
"Gentlemen, there is nothing to this case.
"Where men toil with their hands—where women, who work, weep, and are sewing tears into garments to be worn by the rich, I know there are prayers going upward for me today—prayers that this jury will free me.
"Gentlemen, I submit to you my fate—the fate of my family.
Darrow finished his address to an accompaniment of sobbing. Tears coursed down the cheeks of many women and among the men there was much muffled blowing of noses.
It was arranged that W. J. Ford, assistant district attorney, would conclude the arguments for the prosecution this afternoon and that the case would go to the jury about 8 o'clock tonight.

REVOLT IN SONORA IS SPREADING RAPIDLY

Maderista Sympathizers and Followers of Many Rebel Chieftains Flooding to Hermosillo.
DESTROY RAILROAD BRIDGES
Move is to Prevent Advance of Huerta Forces.
GOVERNMENT IS NOT IDLE
Two Thousand Federals Are Already in Southern Part of State.
AMERICANS ARE IN DANGER
Rumor that Guanoat Has Been Sent to Shell Guaymas, on Western Coast—Held Censorship at Sonora.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 6.—Maderista sympathizers, former Orozco revolutionists and other rebel elements today are flooding to Hermosillo, capital of the Mexican state of Sonora, to join the formidable revolt proclaimed by the Sonora congress yesterday against the Huerta regime.
The government at Mexico City, on its side, has not been idle. Reports from the south this afternoon are to the effect that more than 2,000 Huerta troops already have entered southern Sonora, and that more are being rushed from the state of Sinaloa.
GUAYMAS, Sonora, Mex., March 6.—Grave anxiety among the 350 American residents of this seaport was aroused today by reports that the federal government is to send the gunboat Gueroero to the coast to shell the town. Urgent representations are being made to detain the cruiser Colorado, which arrived Tuesday night, and is scheduled to leave Friday.
Censorship is rigid.
HERMOSILLO, Mex., March 6.—A vivid censorship was installed here today by the Sonora state government, which yesterday waved the banner of state rights into the face of the national government of Huerta. Officials of the new regime today seized the railway station and telegraph offices of the Southern Pacific of Mexico and placed all outgoing news under the ban. The censorship also applies to the commercial wires.
The railway operator at Carvo, a nearby station, was told that if he allowed the news to be transmitted he would be shot, and that if he told of the threat to shoot him he would be shot.
All train services except that conducted by the state authorities is annulled.
Destroying Railroad.
The train of state troops which left here yesterday went as far south as Orizaba, with the intention to burn railroad bridges on the return trip, thus preventing Huerta troops from moving against the state capital from Guaymas, a post in the California zone where federal soldiers could be landed.
During the night volunteers arrived in great numbers in answer to the appeal of the state congress for forces to combat any intervention of Huerta troops in the border state. Work on fortifications about the city continued throughout the night, ammunition was assembled and it made ready for the expected assault of federal forces.
Train Service Suspended.
NOGALES, Ariz., March 6.—All train service on the Southern Pacific below this point was cancelled today. The insurgent state authorities at Hermosillo are using all trains seized yesterday.
DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 6.—Two hundred Maderistas now under the constitutional banner departed during the night from Cananea to join the newly proclaimed rebels at Hermosillo. They burned railway bridges and cut telegraph wires on their march.

FURNACE NOT FIRE CAUSE

Inquest Witnesses Say No Fire Seen in Dewey Hotel Basement.

STEAM LOW AND FIRE BANKED

J. D. Noid, One of Hotel Clerks, Says He Visited Boiler Room and Found it Almost Cold at Midnight.

The theory that the Dewey hotel fire, which cost four lives and nearly $200,000 worth of property last Friday was caused by a defective or overheated furnace was weakened by testimony at the first sitting of the coroner's inquest, in the courtroom of Shirley Smith, fireman of the Dewey hotel building, yesterday afternoon.
The testimony adduced and information obtained by a pair of city detectives caused the police department to institute a search for several persons believed to be in hiding and to enlist the aid of the police departments of two Nebraska towns in efforts to follow out certain clues that may be important.
Testimony of Shirley Smith, fireman of the Dewey hotel building, of Captain J. T. Coyle of engine company No. 2 and of several police and city officials tended to disprove the overheated furnace and defective furnace theories.
That sparks seen flying from the hotel building chimney several hours before the fire was discovered were not the cause of the conflagration was thoroughly established by the testimony if it was not admitted by every one long before the inquest.
Captain Coyle and officers testified that there was no fire in the basement of the building so far as could be seen when they arrived shortly after the alarm was given.
Presence of four attorneys, each representing an interested party, indicated the importance of testimony to the hearing. One attorney represented a party who does not wish it known that he is interested. His own identity is clothed in mystery and will not be disclosed unless he comes in the inquest necessitate his coming into the open.
Attorneys at the inquest when it was begun at 2 o'clock yesterday were:
J. A. C. Kennedy, representing the state; W. A. C. Kennedy, representing John D. Creighton, owner of the Dewey hotel building and real estate.
David A. Fitch, representing C. T. Dickinson, representing C. T. Wilkins, lessee and proprietor of the hotel.
J. B. Fradenberg, representing the Raphael-Pred company, proprietor of the clothing store occupying the corner of the first floor of the building.
David A. Fitch, representing an unknown party, whose name Fitch said he was "not at liberty to disclose."
County Attorney George A. Marney, representing Douglas county.
The first hours of the hearing developed no information that has not been common knowledge for several days. Police officers and others who were first on the ground when the fire alarm was given and permy who saw sparks flying from the chimney several hours before the fire was discovered, repeated the statements already made by them and published in the newspapers.
Shortly after examination of the first witness was begun Clara Newman, a woman who was rescued from the flames, suddenly burst into tears. She was suffering so that she could not testify. She was comforted by the presence of a crowd of several of her associates who had been with her in the hotel the night of the fire. Friends comforted the woman and she regained her composure within a few minutes.
At least 50 persons attended the first sitting of the inquest.

McReynolds Takes Up the Harriman Merger Case

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Attorney General McReynolds took up anti-trust work by a conference late today with representatives of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific over the plan for dissolution of their merger. The railroad attorneys wanted to know whether the new attorney general approved the plan of dissolution agreed to by former Attorney General Wickoversham and now in the hands of the federal courts at St. Louis. They took up specifically the protest against the plan filed by the California Railroad commission.

NEW HOTEL LEASE IS LET

Twenty-Year Privilege of Property is Given to W. R. Burbank.
PLANS TO BE DRAWN AT ONCE
Thomas R. Kimball of Omaha Will Be Architect for Structure and the Construction Will Start Early in Spring.

Plans for Omaha's new $1,000,000 hotel will be drawn immediately and the construction of the big 'hostelry' will be started in the spring. This announcement was given out by Gordon W. Watlee, president of the hotel company, following a meeting of the directors in his office yesterday morning.
The twenty-year lease of the hotel was given to William R. Burbank, an expert hotel man of Syracuse, N. Y. Burbank announced to the directors that he had secured his necessary $200,000 as capital and displayed Bradstreet's certificate of endorsement.
Several hotel men from the east and south attended the meeting to bid for the leasing contract. The strongest competitor of Burbank was H. R. Hucking, proprietor of the Lee-Hucking hotel of Oklahoma City. He also had the necessary capital, but the votes of the directors were in favor of Burbank.
Burbank is manager of the Hotel Onondago of Syracuse, N. Y., one of the finest, best equipped and conducted hotels in the United States. His reputation as a hotel man gave him odds in the favor of the directors, several of whom have seriously considered him from the first.
Thomas R. Kimball of Omaha will be the architect for the new structure. He was given the contract to draw plans and instructed to call in the assistance of an eastern architect who has had sufficient experience in planning modern, fireproof hotels. This eastern architect will be chosen by Kimball and Burbank. Much of the details in designing the new hostelry will be left to Burbank, whose judgment in such matters and past experience has won the faith of all the directors.
The first payment of stock by subscribers will be called April 1, that needed money to start the enterprise may be available to Abraham L. Reed, treasurer of the company. In handling the preliminary work of planning and designing the hotel, this call will net the company $40,000 or more for beginning the enterprise.
The directors assert that the $400,000 will afford the subscriber a return on their investment from the start. All are delighted with the outcome of the project so far and express their faith in its becoming a complete success.

ALUMNI BACK THE SENATORS

Action of Upper House on McKissick Bill Much Liked.
STILL STAND FOR REMOVAL
Belief Exists that Consolidation of School of Agriculture and Larger Institution Will Result in Great Good to All.

—Favor for the action of the senate at Lincoln in standing out for removal of the campus of the University of Nebraska to the state farm is given by the Omaha alumni of the state school. The Cornhuskers, who live here believe that the future of their alma mater is tied up in the removal proposition, and some of them would rather see the present legislature adjourn without appropriating a cent for the school than to see it give money for putting up buildings on the present downtown campus. They feel that the members of the senate, who Wednesday voted to unite the school of agriculture and the university on the farm campus, view the situation in the same light that they do.
Must Be Removal.
According to the expressions of the local alumni the removal question is not one that can be settled through turning down the levy at the present time; it is one that will come up again—and it can be settled only through removal. The future of this school demands that a large campus be secured, one on which the farm and the university can be built up together so that future legislatures may appropriate money for a real great school. The Omaha alumni will meet soon and endorse the action of the state senate.

Fifty Thousand Women Paid $5 Per Week or Less

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 6.—More than 50,000 women in Chicago are receiving a salary of $5 or less per week, according to reports made to Acting Governor Barrett O'Hara today by the investigators of the senate white slave commission, of which he is chairman. The acting governor said:
"These women we find living in furnished rooms and absolutely underfed, according to our investigators. It is safe to say that the great majority of them since they have become wage earners don't know what a full meal means. Half of them are living on two meals a day, and these meals of the 10 or 12-cent variety. Many of them have to depend for clothes on what more successful friends are willing to give them of cast-off garments."
"In brief, this is the situation. Is it any wonder women do wrong? No woman is bad at heart; environment is responsible for a majority of crime. They do wrong because they have to live.
"Of course, until our investigation has proceeded further and we have interrogated the large employers under oath, I cannot say whether the reports that are before me are founded on fact. The commission is determined to do full justice to employers as well as to employees. The big employers summoned to appear before us tomorrow have been ordered to bring with them their payrolls. These payrolls should tell an interesting story."

Young Widow is Murdered in Home

NEW YORK, March 6.—Mrs. Catherine Godfrey, a young widow, was found murdered early today in her flat. Her head and face had been horribly battered, presumably with a club. The police attribute the crime to gangsters. Three men who reported the killing to the police were detained as material witnesses. They said they had called to see the young woman and found her dead.
TAFT FAMILY SPENDS DAY AT AUGUSTA COUNTRY CLUB
AUGUSTA, Ga., March 6.—Former President Taft and his party have quickly dropped into the spirit of home life in Augusta. Golf and an early luncheon made up their program today. Mr. Taft, Mrs. Thomas J. Laughlin, Mrs. Taft's sister, and Charles D. Hillis left soon after for the Country club, where later they were joined by Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft. The engagement list for the Tafts while in Augusta is, as they desired, conspicuously bare.

MILLER AND BATES ADMIT THEIR GUILT

BEATRICE, Neb., March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—When Frank Miller and George Bates, charged with robbing the State bank at Hanover, Kan., two years ago, were brought into district court at Washington, Kan., today and saw the array of witnesses for the state, they threw up their hands and pleaded guilty. Judge Hogan sentenced Miller from ten to fifteen years in the penitentiary and Bates from five to ten years. Thirty witnesses from Wymore were subpoenaed.

Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter Dies of Apoplexy

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter, widow of the former Chicago merchant, died at her home here this afternoon of apoplexy.
Mrs. Leiter was Mary Theresa Carver, daughter of Benjamin Carver, a descendant of John Carver, first president of Plymouth colony. She was the mother of four children, one of whom was Mary Victoria Leiter, who was married to Lord Curzon of Kedleston, viceroy of India. A son, Joseph Leiter, who made spectacular deals in wheat on the Chicago Board of Trade, lives here. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

People of France Urged to Support Move for Big Army

PARIS, March 6.—An impressive appeal to the people of France to submit cheerfully to the sacrifices called for by the new military bill increasing service in the army to three years was made today when the cabinet submitted the measure to Parliament.
The bill as laid before the Chamber of Deputies was accompanied by a declaration from the ministry expressing the profound conviction that the proposal "must be adopted, not only for the security of France, but also for the peace of Europe, which depends entirely on maintenance of the equilibrium of the great nations of Europe."
The government admitted that a heavy task was about to be laid upon the French people, "whose clear vision and patriotism will undoubtedly overcome all hesitations and all contingencies."
Some exceptions to the general rule are made in the bill. Youths belonging to families of at least six children will serve only two years.

Woman Judge Hears Fifteen Cases

CHICAGO, March 6.—Fifteen cases were disposed of yesterday in "Judge" Mary H. Bartelme's court. It was the first day of the court, the attaches of which are all women, and Miss Bartelme expressed herself as highly pleased with the results.
Not a man is admitted to the court room, where the hearings are limited to the cases of either wayward girls or those "who never had a chance."
Miss Bartelme was appointed by Judge Pincney of the juvenile court to hear this class of cases, holding that many girls could more easily tell their stories to a woman than a man. Women probation officers acted as bailiffs and there was a woman clerk of the court.
"It is our hope to get justice for these girls and judging from the first day's work, I think we will be successful," said Miss Bartelme.

ORLANDO, Fla., March 6.—Seated in a handstand in the public square, in the presence of scores of the towns people assembled for the event, Code Hill, an aged resident of Orlando, yesterday had his first hair cut in sixteen years. During the 1896 campaign Hill made a pledge to allow his locks to grow untrimmed until a democrat became president of the United States.

THREE BIG MEASURES MADE SPECIAL ORDER FOR VOTE IN HOUSE

Sunday Ball, Suffrage and Capital Punishment Will Be Voted On Next Wednesday.
NO MORE BILLS PUT OVER
House Decides Will Take Majority Vote in Future.
GROSSMAN RECEIVES THREATS
Letter Similar to One Sent Regent Haller Comes to Him.
LEASE FOR NONPARTISAN BILL
Measure to Be Reconsidered and May Be Sent on Its Way Later—Numerous Measures Killed by Members.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—The Sunday base ball bill, the woman suffrage bill and the bill to banish capital punishment have been made a special order in the house for 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.
The bills will come up for third reading at that time. These measures were on the calendar for third reading today, but owing to the large number about 100 bills had them put over.
This was done after the house had adopted a motion by Fallstead to put over no more bills unless ordered by a majority vote of the house.
When Bollen made his motion it received only forty-six votes, but the speaker held the Fallstead motion, which read "after this date," meant after today, so he held the Bollen motion had carried.
The house passed the following bills this afternoon:
H. R. 12—Joint school district to be located in county where the school is located.
H. R. 473—Supreme court to sit in two divisions.
H. R. 528—Fines for selling liquor to drunks and incompetents at $5 to $10.
H. R. 901—Governor to appoint three commissioners to investigate the forestation of the sandhills.
The following bills were killed on the third reading:
H. R. 520—To prevent the use of the name "University" by the University School of Music.
S. E. 124—State aid to weak school districts.
H. R. 200—County to pay tuition of high school districts from districts where there are no high schools.
Standing committees killed the bill to permit telephone companies from setting poles along railroad right-of-way, and also the bill to fix telephone rates at four-tenths of 1 cent per mile, and nowhere in the state shall the charge be more than $1.25.

HOWELL LINES UP HIS MEN
Sends Out Messengers to Find How the Wind Blows.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—H. B. Howell did not reach the house today until 1:15, but he at once got busy. As soon as the session began, however, he came to the railing and called forth his "listeners" and giving them slips of paper sent them forth to get a poll of members on his bill which perpetuates every member of the Omaha Water board as well as himself in office. After the poll is made, and if it shows that he has sufficient votes to pass the bill, he will at once force it out of the committee and have it passed.
If the poll shows the reverse he will have a list of names to work on. Just how he will work cannot, of course, be told, yet when he wanted the bill rushed through the senate engrossing room the clerks were paid $25 by a representative of the board. If it was worth $25 to get the bill rushed through the engrossing room of the senate, one can figure very easily it would be worth several times that to get it passed in the house and out of all danger.
Should the bill become a law the Water board will have authority to call its own elections and appoint the judges of that election. Should a member resign or there becomes a vacancy the board has authority to appoint his successor for a full term. Thus if one should resign ten days before election he could be reappointed and there would be no election. It usually takes considerable persuasion of various kinds to get legislators to vote for such a bill. And the Water board representatives have already resorted to various methods to get votes. Those who are favoring the bill the most are those who have at times drawn pay from the Water board or whose relatives have.
HIGHER PENSIONS FOR POLICE
Macfarland's Measure to This End Ordered to Third Reading.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Senate file No. 22, by Macfarland of Douglas county, which increases the pension of the police of Omaha to $3 a month after a service of twenty years, when they shall have reached the age of (Continued on Page Two)
