Hitting of Congalton and Grubb Feature a Game Which is Full of Interest Because of Uncertainties.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 5 .-Special Telegram.)-Neff's home run in last half of the eighth with the bases filled, gave maha a victory ove Sloux City at Davis park Saturday. This makes two out of three with the Sloux for the Rourk's. The score was 10 to 6. game was nearly finished. Cy Young, who had started for Sloux City, was invincible in the pinches after the fourth inning. Then, believing the game won, Captain Smith trotted out a youngster by the name of Hickley who had lots of smoke, a fair drop, but no control. The little lad had the misfortune to take the mound at a time when maha's heavy hitters were coming up in a desperate frame fomind.

just by way of greeting, Congalton stepped into one of his breakers for three-racker to right. Much was expected of Kane, but he was an easy out at first. Then came Grubb. Although he has been fielding sensational ball, Rourke's third baseman has not been getting away with many hits. However, he proved to be the man in a pinch by poking out a clean single to center, scoring Congalton.

Johnson and Schipke both took advantage of the youngster's wildness and walked, putting a man on every corner. Then Arbogast called Neff in off the coaching line and told him to put the ball out of reach of the fielders. Determined to obey orders, the little utility infielder planted it overr the wall. The final tally was the result of Lindsay's error of Justice's grounder, Coyle's single and Thomason's long hit to left for two sacks:

DEFEAT AUSTRALIANS HOODOO

Some of the Best Material in the Land, and Its Outlook is Dressy.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.-That the American tennis team will win the first Davis cup match was the prediction made by Dr. E. B. Dewhurst, former intercollegiate champion of the United States and one of the leading experts of the game in this country. He said:

"When the drawings for the preliminary rounds of the Davis cup reached here on March 5 showing that America and Australia were to play in the first round and that round was to be finished by June 21, it looked like an unfortunate combination of circumstances for this country, in view of the difficulty of our players getting into their best form so early in the season and the extreme formidability of their opponents.

"Considering now, however, the available material that we have here and the strength of the invading Australians I am prepared to go on record at this early date and state that America will surely defeat the Australians in the first match played here. It may be a close call or not, but the results will surely show that McLoughlin and Williams, or Johnson, or McLoughlin and Norman Bundy of California, in doubles, will make a stronger team than Rice, Doust and Jones and the best teams should win.

Will Defeat Others. "The winner of this match will probably defeat the other contenders-France, Belgium, Germany, South Africa, or Canada-Whichever they have to play, and so we may without much undue confidence entertain the hope that the finals for the coveted trophy will be played between England and the United States in the latter part of July.

"We can now be fairly sure that we will have our best team in the field, and (Continued on Page Two.)
