

TITANIC DISASTER YEAR AGO

Steamer Struck on Fourteenth and Sank Next Day.

1,503 WENT TO THEIR DEATH

With Exception of 703 Picked Up by Steamer Answering Call of Distress All on Board Were Drowned.

One year ago Monday at a point in the Atlantic ocean about 1,600 miles east of New York the Titanic, a transatlantic liner and a new boat of the White Star line, rammed an iceberg and went to the bottom, carrying to their death 1,503 persons.

Among those who lost their lives by the sinking of the Titanic was Emil Brandeis of this city, one of the Brandeis brothers. He had been in Europe and was on his way home, shipping on the Titanic, which was making its maiden voyage.

Struck an Iceberg. According to the story told it was about 10:30 o'clock Sunday night, April 14, while going twenty-two knots an hour, that the Titanic struck an iceberg below the water line. The impact stove an immense hole in the ship's side and it at once began to fill with water, going to the bottom four hours later.

As soon as the Titanic struck the iceberg Captain Smith ordered wireless messages flashed in every direction. These were caught up by a number of vessels and at once all put for the scene of the disaster.

UNION PACIFIC PLANS TO BEAUTIFY RIGHT-OF-WAY

The 400 feet of right-of-way acquired by the Union Pacific under the court decision and extending across Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah is not going to be allowed to grow up to weeds, but instead will be made a sort of a garden.

By the court decision the Union Pacific becomes the owner of a strip of land 800 feet wide on either side of the track and across the states named. Heretofore much of this land had been occupied and cultivated by farmers owning the adjoining property, they contending that it belonged to them. Under the terms of the decision it becomes the absolute property of the Union Pacific. In many instances the strip will be leased to adjoining property owners and cultivated as heretofore.

Bellevue college resumed work Tuesday, April 15, following the Easter vacation of one week. Students are all back from their homes and regular work was in progress by Wednesday. Dr. Stockey was the only one of the faculty not reporting for classes. He is absent on a trip to the east and will not return for several days.

BELLEVUE GIRLS ARE PREPARING FOR DEBATE

The Philomathean and Adelpian Literary societies held an informal union meeting Friday evening of last week, and as no set program had been prepared the members responded to impromptu and after some musical selections the evening was given over to a social time. Preparations for the intersociety debate upon the woman's suffrage question are completed and the debaters are now at work upon the question. Each society was permitted to choose one young woman as a representative and she was allowed to choose her assistant. The total amount in prizes offered is $25, and interest in the contest is high.

By MELLIFICIA. Monday, April 14, 1913.

SOCIETY is all agog—Sarah Bernhardt, said to be the greatest living actress, is in our midst for nearly a week. French grammars have been dusted and reviewed, for is not French the original language of the court, and when we go to hear the great diva we wish to be able to discuss the play eloquently afterwards.

It was my good pleasure to cross on the same ocean liner with the great French actress, but we scarcely got as close to her as will those in the first row at the Orpheum. Members of her company and her physicians, also, informed us that many years ago she mingled with the passengers, but of late she remains in her cabin de luxe the entire voyage.

To start with, the steamer was two hours late in leaving. This is a most unusual thing, but the loading of 200 extra trunks takes time, for Madame played in the metropolis the night before sailing, and her luggage could not be sent to the pier any sooner. When it comes to spending money, the Divine Sarah can teach even the New York millionaires, for the Goulds, who were also on board, traveled very simply in comparison. In the first place, she paid over $1,000 for the captain's suite of rooms for a five and one-half days' trip; then she had a doctor, a valet, three maids, and three thoroughbred dogs, and all were traveling first-class.

Her son, Maurice Bernhardt, met her at Cherbourg, to accompany her to Paris. An entertainment was given on board the steamer for the benefit of the sailors, widows and orphans. On the program were Signor Scotti, Signora Poi Piancon, Suzanne Adams, Davir Blapham and others. Madame Bernhardt and the other artists on board autographed ten programs, which sold for $100 apiece for the benefit. Madame Bernhardt gives much to charity.

Sewing for the Relief. The home of Mrs. George Barker has been open for a number of meetings to sew for the relief. The guests came at 1:30 and sewed until 5:30 o'clock. About 154 garments have been completed and sent to the relief stations. This is probably the largest amount of garments made in a private house. Many clubs have been meeting and have sewing societies, and between them they have made many useful things for distribution.

Where They Are. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Saxe of New York are spending the day in Omaha and plan to return east. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Harris, who have been residing at the Stricklow, have moved into their new home, 418 Davenport street.

Celebrate Anniversary. A surprise party was given non Friday evening in celebration of the fourth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henry. The evening was spent with an informal musicale. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moeller, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Toepfer, Mr. and Mrs. Buehler, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henry, Misses Elsie Mix, Fern Toepfer, Augusta Zimmerman, Messrs. Theodore Zimmerman, A. L. King.

In and Out of the Bee Hive. Mrs. Walter McCormick has returned from California. Mr. W. Farnam Smith left last evening for a short stay in Minneapolis. Mr. William English of Kansas City is spending the week end visiting Omaha friends.

For the Future. Mrs. John Towle will entertain at luncheon Saturday. Miss Della Nelson will entertain at luncheon Saturday at her home, 806 Lafayette.

Ryder Says Six Men to Guard City Days and Nights Too Many

Police Commissioner Ryder, believing policemen are an avoidable nuisance, approves Prof. Henry Oelrich's plan to cut the force of Omaha to six men on duty days and six on duty nights. But the police commissioner would still further reduce the force. He believes that five coppers and the social service board ought to be able to handle the criminal element of the city and protect the lives and property of the people.

"Even five men are too many," said the commissioner solemnly, "unless, of course, arrangements were made to have them sweep and mop the city hall occasionally during their idle moments. Anything else to keep them busy would be proper."

"Idleness is a dangerous thing. Six coppers with nothing to do but patrol the twenty-four square miles of this city for twelve hours would greatly suffer from inactivity."

"They would set a bad example to the young, who would acquire false impressions by seeing them loafing around all day in the corner drug store. Abolish the club and gun, too. On a lonely, dark night when a policeman was slowly patrolling his beat of five miles or more his club and gun would be burdensome. If he were attacked by several thugs, all he'd have to do would be to politely request the thugs to wait a minute and then he could telephone the members of the social service board, who could, by hurrying, reach the scene within half an hour or more and take necessary steps to protect the policeman. The copper would appreciate this."

"In case a man was murdered or a house robbed by some careless gentleman or gang of gentlemen the clubless cop would probably have to call on the constables for help. If the cop should interfere with the operations of the gang and should be killed the constable could be awakened and an automobile summoned and the remainder of the night would be spent in rounding up the other four policemen, so that within from twelve to twenty-four hours they would all be on the scene ready for prompt action."

What Mrs. K Told Me This Morning I was complimenting one of the neighbors this morning on how fine her house looked with all the nice new furniture she had, and told her it was a pretty good indication that her husband must be getting along well in his business. But what do you think she told me?

"It's not that, Mrs. Jones. Mr. K is not making any more than he was when we moved here. I have gotten all those new things myself by dealing with Larkin Co. For nearly three years, I have bought my tea, soap, spices, foodstuff, notions and other household supplies from them, and have gotten the furniture you speak of as Premiums."

G.P. BEMIS SUES FOR DIVORCE

Former Mayor of Omaha Asks for Legal Separation from Wife.

WIFE AWAY FOR EIGHT MONTHS

Bemis Says He Is Not Able to Transact His Real Estate Business for Lack of Wife's Signature to Deeds.

George P. Bemis, former mayor of Omaha, has sued his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Bemis, for divorce, alleging as a cause extreme cruelty, which is understood to be of other than physical nature.

The whereabouts of Mrs. Bemis for the last eight months has not been known to Mr. Bemis or her friends in Omaha. She is known to have been deeply interested in the "new thought" movement.

Mr. Bemis is applying for the divorce in order that he may continue his real estate business. He is unable to make transfers of property because the signature of his wife is required. He is senior partner of the Bemis-Carlberg Real Estate company.

Mrs. Bemis formerly was Mrs. Jacob Neff. She was divorced from her first husband, who is now believed to be in Chicago. Mr. Neff was a bridge contractor when he lived in Omaha. Mr. Bemis had been divorced from his first wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bemis were married a little more than a year ago. They made a trip to Florida about a year ago.

Public Schools Are All Reopened

Schools kept in all of the buildings Monday despite the fact that several buildings were partly wrecked by the Easter Sunday tornado. Duncan Finlayson, superintendent of buildings, authorized the Board of Education to open all buildings as safe.

Superintendent Graff said attendance was normal, only seven or eight pupils being lost to the schools in the destroyed district. The superintendent is preparing for a complete readjustment in the attendance in the schools recruited from the tornado district but to his surprise few pupils have asked for transfers to other buildings, indicating that the majority have found lodgement near their old homes. A few rooms in the damaged buildings will be kept closed until completely repaired.

City Buys Lot for New Engine House

City commissioners have accepted the bid of the Byron Reed company for the old fire engine house at Tenth and Douglas streets and will therefore dispose of the property for $5,500 and will purchase from the same company lots at the southwest corner of Twelfth and Dodge, where a new engine house will be erected out of the $100,000 bond money voted for the purpose. The lots at Twelfth and Dodge will cost $14,500.

ABUSES LANDLADY FOR STEALING MISLAID MONEY

Fred Ubray, who lives at the Star hotel, mislaid some money from his room Sunday afternoon and, going to the apartments of the landlady, Mrs. Riggs, proceeded to abuse her for stealing it. Mr. Riggs, who was present at the time, started to eject Ubray, who seized a hammer and inflicted several scap wounds on his aggressor's head. Dr. Harris dressed Riggs' hurts, and later the missing money was discovered by officers in Ubray's room. He will be given a hearing Tuesday.

NATURE'S ESSENCE... Extracted From Forest Plants.

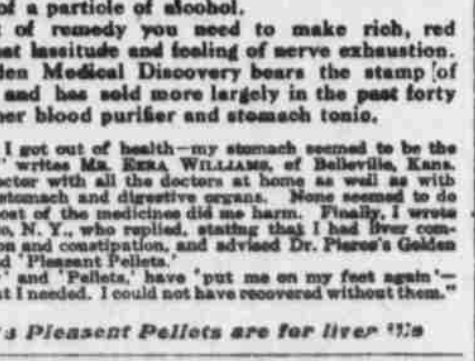

Nature's laws are perfect, but disease follows if these laws are not obeyed. Go straight to nature for the cure, so the forest; there are mysteries here that we know nothing of. Take the bark of the wild-cherry tree, the root of mandrake, stem, Oregon grape root, quince's root, bloodroot and golden seal, make a scientific, non-alcoholic extract of these with just the right proportions and you have Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It took Dr. Pierce, with the assistance of two learned chemists, eight years of hard work experimenting to make this pure glyceric extract and alternative of the greatest efficiency and without the use of a particle of alcohol.

Just the sort of remedy you need to make rich, red blood, and cure that lassitude and feeling of nerve exhaustion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery bears the stamp of PUBLIC APPROVAL and has sold more largely in the past forty years than any other blood purifier and stomach tonic.

"Some time ago I got out of health—my stomach seemed to be the seat of the trouble," writes Mrs. BEA WILLIAMS, of Belleville, Kan. "I consulted a doctor at once, but he said he had no other specialists on stomach and digestive organs. None seemed to do any good—in fact, most of the medicines did me harm. Finally, I wrote to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., who replied, stating that I had liver complaint with indigestion and constipation, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets. "The Discovery" and Pellets have 'put me on my feet again'—seemed to be just what I needed. I could not have recovered without them."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ailments.

E. WILLIAMS, ENO. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ailments.

What Mrs. K Told Me This Morning

I was complimenting one of the neighbors this morning on how fine her house looked with all the nice new furniture she had, and told her it was a pretty good indication that her husband must be getting along well in his business. But what do you think she told me?

"It's not that, Mrs. Jones. Mr. K is not making any more than he was when we moved here. I have gotten all those new things myself by dealing with Larkin Co. For nearly three years, I have bought my tea, soap, spices, foodstuff, notions and other household supplies from them, and have gotten the furniture you speak of as Premiums."

The Larkin products are fine and cost just the same as you would pay for the self-same things at the store, only when you buy from Larkin Co. you get products that are perfectly fresh and Premiums with them without extra cost. You can see what I have obtained already. Now, isn't that a sensible way to deal?"

When Mrs. K went, I sat right down at my desk and wrote a postal to Larkin Co., Peoria, Ill., and asked them for their Catalog D29. Why don't you do it, too? Mrs. K says that the Larkin Catalog tells you all about their method of dealing, how to order, and everything else, and I know that no one would willingly let such an opportunity to save go by.
