NEW CROP OUTLOOK IS GREAT
 General Manager Holdrege Finds Farmers Satisfied.

WINTER WHEAT IS ESTIMATED
 Reports from Various Counties Indicate that the Harvest Will Be a Heavy One Throughout the State.

General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington is back from an inspection trip that covered all of the main lines of the system west of the Missouri river and most of the branches. He went out with President Miller and Vice President Byram, who, from Pacific Junction went to St. Louis.

Mr. Holdrege is enthusiastic over conditions in Burlington territory, where he found the country very prosperous, but without a boom. The migration into Wyoming is the heaviest in years, farmers from the central states taking up lands and buying improved farms.

On the Powder River extension, Mr. Holdrege noted great activity and a disposition upon the part of the contractors to complete the work at the earliest possible date. Grading from Powder River to Caspar is well along and considerable grading has been done east of the last named point.

Everywhere through Nebraska, Mr. Holdrege found the farmers busy in the fields getting ready for corn planting, which will be in full blast next week, the acreage giving promise of being up to, if not exceeding, that of last year. Throughout the entire state the ground is in perfect condition for working, there having been an abundance of moisture.

Outlook is Great.
 Wheat, Mr. Holdrege says, never looked better and is far advanced, indications being favorable for an enormous crop provided weather and other conditions continue good during the next thirty to forty days.

Mr. Holdrege has just received complete reports from all of the division freight agents of the Burlington in Nebraska, who, under instructions, have prepared data showing the agricultural conditions on this date. The summary shows that in Holt, Antelope, Pierce, Cedar, Dixon, Dakota and Thurston counties, winter wheat is 100 per cent, so far as condition is concerned. Spring work is ten days to two weeks late, and owing to this the spring wheat acreage will be about 75 per cent of that of last year. The oat acreage will be about the same as last year, while corn will be much more. It is estimated that about 15 per cent of the wheat of last year and 24 per cent of the corn is still in the hands of the farmers.

Winter Wheat Looks Fine.
 In Burr, Dodge, Saline, Colfax and Sarpy counties, winter wheat is standing at 100 per cent. The soil is in prime condition, but owing to past weather conditions, spring work has been retarded. The result is that the spring wheat acreage will be but 50 per cent of last year. The oat acreage will show no change from a year ago. Seventeen per cent of last year's crop of wheat and 50 per cent of the corn remains unmarketed.

The report from Cass, Otoe, Nemaha, Johnson, Gage and Lancaster counties places winter wheat, at 100 per cent, the season five to ten days late, but the soil is in perfect condition. There is practically no spring wheat sown in the counties named. Data are all in and are commencing to show through the ground. Last year's grain on hand is estimated at 15 per cent of the wheat and 5 per cent of the corn, it being held for higher prices.

Saline, Fillmore, Clay, Adams, Kearney, Seward, Butler, Platte, York and Polk counties estimate winter wheat at 100 per cent, with soil conditions perfect. Cattle are all planted and are beginning to show through the ground, the acreage being about that of last year. In these counties there is little spring wheat. Farmers are plowing for corn and will plant a larger acreage than ever before. It is estimated that farmers are still holding from 10 to 30 per cent of their wheat and 5 per cent of the corn. The corn will not be sold, but, instead, will be fed.

Hamilton, Hall, Merrick, Howard, Greeley, Sherman, Valley, Wheeler, Crawford, Buffalo and Custer counties report the condition of the winter wheat at 100 per cent, and the acreage fully up to former years. In these counties there is no spring wheat grown and no large acreage of corn. It was shipped in for feeding, instead of out for stock purposes. It is estimated that 10 per cent of the wheat of last year is still held by the farmers. Farm work is five to ten days late, owing to the recent rains that have put the ground in the best possible condition.

De Lor Recognized as Lawbreaker With a Long Bad Record

Marvin DeLor, the footpad who was shot in the leg by Patrolman Wade while attempting to escape after holding up Charles J. Duff of Council Bluffs at Twentieth and Harney Thursday, is a lawbreaker of the most desperate sort, according to Steve Maloney, chief detective, who has had considerable experience with the man.

An interesting anecdote is told of DeLor in one of his attempts to avoid the strong arm of the law. He had been implicated with several daring robberies in Sioux City and was being taken back there after his arrest in the southern part of the state. In some way he secured a file, and while the sheriff was reading his newspaper and had his attention off of the prisoner the latter filed through his wrist chains and leg irons, and when the train pulled in at a little station he made his getaway through a window.

He then walked to Omaha, a distance of eighty-five miles, and a tip reached the police headquarters a week later where he could be located. Maloney and Van Dusen jumped into an auto and hurried to the house on North Twenty-eighth street—and as they approached the building they sighted DeLor, who was on top of the roof attempting. He also saw the officers and dropping his hammer slid down and dropped over the guttering to the ground below.

The officers hurried around the side of the house and nearly stumbled over a 5-year-old girl sweeping the walk.

"Where did that man go?" was the question asked by Maloney.

The little girl continued sweeping without raising her eyes from the walk and answered: "I couldn't say."

The minions of the law were baffled for a minute as to what course to take, when a 3-year-old child in a go-cart, who had been studiously watching the proceedings "piped" up in a sing-song chant: "I know where he went." Maloney gave the youngster a nickel and proceeded to tell the three that DeLor had jumped over an embankment to the rear of the house.

After a short search through a thick growth of weeds DeLor was captured, and a few days later was taken back to Sioux City by Fleming.

The occupants of the house near where DeLor was taken were distant relatives of the fugitive.

Police Refuse to Let Reporter Lie

There are liars, perverters of truth and prevaricators, according to Police Sergeant H. C. Cook, but the man who told him a hunting story the other day is in a class all by himself, he remarked to the headquarters men Thursday night during a lull in police business.

"This fellow said he went hunting and came to a lake upon which, were swimming many ducks, that when he fired both loads of a double-barreled shotgun, and the birds rose in flight, it was fifteen minutes before he knew that he had killed a single one," said the sergeant. "The birds were so close together that they carried the dead one right up in the air with them and it took that long for them to spread."

Whereupon Bill Herald contributed one: "The fellow that you speak of must be the brother of the gink that slipped this one to me."

"This fellow was chopping wood out in the state somewhere last fall when suddenly it became dark. He looked up and saw millions and millions of ducks swimming overhead. They came closer and closer and soon they were within a dozen feet of the ground. The fellow thought he could kill some with his sharp axe and he hurried it with all his might into the air. Every single duck flew away, but the wood chopper picked up forty-two bushels of feet."

"Some duck story!" ejaculated a reporter on the morning contemporary, "but I actually saw one that beat—"

"Hey, wait a minute," interrupted Sergeant "Tony" Vanous, who had apparently been sleeping. "You're s-o-m-e liar yourself, but if you try to impugn that one I'm a gonna leave here right now!"

Whereupon the flattered reporter fumed and raged, but his opportunity was lost, for work was resumed in the interim, and the records established by Cook's and Herald's lies stand as unshakable.

Rheumatic Blood is Whole Story

Sciatica, Lumbago, and Dreaded Arterial Rheumatism Cured.

You Will Feel Like an Acrobat After Using S. S. S.

There is a host of pills, powders, tablets and what-not for rheumatism, but they all lack the first essential to being a natural medicine. To begin with, rheumatism is simply a name given to designate a variety of pains, and can only be relieved by fringing the entire blood supply with a naturally assimilative antidote. True, the pains may be eased with narcotics or the like, most palatable for the time being. But such methods merely temporize and do not even lead to a cure. There is but one standard rheumatism remedy, and is sold in all drug stores under the name of S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable elements and is absolutely free of mercury, iodine, or arsenic, and has proved a wonder for every form of rheumatism.

The recoveries of all types of rheumatism by the use of S. S. S. is a fine tribute to the natural efficacy of this remarkable medicine, for it is assimilated just as naturally, just as specifically, and just as well as any food. It is most readily digested food. Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. You will be astonished at the results. If your rheumatism is of such a nature that you would like to consult a specialist confidentially, write to The Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Co., 1st Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Gold Watch Given to Guild for His Relief Activities

John M. Guild, commissioner of the Commercial club, is another recipient of a gold watch for his services in relieving the poor. A beautiful gold watch, counterpart of one given to Frank I. Ellick, has been given to him. His initials are engraved on its back and inside the case is the inscription, "To Mr. John M. Guild, for admirable leadership in tornado relief work from forty friends, 1912."

The "friends" include officers and directors of the Commercial club and personal admirers.

Mayor Proclaims Straw Hat Season

"Get out your old gray bonnet with the faded blue band on it," Mayor Jim has proclaimed the season open. The mayor himself has decided to purchase a new colorful straw hat. His last year's bonnet is all covered with dust and is not the proper head-dress for a chief executive of a great metropolitan city, so he will invest in a new one. He hasn't said so, but he has been inspecting show windows where straw hats are displayed and has been careless with his old lid.

"It's time to ditch 'em," said the mayor, as he gave his derby a loving look. "The season's open, and I officially proclaim the straw hat in fashion. Tell the men to swing into line. Winter hats are heavy on the head and hard on the hair. They ought to be discarded as soon as possible."

Judge Ben Baker scoffs at that part of the declaration referring to winter hats being hard on the hair. He says the mayor is getting fresh to include a statement like that in such a serious proclamation.

"Anyway, the mayor has no cause to peek on me," said the judge, rubbing the place where his hair used to be. "The

Corner Clocks Give Thoroughfare Name

"I'll meet you in twenty minutes at the northwest corner of Appointment Alley," sighed the Cute Little Trick into the telephone of a downtown drug store.

An old-timer leaning over the cigar case, apparently selecting a weed, but in reality, getting an earful of conversation picked up by his listeners.

"Appointment Alley," he repeated as he followed the girl going out of the door with his eyes. "I've been around this here hamlet nigh onto twenty-four years, but this 'Appointment Alley' stuff goes over my head like a comb."

"Get her—get her, Hixton, and Farm street is 'Appointment Alley,' laughed the lady clerk. "It has been ever since the tenants of the corner lots put clocks on the front of their places."

And it is a fact. The C. W. Hull Coal company has installed a big clock on the corner, the Niles & Moser cigar store also has one, and the Meyer, Dillon Drug store recently put out one to occupants of the stores in the Paxton block are contemplating a clock.

At almost any hour of the day you see half a dozen persons standing around on one of the four corners, anxiously looking up at one of the clocks, every few minutes. They are waiting for some one.

Hence the name, "Appointment Alley."
