Five Hundred Loyal Knights Pledge Fealty to King of the Realm.

SEASON OF SUCCESS IS PROMISED

Dates Fixed When Visitors from Kingdom of Quivern Will Be Invited to Come and Bow at the Shrine.

When Samson made his spitial report of the year to the Board of Governors of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben at the feast spread at the Omaha club last night he was greeted by a round of applause. That eport showed that up to this date 500 of the business men and others of Omaha have pledged their fealty to the king. have each paid in their $10 bills and enlisted for the campaign and not an initiation or meeting has been held.

This is a record for the Knights. the past the 500 mark has not usually been reached until late in June. The in dications are that when the first initiation of the season is held, the night of June 2, the membership will be around 700, and perhaps considerable in excess, for the business men this year are much more enthusiastic than ever before, and they have declared their intention of boosting for Ak-Sar-Ben harder than

In color they are red, yellow and green, as usual, and are made to represent an armored knight, sitting on a horse, just eady to charge upon the enemy.

This year there are to be numerous special nights when visitors from other parts of the realm will be made honorary members and initiated free into all of the secrets of the order. They will, of course, have to undergo all the tortures, but they will get a lot of fun out of their experience, for Gus Renze, the artificer to the king, is getting together some machinery that is said to be simply killing. This will be all ready for the first initiation night, June 2, when the ditors of the state will come in and try , they being given the first chance. June 9 has been designated as South Omaha night, and the night of June 16 the men of Benson will be called in to see what is doing. Nothing was done relative to selecting the grounds for the carnival. The committee reported several sites under consideration and asked for and was given nore time. Parades were talked over, and while it was not decided how many will be put on, was agreed that there will be several and that each will be more comprehensive and fully as representative as uring past years.

There will be a rehearsal at the Den ome night in the near future, when the working team for initiation nights will be made up and given preliminary instructions.

The Japanese problem in California as it actually exists on the farms and ranches of the Sacramento valley was viewed at close range by Secretary of State Bryan this morning in the course of a two-hour automobile run through the thickly Florin district, ten miles south of the capital.

Governor Johnson and Assemblyman Hugh Bradford, who accompanied the ecretary, were armed with facts and figures to explain the scenes that met the eyes of their visitor, and Mr. Bryan seemed deeply interested. His only comnent, however, at the end of the trip was that he has seen "Not only a Japanese colony, but a very pretty California val-

In the Florin district, embracing about twenty-five square miles of rich soil, there is a population of 1,500 Japanese farmers and 600 Americans. Twelve years ago there was not a score of Japanese in the community; now they practically control the grape and berry industries of that section.

They own the factory where the berry boxes are made, and when the party visited the shop Mr. Bryan saw thirtyfive Japanese girls at work. He was told by Governor Johnson that prior to six years ago, American girls were employed there, at higher wages and with shorter hours of labor.

An interesting stop was made at the district school of Florin, where the party visited the first grade. It was a typical school room, with pictures of Washington and Lincoln on the walls, but in the seats below there were twenty-two Japanese children and twenty American boys and girls. The American youngsters were 6 and 7 years old, the Japanese included several who were 16, and so large that new desks had been supplied for
