DRYS TRY TO EXPLAIN IT

Lincoln People Resent Outside Interference.

BIGGER MAJORITY THAN BEFORE

Action on Municipal Ownership Not So Clear, but Fight Had Become Obnoxious to Many Persons.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—The dry forces and the Municipal Ownership league of Lincoln are warring this morning what hit them yesterday. After putting up one of the fiercest and supposedly most thorough fights in the history of the city, the municipal league comes out of the fight with only one candidate to the good and he wins by only a small majority over his next contestant below, Representative Mockett.

The majority in favor of saloons for the coming year is about 824. Two years ago, when the last fight was made, the wet policy won by 652. The three wet candidates for members of the Excise board, Harry Porter, Will Love and Nicholas Hess, have majorities ranging around the 1,000 mark.

The business men's candidates for places on the commission under the new charter, Dayton, Hensley, Schroeder and Zehrung, won easily with majorities ranging around 800, while O. J. King, one of the candidates of the Municipal Ownership league, was the fifth man, with a vote over Mockett of 365.

Notes from Beatrice and Gage County

BEATRICE, Neb., May 7.—(Special.)—The Republican, a paper published at Basin, Wyo., is booming E. J. Sullivan, a former resident of Beatrice, for governor. Mr. Sullivan was formerly manager of the Beatrice electric plant, and later located in Omaha. He is now interested in a big irrigation project in Wyoming.

Word was received here yesterday from La Junta, Colo., announcing the death of Mrs. Elmer Conn, a former resident of this city, which occurred at that place yesterday morning. She was 23 years of age and leaves her husband and little daughter, Katherine. The body will be brought here for interment.

MADISON SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS

MADISON, Neb., May 7.—(Special.)—The Board of Education had its first meeting for the present year Monday night. The officers are: R. G. Mosman, president; A. E. Wells, vice president, and S. C. Blackman, secretary. The teachers for next year are: Dell Gibson, superintendent; Ida B. Knoll, principal; Merle Swan and Grace Frisbie, high school; Cleo M. Scott, principal of the north side school; Lottie Dean, Cecile Eisenmenger, Gertrude Lutz, Letha Blakeman, Blanche Mohannah, Beulah Craig, Caroline Marriott and Emma Pfeiffer, grade teachers. Miss Frisbie of the high school will also have charge of the music for the entire school. One teacher is still to be employed to take charge of the commercial department which the board has decided to introduce the coming year. A male teacher is wanted for this department.

Notes from North Platte. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., May 7.—(Special.)—Eighteen North Platte volunteer firemen in training will attend the running meet to be held at Alliance, Neb., June 23 to 27. Chief of the fire department, C. A. Bowman, has appointed Adam Christ as assistant chief, who is somewhat of a sprinter himself. The eighteen husky young men in the team are showing some fast time every evening and will set a merry pace for their competitors.

The city council has ordered the chief of police to see that all sidewalk signs, barber poles and other street advertisements are removed from Dewey street. This morning the business street looks as if it had shed its old clothes and put on a brand new suit.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great sufferings and sickness from colds and exposures resulted which Foley's Honey and Tar compound helped to alleviate. L. Poola, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold, but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in 30 minutes. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." For sale by all dealers everywhere.—Advertisement.

Births Double Total of Deaths Over Nebraska

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—The report of Secretary Wilson of the State Board of Health shows some interesting figures along vital statistics for the first quarter of the year.

A total of 3,249 persons died in the state during the first quarter of the present year. In the same time there were nearly twice as many births recorded, the total being 6,478.

Of the number of packages brought by the stork there were sixty-three sets of twins—an unusually prolific return in comparison with past birth records.

Four hundred and twenty-nine deaths were caused by pneumonia, 372 were due to congenital debility, 250 to organic diseases of the heart, 188 to cerebral apoplexy, 208 to senility, 146 to Bright's disease and 116 were victims of the Easter day tornado which swept the eastern part of the state, including Omaha, Yutan and Berlin.

Contagious diseases claimed the following toll: Measles, nine; scarlet fever, twenty-two; whooping cough, eight; diphtheria, forty; and typhoid fever, eleven.

Douglas county led in the birth record, the total added to the population of that county being 977. Lancaster was next with 425. Wheeler county had only one birth in the entire three months. Sioux county had four and Thomas county a like number.

Moorhead Applies For Douglas Job

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—H. G. Moorhead, who, it is said, can trace a relationship to the present governor if he goes back far enough and examines the family tree critically, was at the state house today. Mr. Moorhead is a candidate for that election commission job in Douglas county, and while here to argue a case before the supreme court, did not fail to pay his respects to Cousin John and it is presumed took up the matter of the Douglas county position.

The governor has given out that there must be three requisites in any candidate who desires appointment. First, he must be a good man; second, he must not have mixed too closely in Douglas county politics, and third, he must, of course, be a democrat.

It is understood that the tree may be agitated sufficiently to cause this plum to fall some time about Friday or Saturday.

DEATH RECORD.

WILLIAM H. CRABB. HARVARD, Neb., May 7.—(Special.)—William H. Crabb, for the last twelve years in charge of the Hotel Harvard in this city died suddenly Monday from a complication of heart trouble, from which he had been severely afflicted during the last three months. He was brought to his home last week from a hospital in Hastings, where he has been most of the time during the last two months, and was in charge of a nurse, who came with him, but the end came so suddenly the family could not be summoned though Mrs. Crabb had just left the room after looking to his comfort. He leaves a widow and four daughters, all residents of Harvard. He would have been 62 years of age June 16.

Cordeal Believes Lincoln's Action Settles Removal

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—Senator Cordeal left this morning for his home in Red Willow fully convinced that there is nothing really serious about the code insurance bill that people need to worry over.

In speaking of the city election yesterday in Lincoln, the Red Willow statesman said he thought that the matter of removal of the state university had practically been settled by Lincoln giving such a strong majority for the saloons.

"It means that Lincoln people have by a very strong argument, which cannot be controverted, said that they prefer the saloons to the university," said the senator, "and the people of the state, looking upon the matter in that light, will speak in no uncertain language when they get a chance to express their preference at the polls at the next general election when they will vote upon the proposition of removal to the state farm."

Continuing he said he had found only one man since I returned to my home who is opposed to removal. He takes a certain democratic paper published in Lincoln and has been reading some of the stuff published therein about what it will cost to move the university to the farm, and is opposed to spending $3,000,000 for the removal. As soon as he gained a clearer knowledge of the real conditions he promptly changed his mind, and it is my opinion that as far as the farmers and the people of the smaller towns are concerned the vote will be practically unanimous for removal to the state farm when the true facts are made known as to the cost on the two propositions.

The result of the election in Lincoln yesterday will place the matter of removal to the state farm beyond the question of a doubt.

Warrants for Briggs Held by the Auditor

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—Three warrants for $500 each are being held by the state auditor awaiting a call from Chief of Police Briggs of South Omaha. These warrants were issued as a reward for the capture of the three convicts, who escaped from the penitentiary over a year ago and after killing the warden and two other men.

Chief Briggs was notified some time ago that the warrants were at his disposal, and as he has not called for them with the usual haste of those, who have something coming from the state, the auditor fears that he may have to force the chief to accept the money.

EPISCOPALIANS HOLD KEARNEY CONVOCATION

HASTINGS, Neb., May 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Over 100 ministers and laymen are here attending the twenty-third annual convocation of the Episcopal church for the district of Kearney. Addressing the convocation today, Rt. Rev. George A. Beecher, bishop of Kearney, told of his plans to establish a boys' farm in the district. Although there has been no canvass for funds, Bishop Beecher has received a number of voluntary pledges of financial aid for the farm.

The bishop's report showed an addition of eighteen missions during the year. Several new churches were built, including one at Alliance costing $7,000 and dedicated free of debt. The district has had a prosperous year.

Youth Who Rifled Letters is Arrested at Grand Island

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Leo Waddiek, aged 18, was arrested here yesterday by Postoffice Inspector Griffith, through Marshal Sammons of Kearney, after the inspector had secured a written confession from the boy that he had rifled a letter addressed to Bohemia and embezzled its contents, and after having secured the boy's admission that he had also rifled and appropriated the contents of several parcels while in transit. The youth was assisting in transferring mail at Cedar Rapids, when the crime was committed. He was a very strong argument, which cannot be controverted, said that they prefer the saloons to the university," said the senator, "and the people of the state, looking upon the matter in that light, will speak in no uncertain language when they get a chance to express their preference at the polls at the next general election when they will vote upon the proposition of removal to the state farm."

ANOTHER APPROPRIATION FOUND TO BE MIXED UP

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—Another condition as a result of the workings of the late lamented legislature has been discovered in regard to the legislation on salaries to the warden of the penitentiary and his assistants.

The old law gave the warden $1,500 a year. The new law allows him a salary of $2,500. The appropriation bill gives him but $2,000.

The new law, while fixing the salary of the warden at $2,500, gives the Board of Control authority to fix salaries of the warden's assistants. The appropriation bill fixes the amounts as follows: Deputy, $1,250; chief clerk, $1,250; steward, $1,200; physician, $1,200; usher, $900; matron, $600; chaplain, $600.

The bill gives the Board of Control authority to fix the salaries, the appropriation bill fixes them as above and the attorney general of former administrations are the real thing.

BOARD LETS CONTRACT FOR LAUNDRY BUILDING

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 7.—(Special.)—The Board of Public Lands and Buildings today let the contract for an assembly room and a laundry room at the State Otorpedic hospital at Lincoln. The contract was for $3,900.

Flood secured a judgment against the company for $5,500 damages for injuries received while getting off a car in the city of Council Bluffs September 8, 1911. The plaintiff claimed that while alighting from a car at "Hafers' stopping place" in Council Bluffs the car started, throwing her to the pavement, from which she received permanent injuries. She sued the company for $30,000 damages.

Men accustomed to patronizing custom tailors are surprised when they learn the similarity that exists between the clothes they habitually wear and the clothes they can buy at this store; in fact, we have more to offer than they can possibly secure at a custom tailor—for instance. We get the services of the world's most renowned designers, our choice of the most select fabrics, all our suits are hand tailored, materials are tested for all wool, for wearing quality, for fastness of color; you avoid tiresome fittings and long waits, and you can see just how the suit is going to look before buying it. In addition you make a saving of from $10 to $30. May we demonstrate the truth of these claims.

How to Darken Gray Hair

By a Specialist. A very satisfactory preparation which darkens gray hair and acts as a corrective agent for dandruff and other diseases of the scalp can be made at small expense and in your own home by dissolving a small box of Barbo Compound in 7 ounces of bay rum and a quarter ounce of glycerine. Any drug store can furnish these ingredients. This is to be applied once a week until the hair is sufficiently darkened, then every two weeks to keep the hair soft and glossy and the scalp in a healthy condition. It may be used with equal success in darkening the beard. This is a preparation that gives splendid results, both as a hair darkener and a remedy for all scalp disorders, and is well worthy of a trial. You will find it far superior to the ordinary store preparation and much less expensive.
