

READY TO WRITE MESSAGE

Wilson Will Confine First Paper to Two Subjects.

RECEIVES THE SUPREME JUDGES

President Decides that He Will Not Be Accompanied by Uniformed Aides Except on State Occasions.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Colonel E. M. House of Texas, an intimate friend of President Wilson, led the list of callers at the White House today.

National Committee member Edward F. Coltra of Missouri, former Representative Pulo, who presided over the house money trust investigation, and others had engagements with the president.

The president also received the supreme court in the Blue room of the White House during the forenoon.

President Wilson will begin preparations of his first message to congress next week. It is probable that it will deal with only two subjects—the tariff at some length, and currency reform briefly.

During the special session other messages may be sent to congress on various subjects and it is likely that attention of congress will be especially called to the need for currency legislation after the house has disposed of most of the tariff schedules.

Predictions today were that the president will not attempt to attack the present tariff in a statistical manner, but that he will confine himself largely to an expression of general policy and point out schedules which he believes are in particular need of reform.

President Wilson has decided that he will not be accompanied in public by uniformed aides. The latter will be with him only on state occasions at the White House or at army or navy functions. The president is not fond of ceremony or quasi regalia appearance which he thinks the presence of uniforms invariably gives.

WILL NOT LET DOWN BARS

President Wilson let it be known today there was no immediate prospect of letting down the civil service bars to thousands of democratic office-seekers. The president told Senator Fomerech that so far he and the cabinet had formulated no policy as to appointments for minor positions in the government service.

BURLINSON WILL GO SLOWLY

Few Postmasters Will Be Appointed Except in Phil Vacaenas.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Postmaster General Burlinson said today that no appointments of postmasters probably will be made before April 1 except possibly in cases of emergency. Approximately 1,500 such appointments by Mr. Taft were not acted on by the last senate and it will be necessary for President Wilson to make appointments to all these offices.

Mr. Burlinson indicated that it will be his policy, too, not to disturb capable and efficient postal employees, protected by the civil service. He is said to recognize that the postoffice department is a great business institution and he proposes to do nothing that might lower its efficiency.

MAN THROWN BY MULE DIES OF HIS INJURIES

OXFORD, Neb., March 8.—(Special.)—Albert Vopat, a prominent young farmer living about eight miles northeast of town, was thrown by a young mule that

Stop Neglecting Your Stomach

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Do the Work of the Stomach and Healthiest Stomach and Afford Instant Relief.

The worst case of indigestion is simply neglect to give the stomach needed assistance.

When your food does not digest, when gases form, when you experience that uncomfortable feeling of fullness, when the breath is foul, the tongue coated and that sour taste is in the mouth—take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and watch how quickly every one of these symptoms disappear.

Your Stomach Will Never Give Out or Grow Old, if You Depend Upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

All that was needed was to digest that lump of food in your stomach—and the glands, whose duty it is to supply the gastric juices, had simply given out from overwork. So when you took that little tablet you were supplying exactly what was necessary to complete the process of digestion that the stomach had begun but was unable to finish.

If you would continue to take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after each meal for awhile, your stomach would have a chance to rest up and get well and strong again.

he was attempting to break to ride in such a manner that the mule fell on top of him and he was injured so badly by the fall that he died this morning about 7 o'clock. He was about 25 years of age and had resided in this community the greater part of his life. His mother is a widow and he was living at home with her.

and also of disposing of government property for the purpose of securing funds for the revolution. The administration declared that Cepeda is acting in conspiracy with Carranza.

The rebel forces commanded by Francisco Pacheco, Fabian Padilla and Gregorio Pulido, three Zapata leaders, today threatened to resume their old tactics because of their peace messengers having been arrested. They had advised the government of their desire to surrender and had sent envoys to enter into negotiations. One of the envoys was taken into custody by Luis Lascruain, prefect of Xochimilco, in the federal district, who was suspicious of the messenger's mission. The federal authorities today ordered the prefect to release the messenger and to make efforts to atone for his act and to placate the Zapata followers.

Amnesty Bill Debated. There was a heated debate in the chamber, lasting until a late hour last night, on the question of the amnesty bill introduced by Provisional President Huerta. The bill passed through its preliminary stage and will be taken up for further discussion shortly.

The leaders of the opposition criticized the government keenly for desiring to offer an amnesty to rebels who had been guilty of brigandage and other forms of brigandage but Querido Moheno, the leader of the government party, declared that the administration must pardon all and be liberal in its new efforts at reconstruction. He concluded: "We are today playing perhaps our last card for the nation's future."

Jose Fabel, the leader of the faction which favored the late President Francisco Madero, declared that the amnesty should be granted to political offenders only and not to robbers and bandits. Senor Fabel asked why the government has failed to prosecute Manuel Bonilla, the former minister of Fomento and yet was dealing severely with other political offenders. Deputy Roque Gonzalez Garcia praised the late President Madero and declared that the ideals and promises of the revolution of 1910 must be fulfilled before peace could be restored to Mexico. He added: "There are 40,000 victims of the revolution of 1910 crying for justice and the present government must fulfill the promises for which that fight for liberty was made."

Rebels Fleeing at Agua Prieta. DOUGLASS, Ariz., March 8.—The first decisive battle of the Sonora state rebellion is expected today or tomorrow at Agua Prieta, across the International line from Douglas. Refugees arriving this morning from Nacosari and Moctezuma reported to General Ojeda, commanding the 200 federal troops, making up the garrison of the town, that 400 rebels, mounted and well armed, are camped in a mountain gap a few miles south.

During the night the leader of the rebels issued a formal demand for surrender. Ojeda did not seem a rebel. The alarming situation in Sonora has interfered with the work of the Arizona legislature at Phoenix. Many members from border towns are rushing home to look after the families.

Train service from the south was annulled today after the arrival of the refugees by order of General Ojeda, who feared that the rebels would commandeer a train in which to move into Agua Prieta, as did "Red" Lopez two years ago. The rebel junta here today received the general plan for organization of constitutionalists, who are backing up the stand of the state officials at Hermosillo in denouncing the Huerta national government. The rebels plan to form in three divisions.

The first will be in eastern Sonora, from Onwed Bacade Huilchi to the American border, near the Chihuahua state line, to prevent invasion by federals from the south or east.

Northern Sonora will be the operating territory of the second division, with the intention of taking the ports of entry along the Arizona border, as well as Cananea, Arispe, Nacosari, El Tiere and other American mining centers now occupied by small federal garrisons.

Headquarters of the third corps will be near Guaymas, the California Gulf port, and north along the Southern Pacific of Mexico, and southeast into the Ures district on the Tequi river.

idea," and the stocky witness nodded his iron-gray head emphatically.

Asked what he thought a girl could support herself on independently, Hillman said $5 or $7 a week. "I could live on $12 myself. Yes, I could squeeze through on $10, I think," he added.

"No, $5 or $7 would sustain a girl in Chicago, but it would not leave anything for the 'movies' and soda, would it?" observed Senator Juhl.

"No, I guess you can't get frivolous on that," laughed Hillman.

James O'Connell of Marshall Field & Co., who declined yesterday to disclose the profits of his firm, offered the commission private access to the books of the company. Hillman agreed to do the same.

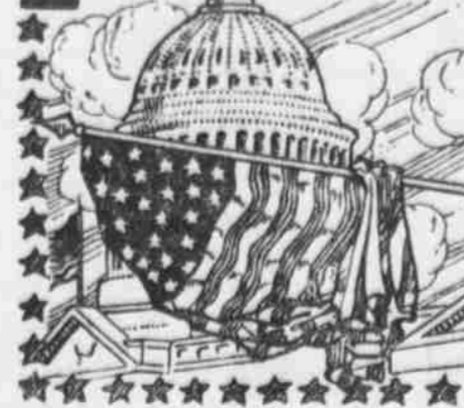

Employee Gives Chance. Senator Beall, addressing Hillman as a self-made man, asked if he gave his employees the same chance to advance that he had.

"You bet," replied the merchant. "We want them to advance. Why, there's a sign in my office, 'Grow or Go.'"

Senator Tossey asked if there was a tacit agreement among the retailers whereby one would not outbid the other to obtain a desirable clerk. The answer was an emphatic denial. He said clerks were always leaving one firm to go with another.

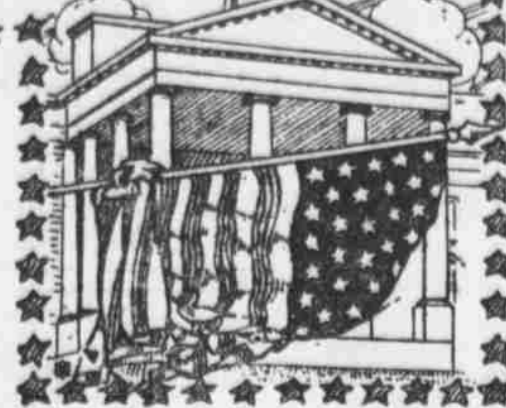

Representative Lloyd informed the witness that the report of the Chicago vice commission showed the many department store girls lead lives of shame.

This was news to Hillman, who denied any such condition in his store. "Why," he exclaimed, "let me tell you about one of those 'mashers,' who are always taking up the time of the girls. Two weeks ago one of our detectives caught one of them, and honest, when that 'bully' got through with him, he was a sight. Honest, he got more than was coming to him."

Moral Standards High.

Asked what he thought of the moral standards of the girls at Hillman's, Mr. Hillman said he thought they were high. "Come on over and see 'em up," he invited, "you can tell as much about 'em as I can."

Turning to Senator Beall, he made the invitation specific. "I'll show you around, myself."

Beall, formerly known as the "stork" mayor of Altoona, Ill., respondent in a white vest and a large diamond stud, laughed and said: "I'll be there."

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.
