ANOTHER Omaha girl is making good in the world of music. Miss Minna Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Meyer, who sailed for Europe just two years ago, made her debut in light opera in Berlin, Germany, last week, and after this season she plans to go into grand opera.

Miss Meyer made her debut in the comic opera, "Das Farmer Madchen." The plot is laid in America and the Berlin papers are advertising "A typical American girl in the leading role." Miss Meyer has a dramatic soprano voice and has been studying with Frau Rasbe Burgo, the teacher of Madame Gaski, who is taking quite an interest in Miss Meyer, the latter having been entertained in Madame Gaski's home in Berlin.

After graduating at the high school, Miss Meyer went to New York to study voice, and just before sailing for Europe Miss Meyer gave a concert here at Temple Israel. Her many friends are pleased to hear of her success abroad.

Omaha Boy Leading Juvenile.

George Monroe Clark, son of Mrs. Jessie Clark, of this city, who went to New York a year ago, is now leading man for one of the well known stock companies in Omaha, having lived here himself for several years and they are all aware of his ability in the theatrical profession. Shortly after going to New York he joined Mrs. Leslie Carter's company and spent the season with them touring in "Two Women."

Mr. Clark has just accepted a position as leading juvenile with the Stainchards Stock company for the summer, who are now playing at Mount Vernon, a suburb of New York City. One of the papers of that city says of Mr. Clark: "This week the Stainchard-Hards company has additional reason to bid for fame than in the usual run of productions. Many new faces appear. There is George Clark for one, who is the leading juvenile man, a handsome, manly looking chap, with a merry twinkle in his eye and a certain gracefulness of carriage that will make him a great favorite, no doubt, with the audience. He is a reminder in a cheery manner of Charles LaBie. He plays the part of Walter this week in 'The Traveling Salesman,' and while it is not a great role, he made much of his humor and was a likable drummer person who saw much fun in life."

Four Automobiles Taken, but Two Are Found After Search

Sheriff McShane's touring car was stolen early Monday night from the corner of Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets and was found at 5 a. m. yesterday at Eleventh and Chicago streets, somewhat the worse for hard driving. An extra tire, two inner tubes and an overcoat were stolen. The sheriff left the car for about ten minutes and found it gone when he returned. No clue was secured as to the thief.

A big delivery car was also taken from the Benson & Thorne garage, 1904 Lothrop street, and a seven-passenger machine, belonging to the Her Grand Taxicab company, was taken from Fourteenth and Cass streets early yesterday. John Resnick, 211 Leavenworth street, missed his machine last evening, but found it shortly after several blocks from where it was taken.
