Trade Reports Continue to Present Contrasts-Money Easter. NEW YORK, April 25 - Bradstreet's to-

Trade reports continue to present con-trasts in that line of demarcation has to be drawn between immediate and future or-ders. On the one hand business for curders. On the one hand business for current or nearby delivery is good to active, all depending on the section of the country considered, the stimpsking influence being furnished by greatly improved weather conditions. Against this development must be cited the fact that there is a general disposition, except in the northwest and parts of the southwest, to wait until tariff matters become clearly wait until tariff matters become clearly wait until tariff matters become clearer before anticipating future requirements. With conservatism manifested on that account the controlling idea the country over seems to be for the scaling down of stocks. Under the circumstances there is a marked tendency to shop frequently and to buy in small lots.

Lumber continues very active in the northwest.

Wool and woolen goods, more than any
