

Mr. Man, This for You _____

How Are You Doing Your Duty By Your Daughters? In What Way Are You Attempting to Safe Guard Her Future?

By DOROTHY DIX.

Mr. Man, this article is written for you Are you a father with daughters? Are you a brother with sisters? If you are, how are you doing duty by your daughter or your sister? How much real responsibility you feet for her? What are you doing for her happiness? How are you protecting her? In what way are you attempting to safeguard her fu-

Oh, of course, if you are well-to-do you give your daughter or sister her board and clothes, and I take it that if you are poor you are not the kind of a centure into a den of wolves?

car of it, why? sinter? Do you take her out now and then to tired to go with sister?

Do you try to make things pleasant for and let her shift for herself? Do you know the men she goes with? respondence.

You belong to sister's generation; you an find out all about any young fellow who is attentive to her, and you can very presence is a contamination, and sister, and there is no other duty in the has her knight ever at her command who are as dangerous for her to asso- world that is so often neglected. That's Her watchdog is always on guard, and clate with hs it would be for a lamb to the principal reason that so many girls go wrong. boes your daughter confide in you? Men have an idea that girls don't need tance from her.

If she were becoming attached to a man any and sement or fun, and that all would she give you a hint of it or not? you've got to do is just tell them to reand if you would be the last person to main at home, and they'll stay put. But this isn't true. Girls are just as keen for woman has no way of finding out about What are you doing to help your daugh- pleasure as any man is, and if they can't the moral character of a man, but there er to make the right sort of a marriage? get it in the right way they will take it is no man who cannot ascertain whether Brother, what do you do for your in the wrong way.

The father who won't let his daughter it is the bounden duty of every father laces of amusement, or are you always out on the street to meet men. If he on the men who visit their daughters and er, or do you selfishly go your own way row over every letter she sets at home. fore the girls fail in love with these he puts a premium on clandestine cor- scapegraces.

Youth must have its fling, and girihood its laughter and dancing and romance, brothers can do much towards promoting and it's simply a question of whether a happy marriages of their daughters and ee that the wrong men are eliminated girl has her innocent amusement in her sisters by inviting worthy young men to rom her visiting list, and the right men own home, under the sympathetic yet their homes, and making it pleasant for the great Greek philosopher, Plato, said watchful eyes of her parents, or whether them to visit there. There is no chap-the human livenas who prey on undefended maidens keep a respectful dis-

Fathers and brothers are directly responsible for nine-tenths of the disastrous marriages that girls make. Atter: another man leads a dissolute life or not.

have her beaux at home simply turns her and every brother to keep an easie eye denies her freedom at home he drives sisters, and to shut their doors in the her into license abroad. If he raises a faces of drunkards and libertines be-

Also, inasmuch as most marriages are the result of propinquity, fathers and

Is There a Drowned Continent, or Island, Submerged Beneath Treacherous Atlantic Ocean?

By GARRETT P. SERVISS.

A man asks me by letter:

"Was there ever a continent, or island f Atlantis, and did it really sink to the bottom of the Atlantic ocean, as I have rend? To begin with, wish to say to the writer of that let-"Your que"tion doesyou credit. for it shows that you are capable of thinking of some thing else than the everyday affairs of this narrowly busy world. You have imagination. and whoever has that can live very happily, even though he succeeds in getting but little money. I do not know, and nobody knows, through all literature the story of the the eastern and western worlds. whether there ever was an Atlantis, but history there was and his story of what ancient When the new science of geology cultivated lands, teeming with the richest | century the science of oceanography products of the soll; and that, suddenly, it was overwhelmed by a flood of waters through all 'the great seas, armed with and sank beneath the sea, leaving only the tips of a few mountains projecting above the waves.

Other writers of ancient times men tioned the legend of lost Atlantis.

Solon, the Athenian sage and law giver, who lived nearly 600 years before Christ, is said to have heard about it durng his travels in distant lands. But ven in his time the memory, of the oken continent had almost vanished and the traditions concerning it were contradictory and uncertain. Yet, because they were so persistent and widespread. it is reasonable to conclude that there happened in remote antiquity some over sion upon succeeding ages.

whelming cataclysm that powerfully aflected the imagination of surviving mankind and made an ineffaceable impres-Lord Bacon named one of his most im portant works "The New Atlantis," and developed, and exploring ships were sent sounding apparatus capable of reaching depths of several miles. The soundings then made revealed the fact that the bottom of the Atlantic is very irregular, sinking at some places in vast depressions, rising elsewhere in broad plateaus and occupied at certain points by mountainous elevations, whose peaks occasionally attain the surface. Then it was guessed that the Azores Islands might be remnants of drowned Atlantis, and an attempt was made to trace the outlines of former lands conneeting the Old World with America. across the accunic neck between Africa and South America. Speculative thinkers began to bout the possible peopling of the Amer ican continent by the passage of races of men over this supposed hand bridge and thus an explanation was imagined of the curious resemblances between the civilization and the architectural semains of vanished continent has left its traces. It But no generally accepted conclusions is one of the greatest legends in human were reached, and more recently doubt has been thrown upon the whole subject by the growing belief that the earlie that takes her money away from her that | do that? girl. It isn't enough. It's just the be-whenever a young man comes to the house, and who looks so formidable that no youth with less courage than a wild ond time?

Are you one of the selfish fathers who likes to go to bed at $ o'clock, and who doesn't want to be disturbed by young people's singing and laughing, and who makes such a row every time daughter has company that she is afraid to invite her friends to her own home?

Are you a domestic tyrant whose child dren cower before you, whose daughter is so afraid of you that her one idea of happiness is getting as far away from you as possible?

What do you know about the young men who visit your daughter and with whom she goes to purtles, and automo-biling and the theater? Are they the Labor and leisure make life beautiful sort of men you would like her to marry? Are they clean and honorable, and is she safe with them? Or are they men whose

DeMiracle The Only Safe Hair Remover

Each application of an unknown depilatory is a dangerous experiment and likely to cause permanent dis-figurement. The mere fact that such application of an unknown ry is a dangerous experiment preparations are short-lived should alone be sufficient warning to avoid their use. De Miracle has stood the test of time, having been sold for over 11 years, therefore it is the only de-pliatory you can use without experi-menting. menting.

The Unoffensive Depilatory If you use De Miracle it will be im-smible for any curious person to now that you have used a hair re-over because De Miracle evaporates mover immediately after accomplishing its work, therefore leaves no odor what-ever. On the other hand, if you use any deplatory with a distinctive odor an offensive tell-tale smell will cling to your skin for hours.

Others Advertise "Guaranteed" but give no guarantee. De Miracle is the only depilatory that has a binding guarantee in each package.

Suarantee in each package. Avoid permanent disfigurement by refusing substitutes offered by dis-honest dealers merely for a few cents more profit. If your dealer will not supply you, send $1.00 direct Free in-formation how to determine which depilatories are harmful and worth-less sent in plain, sealed envelope. New truths in next advt.

De Miracle Chemical Co., New York

Sold and recommended by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., 16th and Dodge. Owl Drug Company, 16th and Marney. Harvard Pharmacy, 24th and Farnam. 852 Loyal Pharmacy, 207-9 No. 16th St.

kind of goodness is merely negative good- her and warn her against little impru- tance in questionable ways, and indulges making business. ness. It isn't really taking care of the dences that a girl may commit through in amusements that only too often lead And here's a final word to father and Plato said Atlantis was a large consheer innocence? Do you put her wise to ruin.

duct and dress?

who growls like a sore headed bear duce her to nice men, the sort of men whose father is her best pal and whose of your daughter or your that make good husbands and that you brother is her comrade, and who is sure sister you will get such devotion and apwould like to see her marry? of some man of her family as a willing preclation as you have never dreamed of You see, father and brother, you have escort to any place she desires to go is And it's nice to be worshipped as a little

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Convright, 1913.

by American-Journal-Examiner.

Deserved reward, and leisure sweet re-

Before we ask for leisure let us learn

When well divided, and labor means

Ascending paths of pleasure when

In health, in wisdom and in happiness.

We prove our right to clamor for more

But when the ginshop and the gambling

The dive, the public dance hall, and the

After the ending of a holiday, It makes a louder protest than the voice Of tyrant Greed against the shortened

And lengthened wage of labor. Look to it.

Two above lines written by me have called forth several criticisms and protests, some kindly intent, some meant inkindly, from working people and their

All these protests have been made from for continuous work of any kind. Most employers, heads of business houses and capitalists, who have the money-making lever, work more than that. But they also work for themselves. No one can find fault or discharge them or dock their wage if they happen to be late or

. W.

and the second

The leisure lifts you ere you ask for more.

andden creatures slowly back to toll ars of freedom, then, and

Or happy explorations in the fair pose.

RTOW

HEPOIL.

Ren/1

defenders.

quoted.

a mistaken point of view. No one fly-

ng believes more

fully in the shortening of hours of

abor than the

writer of the lines

I work frequently fifteen hours a day. But I work

for myself, and

and because I like

my work. 1 have no employer, and

that makes an entirely different

Eight hours a day

are quite, enough

thing of labor.

take a holiday.

s quite another story.

then alone,

animal famer ever ventures back" a sec- a very real duty to your daughter and never the girl that gets into trouble. She tin god.

she goes to places on the sly, with eron equal to father or brother, and he i she carns in store or office. But that Do you have heart-to-heart talks with strangers with whom she picks acquain- can understudy heaven in the match- awful fate is one of the most interesting ever written.

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

"I am a young girl of 18, and am in that I am just a reputtain givi who lives in a litie town. If he takes me to the so monstrous! If by any thought or and look and dress like a city indy."

know they will be ashamed of me, and estywrites from the depths of her troubled winning!

gan to be cultivated it was thought, at scologists exaggerated the extent to first, that it furnished unquestionable which seas and lands have changed corroboration of Plato's story, because it places.

seemed to demonstrate that the seas and it is now generally held that the ocean brother. Virtue is not the only reward tinent, situated in the Atlantic, west of lands of this globe had often changed basins have always been depressions ginning of your duty to her, not the end to men's point of view about a girl's con- Any father can protect his daughter in this case. Girls are foolishiy grateful the Strait of Gibraltar: that it was the places in past times; and, if that were filled with water, and that the great confrom such dangers. Any brother can for any attention from fathers and scene of marvelous civilization such as so, evidently it was perfectly possible for finents, as a whole, have never been un-Are you one of the grumpy fathers Do you ever take the trouble to intro- save his sister from such peril. The girl brothers, and if you'll only do a tithe the world, up to his time, had ever again a continent to have once occupied a large der a deep sea. The waters which once witnessed; that it contained populous part of what is now the Atlantic ocean. covered immense areas in North America cities, with beautiful palaces, and broad In the latter half of the Nineteenth and other continents were shallow basins,

If I hoped to make a "city lady"

her, I would introduce her to every de-

I would accompany her to a dressmaker, and a sist in tearing down every

She must take off those sensible shoes

I would give her a hat that is a tor-to all who sit near, but that is indis-

n outfitting her that a sign painter oberves in painting a cigarette sign: Any-

i wonder when she has been made into

"city lady," and every charm of napinched, squeezed and painted into al that is hideous and unnatural, if "his" folks will be proud of her. If they are,

has been tortured, suppressed.

thing to catch the eyes of the men.

She must wear her skirts vul-

The Humility of Love

love with a young man of 26, who lives ception beginning with the powder can city, where his folks are well-to-do. I conception she has of decency and modalso of him. Gan you tell me how I can garly tight, and immedently short, and lads."

uter.

She loves this man with a singleness pensable because its protesqueness at learn the city life and iook and dress the neck cut indecently low.

and a relatively slight change of level sufficed to turn them into dry land. The deposits found on the floor of the Atlantic, in its deeper portions, far from the shores, are of a character which indicates that they have been accumulating uninterruptedly for countless ages. At the same time, it is practically cartain that some of the great archipelages which lie near the shores of continents, After she has lived in the city a while like the East India islands, were once she will want to make him over! I wonconnected with those continents. A girl who lives in the mountains der if he appreciates the treasure he is And it is just possible that the changes of sea level that have occured elsewhere were, in some cases, sufficient to submorge an area of continental extent. Sc. it may be said that the question of the former existence of a continent.' or at least a great island, somewhere in the Atlantic ocean is still open.

But if future exploration should reveal its rocky skeleton living at the bottom of the sea, there is hardly the remotest chance that any indications of the billlant life which Plato said once covered would be found.

MOUNTAIN GIRL. + that zerve for purposes of comfort and The discovery of fossils in those rocks, Heaven forbid that I should do a thing protection, and put on pumps and ally however, would be irrefragable proof hose that will cause the eyes of all mensuggestion I ever influenced any little to follow her, that being the beginning that they had once lain near, or above, the surface of the water:

That You Ever Had Stomach Trouble or Gall Stones

MAY

And BUILDING

MAYE'S WONDER-PUL STOMACE REM-EDY for all Stomach. Liver and Intestinal Trouble, Gastritis, In-digestion, Dyspep-sis, Fressure of Gas Around the Meart, Sour Stomach Die Sour Stomach, Dis-tress After Eating, Nervousness, Dissi-ness, Fainting Spells, Sick Headspells, Sick Head-aches, Constipation, Congrested and Tor-pid Liver, Yellow Jaundice, Appendi-citis an d Call Stones. The shore aliments are mainly caused by the cloging of the in-testinal tract with mu-cold and catarnal ac-cretions, Barking up poisoneum fluide into-be deranging the diges. MAYR'S

A MARYEL DAS BEMARDY FOR BEMARDY FOR BALL BYONY BER, N. MAYN MMC ACIO.

the stomach, and otherwise deranging the dign

Do not permit a dangerous operation for these aliments until you have at jense trued one does of this great Benedy. Send for FRKs reluable booklet on stomach aliments to GEO H. MAYH, Mig. Cheshist, 154-156 Whiting St. Chicago, III. For sale in Omahn by Sherman & Merionosti Drug Co., the tsih and Dodge, 16th and Harmey, 5th and Fargam, 207 No. 15th inventions and by new conditions the Send sodden creatures back to toil whole drudgery of the world's work will be done on five hours' time and the human race allowed the remainder to grow, mentally and spiritually. As I came of a long-lived race on two

What Is Leisure? || How to Use It is the Thing to Learn After We Have Learned True Lesson of Labor sides, I may realize my dreaem, but the world will realize it some time, surely. When I think of the cotton mills, with where I have seen women working ten and twelve hours a day and begging women and children are sacrificing eyc-

every day in the open air.

written.

of Greed.

street

heard her regret the announcement of an in the city. 'He loves me in return and and rouge not, and ending chaos alone unexpected holiday for husband. He was has asked me to marry him. I know knows where, a workingman, a laborer. She knew the holiday meant the wasting of his wages and the greater injury to their deafening roar and flying dust.

his health than two days' work. It meant the ginshop and the gambling den.

After the ending of a holiday It makes a louder protest than the voice Of tyrant Greed. * * * ''' a

I have seen a woman weep and have positions for the children (and opposing When an employer sees and knows of any movement to prevent the employmany similar results from holidays he is ment of children as I personally knew strengthened in his arguments against them to be); when I think of the feather the shortening hours of labor. He does, factories and sweatshops and the thounot stop to think of the thousands of sands of other manufactories where no women and the hundreds of sober and girl from the country "to learn city life and end of all ambition of the "city light of day ever penetrates and men. mortal men all about him who need the added leisure to make home life worth sight and health on the altar of greed. then may my punishment be swift and the name.

long to open all the doors and send the He does not consider the pitiable cases toilers forth to green fields and the woods of poor fathers who love their children. for half of every working day; and I yet who never see them save when they know the world would be better off and are asleep. the progress of every race accelerated were it made possible for every toller in rising at the dawn to prepare a breakthe land to enjoy three hours of rest fast for husbands and sons who return at nightfall unable to do more than to It is because I want the toilers themfall into exhausted sleep.

selves to help make the world realize For every argument against the movetheir need that the quoted lines were ment of shortened hours of labor there are a dozen good ones in its favor, but it The employer's objection to the shorter is a misfortune when the laboring man our of labor is understood as the voice himself, by his had habits during hours of leisure, makes a louder protest than the But when the ginshop and the gambling enemies of the movement are making-The dive, the public dance hall and the ask for more.

The Headwaitress

By HANK. 'Marie wants to bet me $5 that you're sarried," said the Headwaitress to the teady Customer. "Why?" he asked. "Weil, she says her brother is a phiz-logy student--' "A what?" queried the Steady Cos-

"Why, he's a face expert," explained the Headwaltress. " a sort of parlor fly a hourse voice. cop like this feller Shylock Holmes. He can look at anybody's phis and tell you Stead Customer. all about them. That's why they call it To be compelled to go to work at a phizology." certain hour and to remain until the pre-What is there about my face that acribed time as has already been stated. the Steady Customer.

I hope to live to see the time when by and I'm willing to het on my buttonology awful past, a sort of gee-but-I-could-tells great way to aid digestion."

some-terrible-things-if-I-wanted-to, bloke. When I first saw him I was willing to bet said the Head Waltress; "what you need he'd call for black coffee and sinkers in is a license, a collar and a chain, for I

"He asked me for a bowl of milk and heard," answered the Headwaitress, "and makes Marie think I'm married?" asked ended up with apologizing because he asked for a second glass of water. dee.

"You'll have to ask Marie," replied the if all the blokes that came in here was

Look to it that leisure lifts you ere you match what she dreams might be his ideals.

Headwaitress. "I figured you were single as polite as your friend, I'd hand em because the bottom button of your over- water enough to flood Dayton all over coat hasn't been with you for two weeks again if they asked for it." "Nevertheless, there is something against all her phizology. I don't believe studying faces," said the Steady Cusroom in that kind of stuff, anyway. Now you tomer. "When I chose to sit at your take that tall, dark, mysterious looking table. Louise, I figured from your face ties. I figured him to be a man with a girl, whose natural charms would go a "You don't need no digestion-aider."

never seen anybody get away with "And what did he do?" asked the sausages and mashed putatoes like you dwellers in the plains. I want her to be always honest and fearless and sincere

"Marie," said the Steady Customer to To be natural, to be herself, to be gratecrackers in the softest voice I ever the cashier as he was paying his check. ful that she was in the beginning, "just "what is there about my face that made a mountain girl." you bet Louise I was married. For she has a heritage worth more

"A serious expression," answered Marie, than any superficial knowledge of what "You are a very observing girl," said makes up a "city lady." the Steady Customer.

of purpose and with her whole heart. tracts. I would, in brief, take the care She doesn't love him for what such an Nor the numbers of wives and mothers alliance may bring her in social position other manor financial returns. She will not give him a heart that is divided with any She is pure and sweet and wholesers tke the mountain air she has always do.

lessria.

breathed, and her love bears the mark of every true woman's love: Bumility.

line a city lady?'

then they are the kind of relations one She does not question if he is good is better off for not knowing. enough for her, but if she is good enough I wonder if the man who loves the for him, and would make herself over to mountain girl will love her just as much when she has become a victim of the prevailing city life epidemic. I doubt it. and because I doubt it I want this little mountain girl to bring to her city home so much of the strength and purity of her native hills that the hypocrisy of the unatural city life will never find The history of this great, old world will prove that ever since man left his guy that comes in here with you some- that you were an attentive, fun-loving mark upon it, the rugged, the strong and the upright have come from the