

BILL FOR BOARD OF CONTROL

Measure Considered at Length in the Senate.

HOAGLAND HAS AMENDMENTS

North Platte Statesman and Ollis of Valley Together Finally Get the Measure to Their Own Satisfaction.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 7.—(Special.)—The board of control bill occupied the greater part of the time of the senate this morning. A few amendments having been made when the noon adjournment was taken.

The first senate bill passed by the house arrived back at the senate this morning, being No. 12, by Bushee of Kimball, providing that taxable property of joint school districts shall be assessed between districts according to proportionate amount of property; No. 24, by Hoagland of Lancaster, providing for a double shift for Lincoln firemen, and No. 124, by Bushee of Kimball, with a short amendment which will necessitate the bill again coming up in the senate. This bill provides for state aid to school districts over twelve square miles in area.

House roll No. 22 providing for $10,000 to cover deficiency claims of the orthopedic hospital came over from the house during the morning session and was at once ordered advanced to third reading.

In taking up the board of control bills, Cordell of Red Willow, chairman of the special committee appointed to fix up the two bills covering the matter of the board of control, announced that the committee had taken No. 3, the Ollis bill, and had built up the bill on that foundation and would recommend the indefinite postponement of No. 78, the code bill. The recommendation was adopted and the senate at once went into committee of the whole with Klechel of Nemaha in the chair to consider the board of control measure.

Nothing short of an earthquake could prevent Hoagland, the North Platte statesman, from introducing amendments and the work began. Each amendment was accompanied with a speech covering a long or short period as the spirit happened to move and with one or two amendments offered by others, were considered. None of them materially changed the bill with one or two exceptions.

Ollis amended the bill so that the governor shall send in his appointments on the board of control before the first twenty days of the session. Hoagland had his little amendment ready to change the Ollis amendment to read ten days, but the senate thought the Ollis amendment good enough and the senator from Lincoln county dove down into his desk for the next one. Ollis again amended the bill so that some member of the board of control will have to visit each institution once every sixty days instead of once every three months.

Ollis offered an amendment giving the governor power whenever he thought necessary to send out a committee to investigate the board or any other institution under its control. The amendment was to take the place of section 25, relating to the appointment of a regular board of visitors.

Senator Dodge opposed the amendment because he thought that section 25 was good enough and he believed that the amendment was just a scheme for the governor to appoint some detectives to go snooping around looking for something.

Ollis did not believe that a regular board was necessary. It would mean trouble and would not be anything less than a license for a set of men and women to go out among the institutions and find fault with the management of the institutions and thus hamper the work of the board. He did not think it necessary to have a regular board of visitors. The governor could appoint a committee whenever he thought necessary.

The amendment was lost by a vote of 5 to 12. The bill was then ordered engrossed for third reading.

Upset, Bilious, Sick? "Cascarets"

No Headache, Biliousness, Upset Stomach, Lazy Liver or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage through these alimentary drainage organs every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters.

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never grip, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women like a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them—Advertisement.

DRUESDOW BILL IS KILLED

House Postpones Measure to Permit Cash Bonds in Police Cases.

MR. DAVIS FAILS TO VOTE

Other Douglas County Representatives Who Were Present Voted for It—Country Members Are Against It.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—After one of the most vigorous debates of the session, the house in the committee of the whole this morning voted to indefinitely postpone the Druesdow bill to permit the clerk of the police court of Omaha to accept cash bonds. This action was taken even though every member of the Douglas delegation present except Davis, who did not vote, favored the bill. Foster, Brain and Druesdow were absent. When the roll was called Davis passed. Later Simon asked how Davis was recorded. The clerk informed him.

"Mr. Chairman," said Simon, "is there any way to have the records show that Davis is out in the barber shop and did not vote on this bill?" The only answer was a laugh from the house.

In the absence of Druesdow, Simon led the fight for the bill, but the country members insisted that its object was a violation of the Albert law, and Judge Palmer insisted that it would open the way to corrupt practices on the part of the police. An amendment was proposed to have the forfeited bonds go to the school fund instead of the police fund, but the motion to kill the bill was put first and carried.

RECKLEY HAS MORE FIGURES

York Member Compares Freight Rates in Two States.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—Reckley of York, who is trying to pass a bill to reduce freight rates on certain commodities 25 per cent, has prepared a table of figures showing a comparison of the rates on these commodities in Nebraska and Iowa. The Nebraska figures he has prepared are those not questioned by railroad representatives, and the Iowa figures are those used by the railroad men.

The first table he used, which proved to be erroneous, he received from the legislative reference bureau, who obtained them from the Nebraska Railway commission. Contrary to published reports, his present figures show that on hay the Nebraska rates on the average are 27 per cent higher than Iowa for the same distances; on corn, 24 per cent higher; on wheat, 23 per cent higher; on potatoes, 50 per cent; on apples, 50 per cent, and on oats, 25 per cent.

LETTER SENT TO GROSSMAN

Anonymous Missive that Was Received at Lincoln.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—Following is a copy of the little note to Senator Grossman bearing on university removal:

"Senator Grossman—Now I wish to advise you that we do not care how you work for the removal of the university. BUT your dirty slandering of the people of Lincoln must come to a close or your serving as a senator will soon. You will be beaten to a pumny, and if you get out in a proper place it will be slick on now for your dirty, unmanly attack. Why you can hardly blame a man living in a city so vile as Omaha, but remember you are not there while in Lincoln. Now you deserve just what Heller does.

We have never objected to any of the reports in their attempt to move it, but they have been gentlemen. You and Heller are DIRTY RASCALS. SLANDERERS, and you know it. Now show this letter to your associates and they will tell you it will be your just dues. I want you to and if you do not I will not have to slander the L people any more for your family's sake, for that is all that saves you and Heller, else you both would have been beaten to atoms and you will yet no doubt.

KEEP YOUR FOUL MOUTH SHUT. YOU OMAHA FRAUD AND RASCALS.

DEAF METHODS BILL KILLED

Measure Providing for All Kinds of Instruction Postponed.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Five bills were indefinitely postponed on reports of committees at the afternoon session of the senate. Senate file No. 225, by Kemp of Nance, providing for teaching of all methods of instruction in the Omaha school for the deaf, senate file No. 44, by Hoagland of Lancaster, compelling labor unions to incorporate; senate file No. 194, by Dodge of Douglas, fixing the rate on electrical current furnished to state institutions; senate file No. 467, by Reynolds of Dawes, authorizing cities to provide funds for public crossings, and senate file No. 99, by Cordell, requiring corporations to pay their employees twice a month.

House roll No. 197, empowering the state board to condemn lands for purchase, was substituted for Hoagland's senate bill for the same purpose, at his request, and was passed without opposition.

DR. THOMAS RETURNS FROM HIS TRIP EAST

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 7.—(Special.)—Dr. A. O. Thomas of the Kearney Normal school was a Lincoln visitor yesterday on his way home from the meeting of the superintendents' department of the National Educational association in Philadelphia. It was the sense of the meeting, said Dr. Thomas, to do something definite, and the discussions centered around how to measure efficiency.

Chairman O. E. Stewart of Sterling will shortly call a meeting of the recently organized Teachers' guild formally to pass on the constitution and by-laws of the organization which have been prepared. It was expected a meeting would have been held this week, but owing to the absence of several teachers interested it will not be held until later.

Canadian House in Deadlock Over the Battleship Bill

OTTAWA, Ont., March 7.—Not since 1884 has the dominion Parliament experienced such a protracted deadlock as that which now exists over the clause in the government's navy bill which authorized a grant of $3,000,000 to the British government for building new battleships, which are to be an integral part of the British navy.

The House of Commons has now been in continuous session for over three days and the general belief is that the deadlock will continue until midnight on Saturday. The regulations of Parliament make it impossible for the house to sit on Sunday.

The trouble began on Tuesday morning when Premier Borden refused to accede to a motion by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, that the house adjourn. "We must make some progress first," said Mr. Borden. "Very well," then let us make some progress," retorted Sir Wilfrid, who thereupon moved that the clause providing for an appropriation of $5,000,000 for the purpose of immediately increasing the effective naval forces of the empire, be eliminated and a clause substituted providing funds for the speedy organization of a Canadian naval service in co-operation with an in close relation to the imperial navy."

On this amendment the members of the house have been talking without cessation for over three days and everybody believes that each side is endowed with sufficient strength and determination to keep up the fight until Sunday comes to its relief.

GIRL CONTRADICTS MERCHANT PRICE

(Continued from Page One.) time chairman of the Chicago vice commission, which conducted an investigation of vice conditions in this city. A portion of this report was suppressed by the committee.

"Did not your company within the last few years conduct a private investigation to ascertain the minimum wages necessary for a girl to support herself without assistance?" asked O'Hara.

"I don't recall—there may have been—but I don't remember just now. Perhaps Mr. Miller."

"Eight Dollars a Minimum. The latter promptly entered the bench and said that such an investigation had been held by a committee composed of department heads.

"The committee reported the minimum requirements of 'girls adrift' (not living at home) was $5."

"Now, I want to ask you," said O'Hara, "as a man of wide philanthropy, if you think that low wages induce immorality in women?"

"I will answer that as I have answered before—there is practically no connection between them. I believe that prostitution is as likely to come to a woman who earns over $10 as to one who earns less. It depends on the woman. A girl earning a small wage might use that as a subterfuge to defend her delinquencies."

"Do you consider $5 enough for any woman to live upon?"

"Yes; if she lives at home."

"And $5 is enough for one who supports herself?"

"That is what our investigation showed."

"How much did your corporation earn in 1911?"

"Approximately $7,000,000."

"Could you raise wages and still pay your stockholders a legitimate profit?"

The witness said that the stock of the corporation pays 7 per cent on both common and preferred. There was a surplus of $12,000,000 at the end of 1911. He said he could have given $2,000,000 out of profits and still pay "some dividends."

State Senator Niels Juul asked the witness if he thought stockholders were fair judges of what compensation the girls should receive and if he didn't think the state would be a fairer judge.

Rosenwald replied that he would be glad to meet the wishes of the state "so far as competition will permit."

Asked if he would object to disclosing his own income, he replied in the negative.

Never Tried It Himself. "Well, then," smiled O'Hara, "could you live on $5 a week?"

"I had been told that if black-listed it would not be generally known. I let the account run past the week and then telephoned down for goods. Immediately came back the answer: 'We can't sell you because you are on the black list.' The same afternoon a driver for a commission house, one with which I had never dealt, going past my store called out to me: 'You are on the black list,' and laughed at me as he drove on."
