Reds Lose Again. CHICAGO. April 30.—The Cincinnati Reds, having recovered their uniforms and regular playing paraphernalia, gave Chicago a hard game today, but the locals won, 4 to 3. The game was a pitchers' battle between Suggs and Pierce, in which luck favored the local twirler.

Chicago was credited with two home runs on drives which were misjudged. Had these hits been played correctly the result might have been reversed. result might have been reversed.

In the fifth inning, after one Chicagoan had been passed, Bescher misjudged Bridwell's liner to left center and both runners scored.

In the sixth inning Marsans misjudged Mitchell's hit and the ball rolled to the fence, the runner circling the bases. Bunched hits and a double steal gave them another run in the sixth. The visitors started a raffy in the last inning , when Pierce weakened, a single, an error and Almeida's clean drive to the club house almost winning the game.
