ORKIN BROTHERS' GREAT SALE STARTS MONDAY MORNING

tensive preparations at Orkin Bros. for their big sale which starts tomorrow morning, when they will place on sale quarter million dollar wholesale stock of Orkin & Levitt, Stoux City, Ia. The immense assortment consists of the very newest and most favored dry goods, stions, men's clothing and furnishings and will be sold without reserve at about 50c on the dollar.

No stone has been left unturned to make the sale of keenest interest and a record breaker in value giving. It is said this event in its entirety is the greatest undertaking ever attempted by any Omaha store.

Within the walls of the building one rtually scents the spirit of the event as he enters, while the great tables and counters piled high with the myriads of bright, new bargains will prove amazing to the hundreds of shoppers who are sure to attend.

The windows are in gala attire, brimful of value-giving suggestions and numberless pointers to the road to economy The bright yellow tickets and signs each bearing the prices in unmistakably large figures add life and attraction to the

Weeks and weeks were spent in preparation and with the colossal task drawn to a close, there is a most unusual intenseness of interest which will undoubtedly be manifested Monday morning when the doors swing open at the Announcement!

Dr. William Creighton Maxwell

wishes to announce to his friends and patrons his return from Palestine, The Holy Land, Jerusalem and the Orient, where he has spent the winter.

Dr. Maxwell will be pleased to meet his friends and patrons at his office,

408-9-10 Omaha National Bank Building, 17th and Farnam Sts.,

where he is engaged in treating All Diseases of the Rectum without Cutting, Tying or Burning and Without Pain. Dr. Maxwell has resided in Omaha for twenty-seven years.

A written guarantee given in all cases treated. Pay when cured.

Dr. W. C. Maxwell

17th and Farnam Sts. Phone Red 4390. Cut this out for reference.

THE LIBRARY SCHOOL

HEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY.
Entrance examinations June 9, 1512.
e-year course for certificates. Twoar course for diploma. Send to M. W.
ummeg, Principal, 476 Fifth Avenue.
W York. for descriptive circular.

HOTELS.

Hotel Kupper Kansas City. Mo.

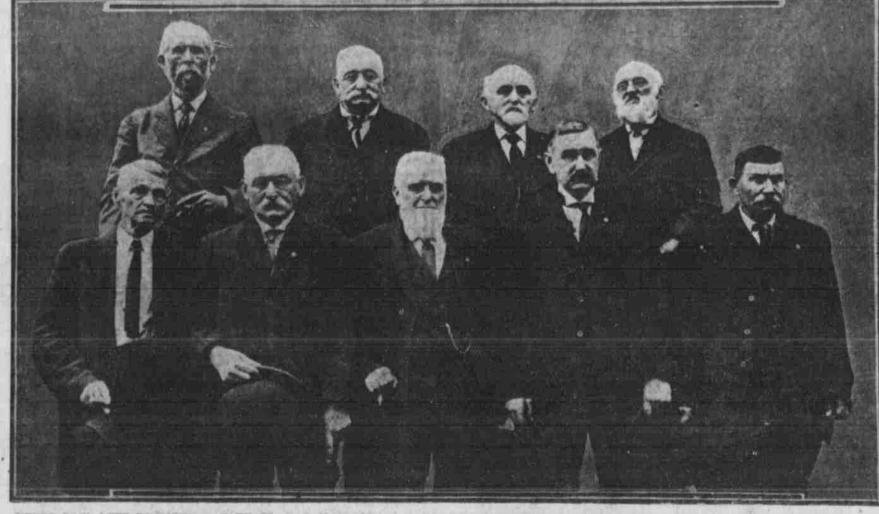

LOCATED IN THE RETAIL AND

SHOPPING DISTRICT.

A hotel of quality and refinement at reasonable prices. European plan $1 to $4 per day. Take elevated are at depot marked 27th St., divect to hotel. HUPPER-HENSON HOTEL CO.,

ted Features, Inbestile Now

Veterans Who Followed Meade and Hancock at Gettysburg

UPPER ROW. LEFT TO RIGHT-S. E. WIALL, T. J. M'QUILLIN, J. J. BRUNER, J. B. BRUNER, LOWER ROW. LEFT TO RIGHT-WILLIAM M'LEAN, JOSEPH MALLISON, J. W. CRESS, G. W. LOWER, J. H. BERGER.

Nebraska survivors of the battle of proceedings that are to be held. to be some 175 in the state, will attend dozen men who were in the battle when the of the rebellion was fought. the reunion that is to be held on the $9,000 union soldiers were lined up against. The men who fought at Gettysburg. The accompanying picture shows a field where they fought July 1, 2, 3 and 4, and for four days fought 70,000 confed-constituted the flower of both north and bonch of the veterans as they appear at the reunion that is to be held on the $9,000 union soldiers were lined up against The men who fought at Gettysburg them to attend and participate in the sylvania. At Gettysburg Lee was halted, time has thinned their ranks and today county for many years.

will bird

defeated and turned back, and by many | those who survive after fifty years are Gettysburg, of whom there are supposed In Omaha there are something like a it is regarded that there the decisive bat- slowly climbing down the slope that leads to the hereafter

1862. The appropriation made by the Ne- erates, who, under General Robert E. south. They were young men and at this time. All are well known here and braska legislature makes it possible for Lee, had started on a raid through Penn- the time were at their best. Since then have been citizens of Omaha and Douglas

RAID LEADS TO SCRIMMAGE No Chance of War

Bulldog Joins in Attack on Police at Vinton Street Place.

MANY MAKE THEIR ESCAPE

Some Get Out the Back Way and Others Jump Through Windows and Run Over Roofs of Adjoining Houses.

A "blind pig" over Sambo's saloon, 1912 Vinton street, was raided about 10 o'clock sorimmage by the dozen or more occu-the party one of the men, who escaped, urged a large white buildog, which was a well directed swing of Dillon's blackdefender.

While the police were engaged in rounding up the inmates a crash of glass was heard in an adjoining room and Sergeant Sigwart shoved open the door and was in time to see the fleeting coattall, the window or the blind before making his exit.

Sambo Draws a Fine. Leading the offenders down the stairone man thought to be Sambo himself, darted suddenly through a side door into the saloon, and immediately locked the door behind him. The officers battered the door from its hinges, but a thorough search of the place falled to reveal the quarry. About 11 o'clock the patrol again made a trip to the estabishment and Sambo, the proprietor, was taken. In police court he received a fine of $75 and costs and the inmates taken. six in number, were dismissed, with the exception of two, one getting fifteen days and the other $30 and costs.

Candidates Chosen for Register Staff

The candidates for next year's Register staff have been passed upon by the executive board at the Omaha High school-The campaign will open Monday, lasting until Wednesday, May 21, when the result will be published. The board denied a nomination to Harold Torell, this year's business manager, who having broken all itor. Candidates passed upon: For editorassistant editor, Marie Rowley, Edna Lerine, Margaret Getten and Lorine Davis; business manager, Arno Trueisen, Jucson Squires, Glen Paxton and Wahlfred Jacobsen; assistant business manager, Edwin Gould, William Campen and Robert Edwards.

TWO OFFICERS GUARD WOUNDED HOLDUP MAN

Before the night shift of police left the station for their various posts Friday afternoon, George Floth, 3102 Burt street, one of the holdups taken Thursday night. was brought before the shift at the re- feet. quest of Chief of Detectives Steve Maloney. Sergeant Vanous placed the man on a platform raised from the floor, gathered the officers about him and gave the following instructions: "George Floth, he man before you, is a desperate crimnal; get mental picture of his build looks and characteristics and at any time in the future should you encounter and recognize the man, bring him to the staion, no matter how he is occupied." Marvin Le Lor, who is at present a putient at St. Joseph's hospital by reason of a bullet wound in the right leg, waich man Wade, is causing the police depart-

Between Japan and U.S., Asserts Maxey

LINCOLN, Neb., May 2 .- "There is no ikelihood of war between the United States and Japan. Japan does not want war. Neither do we. It is probable that the federal government will go to any extent to avoid complications with the Japanese over the California situation. This was the statement of Dr. Edwin Maxey, professor of international law at the University of Nebraska, and one of Friday evening by a patrol load of of- the men retained by the Japanese governficers headed by Sergeant Sigwart and ment as counsel in the first Japanese Pete Dillon. The establishment was controversy in California. Dr. Maxey, at reached by climbing a long dark stair-way, and the officers, upon gaining the California made a careful study of the second floor, were engaged in a lively Japanese question, and has been following the present trouble closely.

"The present complications, outside of Several women escaped through a rear trouble with Japan, however, present a door before the officers could apprehend question fundamental in its nature and them, while at least four male occupants one which will go to the very rudiments beat a hasty retreat through convenient of the system of American government," windows opening on the roofs of adjoin- said Dr. Maxey. "It will mean just what ing buildings. When the officers surprised power and pressure may be brought to bear upon the individual state by the federal government to prevent an action in the room, to attack the officers, but which will embarrass the states as a

"The question is one which has the magnitude of the one which was settled when the southern states attempted to withdraw from the union. The question will probably be settled in the courts and perhaps the proposed antiwas in time to see the fleeting coattail, alien land law of California will be de-of a gentleman, who neglected to raise clared unconstitutional. But if the Californians should refuse to obey the ultimatum of the courts, then the question will be as to how far the United States can go to force California to a decision." Dr. Maxey believes the southern states will give moral support to California,

County Board Will

If money for reconstruction work is raised by a bond issue voted by Douglas county, it will be loaned without interest to property owners who suffered loss in

"The bond issue would do little good if voted the money will be loaned without charge to deserving persons."

The board has received a communication from the Commercial club and the relief committee, asking that a special election in Douglas county to vote $250,000 records in getting ads had filed for ed- bonds be called. The commissioners agreed to meet representatives of the two orin-chief, Haydn Myer and Edmund Booth; ganizations Tuesday morning of 19 o'clock to discuss the matter.

ASKS BIG DAMAGES FOR INJURIES IN ELEVATOR

When Miss Liouise Greggleft the seventh story of the Brandels building on December 25, 1912, and took the elevator going down, she was on her way to her Christmas dinner. She never ate that meal, for she met with an accident and has been an actual pleasure for the comwas injured. She has sued the owners of pany to send the gift to the sufferers. the building for $15,600 damages, alleged not only because it is considered a duty. sustained when the elevator dropped but also for the reason that it believes seventy feet and threw her from her in reciprocity.

Miss Gregg was employed by the Western Union company as a bookkeeper. She alleges that she was so severely hurt that she was forced to submit to a serious surgical operation.

POLICE COURT BREAKS ALL RECORDS FOR FINES

tered all police court records for fines, costs and bonds forfeited, the total amount reaching $3,470.50, as compared OLSON GETS BIG VERDICT he pseeived from the revolver of Patrol- with the next highest amount, $3,407.15 reached in February of this year. Of the tention. De Lor is in no condition to be put in fail and his several almost miraculous escapes from the authorities warning and aching feet. A twenty-the damage suit tried in the federal court. Olson was injured in March, 1912, when he bumped into a post on the railway considerably more than several of the preceding months, and the proprietors of the places raided were fined on an average of the proposed fine places and injuring him permanently. ment no little anxiety as to the method sum collected in April $1,380 was fines.

TO FORM MUTUAL COMPANY Waters Flood House; Omaha Manufacturers May Found

Own Insurance Corporation.

DEPENDS ON WORKMEN'S LAWS Final Passage of Compensation Bill

and Employers' Liability Law Means that Organisation Will Become Reality.

When the new workmen's compensation and employers' liability naw goes into effect in Nebraska July 17, the Omaha Manufacturers' association will establish mutial insurance company to be operated within the state by Nebraska manufacturers. Circulars are now being sent out to nembers of the local association and to state manufacturers announcing the proemployers' liability and workmen's com-pensation law of the old line companies. Rate to Be No Higher. The first circular says "the rate of incompany will be under no circumstance before they receded. more than that charged by the old line companies under the new law, with the call was responded to in the belief that itional benefit that all surplus over four persons were drowned. and above the cost of operation, with the exception of a small reserve fund, will be returned to you in yearly divi-

It is probable that after the establishment of the mutual insurance company by the Omaha association the Nebraska State Manufacturers' association will organize a similar company or join with rates down to a minimum.

the success of the mutual insurance company while keeping them as low or lower than those charged by the old line complan for mutual insurance is satisfactory to you; if the rules are satisfactory to has just been held there. the tornado and want to rebuild their you; if the constitution and by-laws are dwellings. All members of the Board of satisfactory to you, will you place your FIRDAY EVENING'S STORM County Commissioners are agreed upon liability insurance with this mutual company?"

As soon as a sufficient number of interest were to be charged borrowers answers are received to the circular, the who want to rebuild their homes," said announcement asto the success or failure issioner Lynch. "If bonds are to be of the plan will be made. It is expected, however, that the mutual insurance will meet with much favor, not only among the Omaha members, but from manufacturers throughout the state. If a sufficient number favors the plan the company will be in operation when the bill, known as senate file No. 1, takes effect.

SUGAR COMPANY SENDS DRAFT FOR RELIEF FUND

J. P. Fallon, manager of the Seavey & Flarshelm Brokerage company, with offices in the First National Bank building, received a draft from the Californian and Hawalian Sugar Refining company of San Francisco for $500 as a contribu tion from that concern for the relief fund of the Retail Grocers' association. The accompanying letter states that it

RAIN STOPS BATTLE ON THE DANDELION PEST

Few dandelions were pulled vesterday. the second day for the battle against the pest. Rain, wet lawns and mud prerented a continuation of the campaign. Several children splashed into the dande-

FOR BREAKING HIS LEG

Family Gets Fright

The home of William Dryar, 1905 South Twenty-third street, was flooded a foot deep and the furniture was scattered in every direction during the rain last night. Mr, and Mrs. Dryar had just put their children to bed in a rear room when the water poured through the door and windows.

The couple snatched up the youngsters and were assisted up an inside staircase to the second floor, where lives Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Compton. Compton himself was standing in the doorway when the waters came and was pushed by its force into the yard, where he succeeded in anchoring to a small sapling until the rush receded a few minutes later. The homes of N. MacIntosh and L.

Creston were also damaged by the muddy posed new company together with the torrents, Creston and his family becominformation that the mutual insurance ing panic-stricken and crawling into the will compete with that offered under the yard through a side window. No one was seriously hurt. The spot where the small flood took place is in a deep hollow and the waters from the near cloudburst accumulated to surance to be charged by the mutual the depth of about two feet at one time Police aid was called for and a hurry

Hours Every Day

ROME, May 3 .- Pope Plux X continues to progress in recovery of his health. the Omaha members. The new law is Every day he descends to his libray and expected to boost the insurance business devotes several hours to his work. It is n the state considerably and the mutual learned that one, of his first acts after he companies will be formed to keep the became convalencent was to appoint Dr. Andrea Amici his own private physician. Manufacturers are being asked by the Although Dr. Amici is not the official Omaha association the amount of their vatican physician, he shared with Prof. present yearly payroll and the full Ettoro Machiatava the responsibility of amount of premiums now paid with a caring for the pontiff during his recent Decide on the Bonds with of premiums now paid with a caring for the pontiff during his recent tillness. His hollness expressed the warmest desire today to receive Cardinal Ferrata, who has fust returned from Malta panies. They are being asked, "If the and to hear from him everything concerning the Eucharistic congress, which

STIRRED UP MUCH ANXIETY

One of the most plentiful rains Omaha has had for some time fell during Friday and Friday night. The precipitation for the thirty-six hours ending this morning was 1.15 inches.

A great many people were nervously exercised Friday night after watching the bank of wicked looking clouds in the west. The same thing prevailed in St. Louis for a long time after the tornado there and subsequent storms always stirred up a great deal of anxiety among the people who were in the path of the twister.

HUMMEL WILL PLACE LUNCH TABLES IN PARKS

Park Commissioner Hummel will as soon as he secures sufficient funds place rough tables and chairs in public parks where picnic parties may lunch. park commissioner has spent $6,000 improving Hanscom park this season. New walks, comfort stations, flowers, trees, a new sewer and other improvements have been made.

Quick, Easy and Positive Cure for All Foot Torture

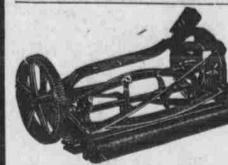

The following is said to be the surest and quickest cure known to science for all foot ailments: "Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in lion territory and yanked out several of basin of warm water. Soak the feet it the plants, but citizens generally tem-porarily abandoned the battle. this for fully fifteen minutes, gently rubbing the sore parts." The effect is really wonderful. All soreness goes instantly; the feet feel delightful. Corns and callous ness can be peeled right off. It gives immediate relief for

A-B Gas Stove Sale

We will continue our special sale prices and terms a few days longer. A rare opportunity to secure one of these great sanitary gas-saving ranges. We connect our gas ranges. Sold on payments if desired.

in the World.

LAWN MOWERS

Lawn Mowers. Our ball bearing, 4-knife Hustler mower, high wheel, self-sharpening, regu-Monday $4.25

New sanitary improvements, cold air circulation, heavier insulation, bigger, make our refrigerators splendid money savers and food preservers. No odor, no taint. We have just the size you need, at very moderate prices. "The Peerless" white enamel lined, up from .. $11.65

Agent for the Celebrated McCray Refrigerators.

DANDELION DIGGERS AND GARDEN TOOLS

If you filtered your home water as carefully as the water in

is filtered

you would have the purest water in the world.

A case of Luxus should be in every home. Brewed and bottled by Fred Krug Brewing Co. Phone your order today and try this most delicious, refreshing and soothing drink.

Douglas 1889

Consumers' Distributors Luxus Mercantile Co. 109-11 No. 16th St.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

HAY and GRAIN

We make a specialty of handling CHOICE UPLAND Kansas and Nebraska HAY. We also carry Nebraska and Wyoming IRRI-GATED ALFALFA HAY. Our Capacity is 600 TONS.

CALL US FOR PRICES

DOUGLAS ROSENBLATT'S NICHOLAS STREET Cut Price COAL, HAY, GRAIN and BUILDING MATERIAL.

Cut Down Your Dentistry Bills SPECIAL PRICES FOR MAY

Our minimum prices: Gold Crowns $2.50 Bridge Work $2.50 Set of Teeth $5.00 Teeth Extraced with out pain 50c

DR. WITHERS
Bushman Block, Room 3.

16th and Douglas

