FOREIGN POLICY UNCHANGED

Wilson Approves Orders to Diplomats Sent Out by Taft.

WILL MAINTAIN BORDER PATROL

Effort Will Be Made to Avoid Friction—General T. H. Bliss Will Make Tour of Inspection and Report to President.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Indications that no immediate or sweeping changes in the foreign policy of the United States are in contemplation were afforded today when Secretary Bryan, without much qualification, approved the letters and instructions by wire that went out to the American representatives abroad in countries where stirring events are happening. It is true that in general this was routine business, but yet it was inferred by the officials of lesser rank than the secretary that President Wilson intends to make a careful study of all the data to be presented to him by Secretary Bryan before making any radical changes in existing policies.

It became known today that without abating this government's claim to the right to maintain an efficient army patrol along the Mexican border the new administration intends to use every proper means to avoid friction with the Mexicans across the line.

In line with the disposition to advise President Wilson and Secretary Bryan of the precise conditions along the border, Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, commanding the southern department of the army, with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, was today ordered to make a tour of inspection.

General Ojeda, commander of the Mexican federals, has expressed regret to American consular officers at Nogales for the recent clashes with American troops near Douglas, Ariz. General Ojeda assured the officers that he would adopt means to prevent further trouble and has ordered the Mexican patrol withdrawn from where the outbreaks occurred.

Colonel Carranza, who is reported attempting to extort money from the foreigners at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, has now seized the Mexican customs house and is selling merchandise destined to the interior of Mexico at less than half its value.

THREAT SENT TO GROSSMAN

Douglas Senator Receives Letter Because of Removal Attitude.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Under a question of personal privilege Senator Grossman of Douglas county read to the senate a letter received under a Lincoln postmark this afternoon threatening him for his speech yesterday favoring university removal and his attack on Lincoln.

The letter was similar to that sent Regent Giffler recently. The senator is threatened with being beaten to a pulp if he gets out where he can get hold of it. He is called a dirty rascal, an Omaha fraud, and says that it is only his family that saves him from being beaten to atoms. The letter was referred to the Judiciary committee. No signature was attached to the letter.

The senate got very busy this afternoon and disposed of eighteen bills in committee of the whole, two of which were definitely postponed. These bills were Senate File No. 231, by Heasty of Jefferson, in regard to security for costs by nonresident plaintiffs, and Senate File No. 241, by Dodge of Douglas, making it a penalty to steal automobiles.

Most of the other bills were not necessarily of an important nature except Senate file 228, by Hoagland, regarding the "going" value of franchises and prescribing methods for purchase by cities. Hoagland attempted to amend his bill by substitution of "franchise value" for "going value," but Dodge vigorously objected, saying that it would nullify the whole effect of the bill.

In his speech Dodge said it was an excellent bill and ejected into his remarks what he called the grand results obtained by public ownership of the water works of Omaha. He assailed the federal courts and said that they did not always render their decisions in favor of the people. He said that because a Kansas City federal judge had invented going values that the city of Omaha had had to pay $750,000 more for its water plant.

Macfarland of Douglas opposed the bill, saying that it was unconstitutional and very foolish. He said that it was in direct opposition to a bill recently passed by congress and signed by President Taft, and he did not believe it would stand up under legal scrutiny. However, the bill was ordered for passage.

RECONSIDER NONPARTISAN BILL

New Lease on Life Given Measure in the Senate.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 6.—(Special.)—The nonpartisan judiciary bill introduced by Grossman of Douglas and killed yesterday morning on reports of special committees, will get a new lease on life later, having been reconsidered this morning on his motion.

Several senators spoke in favor of the reconsideration, Placock of Saunders saying that under the present law there was not a bull mooser in the state who could be elected to the supreme court and he thought that even a bull mooser was entitled to some privileges, and while the title of the bill did not so state, according to Placock the bill is one for the relief of bull moosers particularly.

Appointments Go Over.

The executive session billed this morning for 11 o'clock for the purpose of considering the appointments of the governor for the Board of Control was very short. The lieutenant governor called the attention of the senators to the importance of keeping everything which took place in the session strictly under the hat and to be sure there were no holes in the hat, and then the committee, consisting of Heasty, Wolt, Reynolds, republicans, and Talcott and Hale, democrats, reported that inasmuch as Governor Morch had been hobnobbing with democracy down at Washington, consideration of the matter of the Board of Control appointments be put off until he returned and that the matter be made a special order for next Tuesday at 10:30 in the morning, and the doors were then opened and the common

Friedmann Treats Three Patients

NEW YORK, March 6.—Dr. Friedrich Franz Friedmann of Berlin administered today his serum for tuberculosis to two women and a man, the first patients whom he has treated in America. The serum was injected at the People's Hospital for Chronic Tuberculosis, on the lower East Side, in the presence of a number of physicians, including representatives of the Board of Health. In a statement issued this afternoon, the health commissioner declared the board had no desire to prevent Dr. Friedmann from giving a demonstration of his treatment, but was concerned only in so far as the law was observed.

The cases, ranging from incipient to advanced stages, had been selected for the demonstration, but Dr. Friedmann rejected all of them on the ground that he was not familiar with their past history and picked out three himself. He acted under the direction of hospital authorities without fee, and was thus within the state statutes regulating the practice of medicine.

Helen Taft's Dog Finds Himself

WASHINGTON, March 6.—"Neemie," Miss Helen Taft's $5,000 Italian poodle, which strayed from the White House on Tuesday and for which the police of Washington have unrelentingly been searching, found itself today. A maid in the home of Miss Taft's aunt, Mrs. Thomas Laughlin, was awakened by the shrill barking of the dog and let him in. A telegram was dispatched at once to Miss Taft asking whether "Neemie" should be shipped to Augusta, Ga., where the Taft family now is, or whether it should be kept here until they come north again.

The dog, to which Miss Taft is much attached, was given by King Victor Emmanuel of Italy to former Secretary of the Navy Meyer. Secretary Meyer presented the animal to Miss Taft.

WOULD MAKE FOURTH OF JULY ELECTION DAY

CHICAGO, March 6.—The plan to make the Fourth of July an election day for the entire country and Memorial day a primary day was proposed by Samuel Alshuler, a former democratic nominee for governor of Illinois, yesterday in an address.

"We must do something to stir up the voters of this nation," said Mr. Alshuler. "They must be aroused to a sense of their duties. Too little interest is taken in election and primaries. At some judicial elections hardly any one turns out. We should all have our primaries on Memorial day and election on the Fourth of July—real holidays, not merely days when the schools, banks and public offices are closed. We should have separate ballots for the judiciary, the state, the nation and the city. Let us devote as much of those days as possible to voting. No holiday could be more patriotically or more advantageously spent."

Woman Unconscious Upon Pile of Snow

Unconscious and nearly frozen, Mrs. Alice Corson, 2215 Ames avenue, was found last night lying on a snow pile in the rear of a church at Fifteenth and Martha streets. She was brought in the police patrol to the Dodge street headquarters, where she was given medical attention before being turned over to Matron Gibbons.

In her purse was nearly $15, besides a gold watch and a thick packet of letters. How she came to be in the place she would not or was unable to tell.

herd were allowed to drift back to the senate chamber.

On reports of special committees, senate file No. 231, by Macfarland of Douglas, providing for bonds for warehousemen, was indefinitely postponed, as was also senate file No. 246, by Wolt of Dodge, repealing the provision of the drainage law which gives owners of land under the ditch a vote for each acre benefited and giving each owner of land one vote irrespective of the number of acres owned. There was both a minority report and a majority report, the minority report being signed by two members of the committee, Shumway and Klein, who asked for the killing of the bill, which was adopted.

Two Bills Killed.

In the committee of the whole two bills were killed, both senate files, No. 231, by Shumway of Dixon, prohibiting justices of the peace from having offices with attorneys and other officials, and No. 232, by the same senator, prohibiting county judges from employing attorneys practicing in their courts from assisting in making up dockets.

Senate file No. 262, by Placock of Saunders, was ordered engrossed for third reading. This bill repeals the law of 1873, providing that counties must pay for the keep of their insane at state asylums. Senate file No. 83, by Hoagland of Lincoln, providing that where there is conspiracy proven in the death of an insured person, the conspirator cannot claim any of the insurance. Senate file No. 212, by the same senator, regarding duties of district judges. Senate file No. 230, by Kohl of Wayne, making a course in the state normal equivalent to two years in university. Senate file No. 124, by Kiechel, permitting State Board of Education to supply cities and villages with heat and light. Senate file No. 239, by Saunders of Douglas, providing that city charter amendments may be submitted to a vote of the people singly.

of Kimball, calling attention to the hardships of the settlers under the Path-finder irrigation project and their inability to make payments under the ten-year contracts, and asking that they be given time to improve their lands and make the payments. Attention was called to the large sums spent yearly by the government to protect the farms in the Mississippi valley and asking that consideration be given also to the farmers under the Pathfinder project by giving them twenty years on the payment of their contracts. Rising to a personal privilege, Placock of Saunders, who has been absent a week on account of sickness, desired to thank the senators for their kind remembrance of him and the beautiful bouquet of roses sent to his bedside.
