UNITED STATES OWNS CANAL

Mr. Olney Says it Has Right to Fix Toll Charges.

TERM "ALL NATIONS" DEFINED
Speaker Says it is Clear that This Phrase of the Treaty Does Not Include the United States.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The United States, as owner of the Panama canal, has the right to fix such terms as it pleases and the neutrality of the waterway applies to its users only and not the United States. This was the view expressed today by Richard Olney, former secretary of state, whose speech was read before a meeting of the American Society of International Law. Mr. Olney did not attend.
"It is clear," Mr. Olney's speech continued, "that a nation or a state does not convey away its property or sovereignty except by terms that are clear and susceptible of no other meaning; and that where the meaning can be taken to favor the United States, it is the clear right of the United States to urge that it be held that the words 'all nations' do not mean to include the United States. However, it is not necessary to rely upon this presumption, as the United States is owner and can fix terms as it pleases."
If the question is submitted to arbitration it should not be permitted to go to The Hague, but to a special tribunal. The Hague would be partial, as admittedly all European powers are interested in the outcome.
Another speaker who compared the relative interest of the United States and Great Britain at the various stages of the Panama canal negotiations was Chandler P. Anderson, former counselor of the State department, who in effect declared that the "United States is clearly entitled to exempt its own vessels from the payment of tolls or to refund such tolls."

Nixon Agrees with Olney.
Lewis Nixon of New York agreed with Mr. Olney that the ownership of the Panama canal gave to the United States right to make such rules as it saw fit, and such rules excluded this country from the provisions of existing treaties regarding "all nations."
"There is not one word or phrase," said Mr. Nixon, "that even by implication denies our right to give free tolls to our vessels in any trade. I am satisfied that this is understood, and that the strategy of present movements is that violent protests against remission of toll on vessels in the coasting trade may make us content to rest our case there, and not regulate commerce in the constitutional and more beneficial way to the nation by freeing our vessels from tolls in the foreign trade."

Two Men Hanged at Socorro, New Mexico
SOCORRO, N. M., April 25.—Denied a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment by Governor W. C. McDonald, two men, Ivan Francisco Granada, convicted of first degree murder, paid the extreme penalty of their crimes on the gallows early today.
Fraser was sentenced to hang for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Thomas Hall and Al Smithers of Luna county, in a fight with a posse following a jail break at Deming, November 7, 1911. Fraser was arrested in El Paso.
Granado was convicted for shooting William S. Clark, manager of the Mogollon Mercantile company store at Mogollon, February 9, 1912, in an attempted holdup.

efficiency and economy which will permit industry to stand upon its own feet with less support from the government, the people refuse to be longer taxed to accomplish the survival of the unfit."
Mr. Palmer declared that the Underwood bill would not cause any decrease in the aggregate production of industry in the country nor impair the earnings of labor.
"I have no fear," he said, "that the American wage earner will suffer, unless the American manufacturer shall feel that wide distress on the part of labor is not too high a price to pay to compel a return to the old protective system, and deliberately close his mills in order to frighten the people of the country into a repudiation of this new policy."

Millionaire Bixby is Still Missing

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 25.—Suggestions that certain resorts enjoyed official protection resulted today in the summoning of Police Sergeant George Hartmeyer as a witness before the grand jury. Chief Sebastian said that he would summon Hartmeyer before him.
Another witness today was Fred Lloyd, a private detective, said to have been employed by suspected persons who were with Katherine Phillips just before she vanished. Miss Phillips is the girl who started the white slavery investigation after she had been arrested for alleged blackmail at the instance of George H. Bixby, the Long Beach banker. Bixby is still missing. A state-wide search is now being conducted for him, but friends asserted today that he would reappear within twenty-four hours.
Subpoenas were issued commanding the presence of his son, Richard Bixby, before the grand jury, but when officers were sent to Long Beach to serve the summons they could not find the young man. Young Bixby's testimony was desired because it was thought he would be able to disclose his father's whereabouts.

A Reform in Dentistry

Dentistry of today has not advanced sufficiently to improve upon Mother Nature. But dentistry should emulate nature.
As closely as possible. Any dentistry that does not have that effect in view is not proper dentistry. If nature thought it good to equip the human family with half teeth she surely would have done so. She did not, however, instead she placed in every human being a mouth a good set of full teeth and if every individual had obeyed her laws regarding teeth preservation they would have enjoyed perfect teeth during their existence. But neglect and carelessness have caused them to pay the price and they have to resort to the work of man. Now what the individual wants is not a makeshift compound of metal with corroding surfaces which cause the individual to become a mouth breather, resulting in a thickened condition of the membranes of the bronchial tubes, setting up a chronic bronchitis and eventually Phthisis. Not only that, but the bacteria that has set up their habit in the crevices of metal plates are conveyed into the alimentary canal causing at least 10% of all diseases the human flesh is heir to.
It was this result that prompted Dr. Todd to study out a way by which this condition could be reduced to a minimum, and by taking nature's work as a guide he invented the full porcelain sanitary tooth. By close observation of his patients who have been wearing them for the past three years he feels gratified to find that these conditions have been nearly overcome and the satisfaction of those wearing his Sanitary Full Teeth is a great source of satisfaction to the doctor.
