WIDOW ACCUSED OF MURDER

Mrs. Dietz and Affinity Formally Charged with Crime.

BONDS FIXED AT TEN THOUSAND

Complaints Say Tailor Was Moved to Death with Hammer—Movements of Couple Are Traced.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Mrs. Augusta Dietz, widow of George Dietz, a tailor who was beaten to death with a hammer at his home in Aldine avenue last Monday, and George Nurnberg, owner of a harness shop, today were formally booked on charges of murder.

The complaints charge Mrs. Dietz and Nurnberg with murdering the woman's husband by assaulting him with a hammer. It was planned to fix the ball of the prisoners.

Preliminary hearing probably will be continued until after the coroner's inquest, which is to be resumed on April 24. Coroner Hoffman received today a letter which he said was startlingly similar in spelling to the illiterate stenciled missive which the murderer of Dietz left. The writer said he committed the crime and expressed scorn for the police. The note was scrawled on the letterhead of a hotel in a city about 60 miles from Chicago and telegrams were sent to the authorities there asking them to locate the writer. The name of the city and the exact contents of the letter were not revealed.

Both Released on Bond.

When Nurnberg and Mrs. Dietz applied for release on bail this afternoon Judge Goodnow ignored the recommendations of the coroner's jury and fixed the amount at $10,000 for each, instead of the $5,000 expected. The bonds were signed and the accused persons left the court room without the police escort which has accompanied them since Monday evening.

At the coroner's inquest yesterday it was testified that Nurnberg, a harness maker, and Mrs. Dietz had engaged in a liaison for some months. Dietz was aware of this, as was the harness maker's wife, who had had her husband watched by detectives who, among other things, had tapped telephone wires and listened to alleged conversations between Nurnberg and Mrs. Dietz. Two months ago Mrs. Dietz consulted a lawyer about obtaining a divorce, but was dissuaded. Nurnberg and Mrs. Dietz, according to testimony, spent part of the day preceding the murder at Highland park together.

Movements of Mrs. Dietz.

The testimony showed further that on the night of the murder Mrs. Dietz did not occupy her bed, as she is said to have told the police; that she was fully dressed when she gave the alarm to the police and wore her wig and corsets, which she had never been known to do before so early in the morning and that when the officers arrived they found the milk bottle outside the door, although Mrs. Dietz said she had told the police that she found the body of her husband after bringing in the bottle.

Detective Haas, who shadowed Nurnberg at the request of Mrs. Nurnberg, and who testified at the inquest, was ready to repeat his evidence at the hearing scheduled for this afternoon. According to his story one of his operatives out in on a telephone conversation between Nurnberg and Mrs. Dietz a few days before the murder. Mrs. Dietz, he said, asked Nurnberg if he had "that package."

CITIZENS OF JAPAN TALKING OF WAR WITH UNITED STATES

In a bitter debate between Senator John B. Sanford, democrat, and Senator N. W. Thompson, administration leader and co-author with Senator Birdsell of the revised land bill.

The message, which was addressed to Lieutenant Governor Wallace, was as follows: "Methodist missionaries urge defeat of anti-Japanese legislation. Situation serious."

Senator Thompson moved that the message be printed in the journal. Senator Sanford protested.

"I move that this senate send a message to Mr. Harris telling him to attend to his own business. California can attend to hers without advice from Japan or elsewhere," he said.

Sanford then explained that he was tired of all such messages, adding that if this was to be printed in the journal, he had 400 or 500 letters and telegrams taking the opposite view of the situation that he wanted printed also. He withdrew his motion and the Harris message was ordered printed.

BOSTON TAKES A THRILLER

Pound Bender's Delivery for Four Runs in Ninth.

CHANCEMEN AGAIN DEFEATED

Cleveland Beats Out Chicago on Home Grounds—St. Louis Wins Over Detroit, Three to Two.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—After playing a fine uphill game here today, Boston hammered Bender's delivery for three doubles and two singles in the ninth inning, scoring four runs and winning from Philadelphia, 3 to 5. Poor pitching was shown on both sides. The home team drove Foster, formerly of Houston, Tex., off the rubber in the first inning and lost opportunities to add to their score by reckless base running. No hits were made off Brown until the fifth inning, but he began to weaken in the fourth, when he gave three passes. Houck took his place in the seventh. Bender, who succeeded Foster, retired in the fourth to permit Hall to bat for him. Bender succeeded Houck in the eighth. Leonard, who followed Bender to the rubber, weakened in the ninth. Then Danny Murphy opened with a single. Two outs were followed by passes to Collins and Baker. Wood was rushed to the rubber and he ended the game by fanning McInnis. Score:

the third out with three men on base. Fisher, for New York, was touched up freely, but many of the safeties were of the infeld variety.

Washington's base running and the batting of Alnsmith, McBride and Chase were the features. The victors stole eight bases, three of the at bats being Milani's. Gandil was banished in the ninth inning for protesting a decision. Score:

The reconciliation is looked upon in political circles as the most significant development of the administration so far.

Chicago Maternity Homes Split Fees with Physicians

CHICAGO, April 18.—"Doctors' graft," a system of fee splitting based on the factor in babies, was disclosed today to the legislative committee which is investigating charity institutions and maternity homes which care for children.

It was testified that in many cases the physician recommending a maternity home to prospective patients receives as much as one-third of the money paid to the institution. The committee also gave evidence tending to show Chicago as a clearing house for foundlings throughout the middle west.

Dr. F. W. Briney, head of a sanitarium and superintendent of a Sunday school, startled the legislature with an assertion that the demand for "orphan babies" was three times as great as the supply.

"We can't furnish all the babies we are asked for," he said. "We have a yearly contract for advertising in two Chicago papers in which we offer babies for adoption, but the real purpose of these ad investments is to solicit the patronage of expectant mothers."

The committee learned that Dr. Briney contracted with unmarried patients, so that after giving birth to children they were hired out as nurses. Their own children, however, were reared on artificial food.

"We make contracts with the girl mothers before their babies are born to this effect," said the witness.

Dr. Charles S. Wood, head of another maternity institution, submitted in evidence a contract which friendless mothers sign, by which they release all rights to their children and declares they have "abandoned them forever." Signatures to this document are prerequisites to treatment, he said.

"But now that Colonel Bryan in his public statement has done what he could to remove the injurious impressions that were created by his Baltimore speeches, I feel that we can all better cooperate for the good of the administration. I can only repeat what I have publicly declared time and time again, that all personal or selfish considerations must give way to the duty that all democrats owe to our party and to our country."

Just Like Old Pals.

Those in charge of the affair said Speaker Clark and Secretary Bryan exchanged jokes and had a good time. The statements were given out through Mr. Bennett.

So far as known it is the first time the men have met since the Baltimore convention. Speaker Clark's friends have always said Mr. Bryan prevented his nomination and that it was true Mr. Bryan's activity and influence that the convention, contrary to custom, refused to give the speaker the necessary two-
