Republicans Hold Meeting and See Victory Ahead.

GANGSTERS ARE MUCH WORRIED

Men Who Are Blamed for Defeat of Sam Winters by Outsider Are Renping Reward of Political Treachery.

Candidates on the republican ticket and members of the city central councittee held a joint meeting last night at the club headquarters. Twenty-fourth and M streets. "Get out the vote." was the slo gan of the night.

Reports from all parts of the city in dicated that the republican candidates were winning support from republicans and democrats alike. It was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that the long continued power of the so-called Gillin gang was at its end. The laboring men at the packing houses and the democrats desirous of freedom from gang rule, i was said, are open in their expressions of condemnation for the gang that has continued itself in office for so long, running up the taxes and keeping the city in a continual turnoil by factional fights among the gang politicians.

Insult to Young Men.

The trouble in the Seventh ward has been only accentuated by the insult directed against the Young Men's Independent Political club at its meeting Tuesday night. The meeting was called in the interests of all candidates, democratic and republican. Nearly 100 of the best men of the ward were present. All the republican candidates accepted the invitation in the spirit in which it was offered, while only two democratic candidates, W. E. Schneider and William Fitzgerald, attended. The chairman of the democratic city central committee insisted that the club be turned into a democratic meeting, but the young men resented the dictation and told him that Theodore Thomas Orchestrathere was "absolutely nothing doing."
