STORM DOES BIG DAMAGE IN VICINITY OF ATLANTIC

LEWIS, Ia., March 24.—(Special.)—A terrific windstorm hit the country about six miles southwest of here and made a northeasterly course of about seven miles, the width of the storm being about one mile. E. A. Armstrong's barns were totally destroyed, but no stock was killed. M. B. Sheets' barns and other buildings were destroyed. Emil Woham lost some stock and all farm buildings. John Weppier's place was not badly hurt, only a few corncribs being destroyed. The Herman Grulke place was the worst hit. The farm house was moved about fifty feet and was stopped by two big oak trees. All other buildings on the farm were totally destroyed. The William Mackril, Walter Burnside, W. G. Brown and Fred Kerchoff farms lost heavily on all the barns and other buildings. All the damage in this district is covered by insurance, and adjustments are being made today. All telephones and telegraph wires are down and the full extent of the damage is not known. At Crystal Lake park, a mile south of Lewis, the pavilion and bath houses and all the sheds were totally destroyed. All covered by insurance.

LOSS OF LIFE AT MENLO, IOWA, FROM THE STORM

MENLO, Ia., March 24.—(Special.)—This place was the worst hit of any place between Des Moines and Atlantic on the Rock Island. There is no way of telling the amount of damage. Most every building in town met with some loss. It is thought that at least three lost their lives here. ATLANTIC, Ia., March 24.—(Special.)—The storm struck Atlantic about 7 p. m. with a strong wind from the southwest. A very little damage was done by the wind, but the hail which followed broke many windows.

THREE KILLED AT NEOLA, IOWA

Several Farm Houses Blown Down

NEOLA, Ia., March 24.—Three lives were lost and four people were seriously injured in the storm here last night. The storm centered in a farming community two miles northwest of the town. The dead are: MRS. EDWARD JONES, FOUR AND SIX-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTERS OF Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hopper. The injured: Mrs. Lee Hopper, arm and leg broken. Mrs. Lee Hopper, internal injuries, serious. Thomas Cavanaugh, huge splinter through head, burned. Mrs. Thomas Cavanaugh, severely burned. Mike Lynch, leg broken.

MUCH DAMAGE IN BURT COUNTY

Barns and Houses Blown Down Near Tekamah and Craig.

TEKAMAH, Neb., March 24.—(Special.)—The storm of wind and hail that passed over this vicinity yesterday did a great deal of damage. It struck Tekamah about 5:30 o'clock and came from the southwest. Wires are down in all directions and very little information comes in by phone. It seemed to be the strongest at Craig and northwest of Tekamah. In the Silver Creek neighborhood, north-west of Tekamah, the buildings of James Gull were destroyed and the buildings on the place of Mrs. Paddock, whose home is in New Orleans, were also destroyed. The storm crossed the Decatur-Tekamah highway at the lower farm place of the late James P. Latta and there destroyed corn cribs and granaries and their cement tile plant. There are no reports of anyone being injured, but later information may change that. At Craig barns and two or three houses are said to have been destroyed, but no one seriously injured.

HUNGRY SENTRY ALLOWS GOOD SAMARITANS TO PASS

"Here, here, you can't get through these lines; you'll have to go back." A regular soldier called out to a party of pretty women and two men in a fine, large auto which steamed up to the intersection of Thirty-sixth and Burt streets. "But, we ha—" one of the women expostulated. "No, no, can't do it," rejoined the sentry, as he warmed his hands over a little fire he had built on the asphalt. The good woman was obdurate. She sipped a large coffee pot and held it up. "Can't we please approach, sir?" "Oh, with pleasure, ma'am," shouted the happy soldier. "I didn't quite understand, you know."

DE SOTO REPORTED WRECKED, WITH PROBABLE DEATH LOSS

A thrilling story of a tornado near De Soto, of great damage and probable loss of life, is told by W. C. Dixon of Tekamah, who with Bud and Lura Latta and George Baker of that place were coming to Omaha. A thrilling story of a tornado near De Soto, of great damage and probable loss of life, is told by W. C. Dixon of Tekamah, who with Bud and Lura Latta and George Baker of that place were coming to Omaha.

GIRL BECOMES HYSTERICAL WHEN FINDS FATHER DEAD

Miss Maud Peck, daughter of O. J. Peck, was visiting in Des Moines and heard of the storm this morning. She managed to catch a train on the Rock Island for Omaha and was shown the her father was numbered among the dead. She became delirious and was taken care of by other passengers.

INJURED GIRL AT WISE HOSPITAL UNIDENTIFIED

At the Wise Memorial hospital is a pretty 2-year-old girl, badly hurt and unidentified. It is feared that she will not live. The hospital attaches do not know where the little girl was brought in from and none of the hundreds of persons who called were unable to throw any light upon her. She has light hair, a snub nose and one tooth missing on the upper side of her mouth, in front.

Churches Assist in Caring for the Poor Sufferers

Dean Tancock of Trinity cathedral, Eighteenth and Capitol avenue, has thrown open the parish house and made arrangements to house 300 women and children with shelter. Coffee and rolls will be provided and the work will be carried on under the supervision of Mrs. Tancock and the women of the parish.

The Calvary Baptist church, Twenty-fifth and Hamilton, has been thrown open to the destitute of shelter in that neighborhood and provisions are being made for their comfort.

At a meeting of the school board this morning $10,000 was voted to the relief fund for the suffering.

Master Daniela, whose entire family was killed in the tornado, went to school this morning as usual, explaining that there was no other place to go. He is a student at the high school.

All school houses in Omaha have been turned open to those who are in need of shelter.

Thirty-one sisters from Sacred Heart are at St. Joseph's hospital, where they sought temporary refuge, and are also assisting in caring for nearly forty injured persons at the hospital. The sisters brought three children to be sheltered at the hospital.

Wilson Lowe and wife, Thirty-eighth avenue near Farnam street, when they saw the cyclone approaching started for the basement and at the same time the house commenced to move. They stepped into the arway and fell to the basement floor at a point fifteen feet from the bottom of the stairs had been, the house having moved that distance while they were opening the door. The house was completely wrecked.

The North Side Christian church, Twenty-second and Lothrop streets, has thrown open its doors for the suffering, and provisions for shelter and food are being made.

Legislators Come to Omaha to See Tornado District

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., March 24.—(Special.)—Immediately after convening this morning, files of Howard county introduced a resolution relating to the awful calamity which had overtaken Omaha, and moved that the house adjourn until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Announcement was then made by Chief Clerk Richmond that Lincoln companies of the National Guard would leave for Omaha on a special train over the Burlington at 9:45 o'clock and that two coaches had been reserved for members of the legislature who desired to go. As many of the members have relatives and friends in the stricken city of whom they could receive no word, a majority of the members availed themselves of the opportunity to go to the scene of the disaster.

So many senators joined the house members on the special that when the upper house convened at 2 o'clock there was not a quorum present and a majority of those here went to Omaha this afternoon. Those who answered to roll call were Bartling, Brookley, Cordal, Grossman, Haarmann, Heasty, Hoagland and Lancaster, Kemp, Kiechel, Klen and Smith.

The senate, like the house, adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Injured Storm Victims Show Some Improvement Today

George L. Hammer, who was seriously injured, is at the Methodist hospital and has had his leg amputated and is doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. Benjamin Gallagher is not seriously injured, but her face is badly bruised and slightly burned from steam from the furnace.

Ten Miles of Track On Rock Island Are Covered with Wires

When No. 13 on the Rock Island came in this morning the brakemen and several of the train hands preceded the train for a distance of ten miles on the other side of the bridge. The telegraph wires are described as an intricate series of knots extending back and forth across the track. The train was five hours late on account of this time it took to clear the right-of-way and aboard were a number of Associated press men who were sent here by orders from headquarters upon the information that there were 1,000 lives lost.
