Williams of Pittsburgh Must Defend Singles Title-Backett and Hall of New York Must Fight to Hold Doubles Honors.

At the annual meeting of the United States Lawn Tenms association at New York last month, the Canalla Field club secured the Clay Court Tennis championship tournament for 1913. Omaha was represented by Conrad B. Young and Harry A. Kock, and it is due to their efforts that the tournament is to be held here again. The sentiment in the east toward a clay court tournament has greatly changed since this sort of tournament was introduced in Omaha in:1910. Then a uccessful national clay court tennis championship was a matter for speculation, and the result of the experiment was watched with interest from all parts of the United States. But so successfully did the Omaha Field club handle this event and so classy was the list that there was no longer any doubt as to association, Thursday evening defeate the popularity of the game played on the Excelsior basket ball team at th again in 1911 and 1912, so that this year the score of 24 to 10. The Excelsiors, wh several eastern clubs put in bids for the have been classed as city champion Dallas was the most talked of aspirant. Owing to the previous arrangement with and Linn, of the Commercial High school the Pittsburgh Athletic club, which held the tournament last year, Omaha gets fenders at no time were called upon t the second largest event in the tennis play their hardest game, and toward th world of the United States.

It is only fair to Omaha that the Omaha Field club shall be awarded this, at least every other year, for the idea of a championship to be played on clay courts really had its inception here, Will Wood, Sam Caldwell and Conra-Young started the ball rolling and with P. B. Hawk of Urbana, Ill., and Joh. T. Bailey of Albion, Okt., worked up sentiment for it. Too much credit cannot be given to Will M. Wood, who kept on arguing and pleading for a new national championship, even when others had apparently let the matter drop.
