Archer Gibson, the well known organist of New York City, and Mrs. Gibson have arrived, to spend ten days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn. Owing to the extensive damage done by the tornado to all excepting the music room of the beautiful home of Mr. and Water board to furnish three houses on Florence, are disgusted with the treat-Mrs. Joslyn, the entertainments are very informal.

The last time Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were guests at Lynhurst several recitals were given, and Mrs. Gibson, who is the possessor of a pleasing soprano voice, assisted Mr. Gibson

Mr. Gibson will play each evening for Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn and their thickly populated street, who have asked turn the job over to the city for complefriends excepting Saturday, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The Joslyn organ was scarcely damaged at all, although the house and gardens were so badly hit by the tornado.
