THE OMAHA DAILY BEE FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROBEWATER.

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PEE BUILDING, FARNAM AND 17TH. Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

REMITTANCE.

Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing company. Only E-cent stamps received in payment of small accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha and eastern exchange, not accepted.

OFFICES:
Omaha—The Bee building.
South Omaha—2318 N Street.
Council Bluffs—14 North Main street.
Lincoln—35 Little building.
Chicago—301 Hearst building.
New York—Room 1184, 286 Fifth Ave.
St. Louis—503 New Bank of Commerce.
Washington—725 Fourteenth St., N. W.

CORRESPONDENCE Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed Omaha Bee, Editorial department. APRIL CIRCULATION.

50,106

State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss:
Dwight Williams, circulation manager of The Bee Publishing company, buing fully sworm, sars that the average dully circulation for the month of April, 1913, was 50,106.
DWIGHT WILLIAMS,
Company Manager. Subscribed in my presence and swort to nefere me this 2d day of May, 1913.

(Boal.)

ROBERT HUNTER,
Notary Public.

Subscribers leaving the city temporartly should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Iceland has gone dry. Frozen up probably.

A paradox: California's chief do mestic problem is a foreign matter.

It should at least be borne in mind that the young woman testified she never loved Jack Johnson anyway. Conundrum: If the tornado was will the visit of "Billy" Sunday be? Hundreds of Indians in the south west are said to be rolling in wealth derived from oil. Greasers, of course "Famine of Preachers" is the title of an article in a religious journal, a rule, supports the republican Whitehouse, M. Goldsmith, Harry Taug-day of plenty.

goods on his name. found. It is Kingston, Mo., where holder, yet apparently need not ex- I. Devilo. the citizens sold the calaboose to get money to light the streets. administration.

Some of the loudest advocates of let the people rule are against letting them rule whenver they fear the pe ple may not rule their way, sad experience with his Board of Con- that the late master of finance retrol that has led him to go so slowly with these later appointments.

If as many Gettysburg survivors were still living as have died since the battle, what a glorious celebration it would be.

The best that has been said of Ambassador Wilson for a long time is President Huerta's declaration that "he has no standing as a diplomat."

And is this the thanks Uncle Sam California in baiting the little brown of his limitless resources? man?

Speaker Clark says he does not forget his friends nor his enemies either.

The state house at Lincoln is becoming overcrowded by the multiplication of offices, officers and emmhifts.

pleted and in progress.

The music of the band was the signal for the striking barbers to British women are today. quit work in New York. Turn about would make the stropping of the razors the signal for the musicians strike.

cuse for rate-raising, but they are was going to arouse Lincoln to peace, righteousness and reform, is so disgusted that he is going out of the

Take Your Choice.

Although the democratic tariff bill as gone only through one house, a controversy is already threatened as to who should have the credit for it. Here is part of a culogy pronounced by our amiable democratic contemporary, the World-Herald:

The passage of the democratic tariff those made in the beginning to President paeon in another democratic organ, G. Shedd of Lincoln, assistant secretary. none other than Mr. Bryan's Com- in charge.

All praise to President Wilson for the stand he has taken, and to Speaker Clark and Chairman Underwood for the bearty operation they have given him.

Read one version and you will have a crumb or two to the president to keep him satisfied; read the other version, and you will be sure Prest-Underwood to push along behind.

"You pays your money, and you takes your choice."

Wilson and the Colored Man. Says the Washington correspondent of the Atlanta Constitution: President Wilson today replaced three nore negro federal officeholders with white men, thus answering the query as to whether he would let his Virginia blood or New Jersey training guide him in appointments to federal office.

It is an old saying that "blood is thicker than water," and evidently the rule applies even to presidents. rapidly discovering to their sorrow fore an admiring group. what supplicating a republican presare to be turned out of office is not are Peter Goos, Henry Welse and Henry certain, but a good many are being displaced. One of the last three to visitation of the wrath of God, what tion Mr. Wickersham is said to have boy. urged strongly on the ground sim- A note from Major John F. Croft of ply of efficiency. The democratic party, of course, has never done anything for the negro in politics and naturally, as history fully explains, the negro as There is no excuse for that, in this party, but nevertheless there is ger. Jerome C. Penzel. George Blake, more than mere party politics in George Schmidt and Charles Fisher. this matter. While we are preaching Still, it is something to be a city civil service and the merit system official with credit good enough to in office-holding it ought to be wife on a visit to relatives, and brought let an imposter get $150 worth of maintained without a color line. The back his two pretty little girls. capable, efficient black office-holder is entitled to the same consideration The ideal town has at last been as the capable, efficient white officepect it at the hands of a democratic

Mr. Morgan's Offer.

In publicly disclosing the offer of sources at the command of President Wilson in event the government in Milwaukee the week before. Perhaps it is Governor Morehead's needed help, Colonel Harvey adds Wilson with honest apprehension, but never considered the demoing the nation.'

case and the desire not to show disrespect to Mr. Morgan's great spirit suggestion in his estimation of the in 1895. democracy. What could be expect from four years of democratic rule gets for giving little Arizona state- that he should offer in advance to hood - a threat to out-California throw into the breach the influence

Idle Talking.

London en route to her beautiful Secretary of State Bryan also has a summer home villa amid the vinerecord for possessing a pretty good clad hills of southern France, announces through the press:

I mean just what I say when I declare

Better work them in double one of our most conspicuous latter. of its association failed to lift it above day suffragists of the so-called militant order, was not one of the medical convention discussed the cause treasury. Surely there can be no affinity in pioneers who blazed the way of the and nature of dreams; why they come names when Miss Loda Dirtt after early crusade in this country and and so, and how they may be banished. two months of wedlock with Mr. Jim sowed the seed that brought woman's Lest his assertions might be mistaken Mudd of Clay county, Missouri, sues suffrage to vogue in nine states, as dreams are as much of a mystery today and allowances above authorized. at present. Perhaps if she were, she as they were 5,000 years ago. would not indulge in such talk. She A Bostonian who has rounded out a It would stimulate the pride of would appreciate too keenly the fact full century of life supplys rules of con-Omaha people in their own town to that threats are not calculated to duct warranted to pile up a Methusaleh ride through the district visited by obtain for woman whatever rights the newspapers and keep your mind the late tornado and see the great she may claim in this country. Per- young." volume of reconstruction work com- haps if "militant methods of the bles on the through route to glory. type used in England" had been adopted by the pioneers, the Ameri-daughter must remarry her husband accan women might still be where the cording to the rites of her father's Prof. Taft says everybody earning overcome by spring fever and the anti-a salary from $1,000 up should pay made flight of cement steps and fell to quit tooting when they go on a an income tax to inspire his sense of asleep. When he awakened the cement interest and responsibility in the gov- had hardened. A gang of laborers unerument. Still a good many small- dressed him with a hammer and cold other person render a separate and dis-Those fire underwriters do not salaried people are likely to refuse to Rev. David J. Higgins, over 90 years the normal tax is paid at the source. nave to be told a second time about regard that as an indispensible in- of age, has made application for admisspiration of patriotism.

mighty hard of hearing when the As a precautionary measure, it doctor of pantagons, it bright behove Congressman Murdock gins says that in spite of his advanced not be required to make returns of the to go slow about reading members age his interest in philosophical matout of the bull moose party. It is not ters has never diminished and he de-The imported soul-saver, who so easy to get recruits in times of sires to continue his researches espec-

What a joke it would be on Emevangelist business rather than hunt peror William if his stolen handbags for other sinning cities waiting to should be returned with information be redeemed. Lincoln must then that they are useless to the robber, lieved of the cares of office, which is that the same is understated.

Looking Backward This Day in Omaha COMPILED FROM BEE FILES 0000 5

Ten Years Ago-Mayor Moores met with the Board of bill through the house, practically with- Fire and Police commissioners, for the out change as drafted by the committee first time since the governor's appointees on ways and means, constitutes a re- were seated nine months before. He remarkable tribute to the leadership of sumed his position as chairman gracehairman Underwood. About the only fully and the meeting went along withoncessions Mr. Underwood made were out friction, W. J. Broatch being absent.

The Nebraska Louisiana Purchase Exposition commission established head- by persons residing elsewhere. In contrast with this, read this quarters in the McCague block, with H.

> Captain W. E. Stockham, of the degree team of Seymour camp. No. 16. Woodmen of the World, preceded the team to Milwaukee to attend the national meeting of the order.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith Ware, called east by the serious illness of their the impression that Mr. Underwood daughter, Miss Phoèbe Smith, who was was the whole thing, merely throwing suffering from acute appendicitis at Smith's college.

Dr. Joseph J. Lampe, of the seminary, was quite ill at his home in Dundee. At the home of Mrs. E. Hong, the mem dent Wilson did it all, graciously per- bers of the Kaffee Kranschen, celebrated mitting Speaker Clark and Chairman the twentieth anniversary of that society. There were present: Mesdames J. Richert. Freuhauf, C. C. Chaffer, Reichenberg, Schnetz, Lange, Ritter, Epeneter, Tibke, Jobst, Tebbens, H. Reichert, Baumer. Kuhn, Storz, Beckman, Specht, Nagel, Hoag, Hoefft: Miss Friscont and Miss Tibke.

Thirty Years Agoson found the Union Pacifics victor over the Des Moines club by the sacred ratio of 15 to 1. Salisbury pitched and Bandle caught for the home team, and there were two double plays. The game was umpired by Strock.

At the driving park, Nellie Burke, the questrian, rode against Miss West of Many negroes in public office are Texas and Miss Curtis of Colorado, be-

Quite a delegation of our German ident with a democratic president citizens are going back to the old country means. Whether all the colored men this summer. Among those recently left

Thomas Kinney, a popular Union Pacific fireman, is the happiest man on the go is William H. Lewis, an assistant foot board just now, being honored with attorney general, whose reten- the title of "Dad" by the arrival of a

> Hot Springs states that he is there with his daughter, but is delayed returning to Omaha on account of her Ulness ments consists of C. C. Fields, W. J. Henry Hornberger returned from Law renesville, Ind., where he went with his

Twenty Years Ago-John W. Battin was i Battin was in Dehver spending a few days as the guest of Edward Senator and Mrs. Manderson arrived from the east and went to Happy Hollow as the guests of the Patricks. Rev. P. DePres of Pells. Marion county.

Iowa, was visiting Chief Detective Hage, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nott returned from Frank N. Lord, jr., day clerk at the Dellone, accepted a position at Hotel garded the policies advanced by Mr. Ingram in Chicago, and said he would

A. P. Tukey, successor to George W. Lininger, as a member of the Board of cratic party fully capable of govern- park commissioners, took his oath of office. He left for Chicago in the even-But for the solemn nature of the ing and expected to be gone for a week The editor of The Bee received this telegram: "Chicago, May 12.-To the Editor of The Bee: I have just succeeded of patriotism, one might be struck in getting the supreme council of the by the humor of a certain subtle Knights of Columbus to meet in Omaha REV. JOSEPH RUESING."

People Talked About

General Overseer Voltva of Zion, Ill. suspects that some worldly sin defiles his holiness crowd and is searching for Mrs O. H. P. Belmont tarrying in the imps of Satan who stuffed the ballot boxes at the spring election.

For a pittance of $16, Uncle Joe Cannon's library table was knocked down hold goods in Washington Many a draw poker debate occurred that if New York falls to awake, we around this sturdy oak table. Doubtshall introduce militant methods of the less other grades of vocal melody, of strategy and spolls, were emphasized What talk! Mrs. Belmont, while on its polished face. Yet the sanctity the class of lame duck relies. An eminent doctor at a Washington

All other rules are mere peb-J. C. Wieland, dead in St Louis, Anthony Rodowski of Rochester, Pa.

sion to Hamline university, Minnesota to complete a course for the degree of $29,500 is required, ially in the line of the philosophy of

> Same Old Game. Boston Transcript

President Yuan of China says that regard itself as a vicarious sacrifice, and therefore not worth keeping. just the way Dias talked for thirty years.

The Coming Income Tax

ASSESSMENTS.

In case of neglect or refugal to make returns, or in case of fradulent or false returns, upon the discovery within three years after said return is due the commissioner of internal revenue shall make

TIME OF PAYMENT.

On sums due and unpaid after June 30,

or for ten days after notice and demand

EXCEPTIONS.

COLLECTION AT THE SOURCE.

ments or other fixed or determinable an-

EXCEPTION.

are not to be included in the above.

Hable for such tax.

efit of such exemption.

as the taxpayer may choose.

ciations, insurance companies,

Foreign mortgages or like obligations

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

No taxable person shall be released

When a return is made and his tax

Only one deduction of the $4,000 shall

Any person, corporation, etc., liable to Miss A. Z. Cruse, whose initials suggest

Mrs. Stephen E. Ayres, has resigned as president of the Woman's National Democratic league of which Mrs. Woodrow

Mrs. Anna Powless of Alma, Cal., will have the unique distinction of being graduated from the University of Colorado on the twenty fifth anniversary of her marriage to W. H. Powless, a civil engineer of Alma. She started her college career

Miss Elsa Scheel of Cornell was designated the "perfect woman," and in consequence has been so much annoyed that she had to leave the town of Scoville.

L. I., where the newspaper constantly referred to the fact that "her's are the most perfect physical proportions pos-

According to the 1910 census of the United States there are $27,685 women clerks, accountants and stenographers;

1,037 women architects, and 429,497 women

Thirty granite markers will be placed along the Santa Fe trail in Missouri, the main exercises to be held at Old Franklin on May 17. The Daughters of the American Revolution appropriated $3,000 for the purpose. The Kansas City Daughters of the American Revolution will go over the trail and will arrive at Old Franklin in

MUFFLED KNOCKS.

Married men should not quarrel with

At that women do not spend any more time in front of glasses than men spend

A princess likes to keep posted on the new dances, but you can't get her interested in the dish rag or the carpet sweep

Daughter knows her beau isn't a commen man like her father because her beau always has a clean shave and

When mother fixes up 15 cents' worth neighbor, father always talks about chartheir wives. It costs too blamed much time for the main dedication.

or the wash tub dip.

sessed by a woman of today."

Wilson is honorary president.

the alphabet, is a stenographer of Kansas

City, whose time is said to be worth $15,- ing $600.

000 a year.

LIABILITY.

BENEFIT OF EXEMPTION

All persons, firms, conpanies, etc.,

ceased or insolvent persons.

on or before June 12 of each year.

such return himself.

became dug.

Congressman Hull of Tennessee, author after due notice to such party and upon of the income tax sections of the tariff proof of the amount understated. bill, passed by the house of representatives, gives the following synopsis of the collector and the taxable person such proposed tax on individuals: INCOMES COVERED

Those of all citizens of the United States residing at home or abroad. Those of all persons residing in the States although not Tinited liable on or before June 1 of each year.

and from every husiness, trade or profession carried on in the United States NORMAL TAX.

One per cent per anuum upon the amount of net income over $4,000. ADDITIONAL TAX.

One per cent per annum upon the total amount of net income from all sources over $30,000 and not over $50,000 per an-

Two per cent per annum upon the amount of net income over $50,000 and not over $100,000. Three per cent per annum upon amount of net Income over $100,000.

NET INCOME INCLUDES. All gains, profits and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal services of any kind and how-

Professions or vecations. Business, trade or commerce, Sales or dealings in property, real or personal, growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in property, real or personal. Interest, rent, dividends or securities. Transaction of any lawful business cared on for gain or profit. Gains or profits or income derived from my source whatever. Income, but not the value of property nual gains, profits and income of another acquired by bequest, devise or descent. Income, but not proceeds, of life in surance polices paid upon death.

DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED. Necessary expenses actually incurred in carrying on any business to receive the same. All interest accrued and payable within the year on indebtedness.

All national, state, county, school and municipal taxes. Losses actually sustained during the year, not compensated by insurance or otherwise, arising from fire, storm or shipwreck Debts actually ascertained to be worthless and charged off during the year. A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion or wear and tear of property aris ing out of its use or employment in bust-

All income the tax upon which has been paid at the source. Amounts received as dividends upon the stock of any corporation, etc., which is taxed upon its net income.

Interest upon bonds and securities guaranteed free from taxation. DEDUCTIONS NOT ALLOWED. All personal, living or family expenses. Taxes assessed against local benefits. All expense of restoring property or which an allowance has been made. Amounts paid for new buildings, permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate.

making good the exhaustion thereof for EXEMPTIONS. Interest upon the obligations of a state r any political subdivision thereof. Interest upon the obligations of the United States the principal and interest of which are now exempt from federal

The compensation of the present presibeen elected The compensation of the judges of the supreme and inferior courts of the United States now in office. The compensation of all officers and not payable in the United States. employes of a state or any political subdivision thereof. AMOUNT OF INCOME EXEMPT.

from liability for this tax. Four thousand dollars shall be deducted from the net annual income as above paid at the source no person shall be reascertained of each person quired to make a return himself unless Only one deduction of $4,000 shall be he has other net income. made from the aggregate income of all sembers of a family be made in the case of any person FAMILY CONSISTS OF. One or both parents and one or more make a return for a personal tax refusminor children, or of husband and wife. ing or neglecting to make such return EXCEPTIONS. shall be liable to a penalty of not exceed-

A wife living permanently apart from her husband. Guardians are allowed to make deduc tions in favor of each and every ward when same are not comprised in one family having joint property interests. TIME OF GOING INTO EFFECT. The tax shall be computed upon the remainder of the said net income for the year ending December 31, and for each calendar year thereafter.

RETURN OF INCOME. A true and accurate return of all net incomes of $3,500 or more shall be made under oath or affirmation.

It must be made to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which said person resides or has his principal place of business in the United States. FORM OF RETURN.

The form shall be prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue, with at the age of 40. the approval of the secretary of the of income from all separate sources. From this total shall be deducted the aggregate items of expenses TIME OF RETURN.

The return must be made on or before March 1, 1914, and on or before March teachers and professors; 770.065 women of each year thereafter. PERSONS TO MAKE RETURNS.

Each taxable person of lawful age in the professions. himself. 2. Guardians, trustees, executors, shall make and render a return of the net income coming into their custody or control of the person for whom they act, 3. All persons, firms, companies, partnerships, coroporations, etc., having the control, receipt, disposal, or payment of fixed or determinable annual gains profits or income of another person subject to tax arising from an annual bustness relationship shall in behalf of such income derived from dividends on capital stock of corporations taxable upon their net income.

EXCEPTIONS TO RETURNS. No return of income not exceeding behind them.

The collector or deputy shall require each list to be verified by oath or af- of wind pudding as a dessert for a sick firmation of the party rendering it. The collector may increase the amount ity beginning at home and goes down to after the next election he hopes to be re- of any return if he has reason to believe the corner saloon to spend & indignating No such increase shall be made except Cincinnati Enquirer.

BUTY OF THE COLLECTOR.

THESE GIRLS OF OURS.

The Manager—The senior partner wants us to find a berth for that son of his. He says he doesn't expect the house to pay him anything—so there'll be a saving In case of disagreement between the course we'll have to hire a man the work.-Cleveland Plain Dealer. person may submit the case with papers and proof to the commissioner of internal Socrates had dropped in on Plate, and it was about meal time.

"I suppose," said Plate, "Xantippe is rather..." All persons shall be notified of the amount for which they are respectively

"Yes," hastily interrupted the old philosopher, "and she's cleaning house-besides."—Chicago Tribune.

"That new suit of here has me guessing."

"What about?"
"I've been wondering whether or not there are pockets in the tails of her cutaway coat."—Detroit Free Press.

Said regular assessments shall be paid lump sum."

"Well, what of it? He carried di-vorce insurance for twice the sum."— Baltimore American. Assessments made by the commissioner of internal revenue are payable upon noti-PENALTY FOR DELAYED PAYMENTS

"Oh. very rich."
"Well, how rich?"
"His wife and daughters go in for the new-fangled dances and everybody thinks it perfectly charming."—St. Louis thereof by the collector, there shall be added 5 per cent to the amount of tax unpaid and interest at the rate of 1 per cent per month from the time the same Madge-Did the count ask you if you would love him?

Marjorie-No; he asked me if I would marry him.-Judge. Incomes from the estates of insane, de-

"We need to get together oftener, my friends," exclaimed the eloquent lecturer, "and to greet one another with a heartler 'With a good husband, a nice home, an untomobile, a plane and four lovely chil
"With a good husband, a nice home, an untomobile, a plane and four lovely chil
"and to greet one another with a heartier, dust of things the songs and the flowers dust of things and the wings;

She is making the songs and the flowers and the wings;

Prom October's tossed and trodden gold She is making the young year out of the oid;

Yea, out of winter's flying sleet She is making all the summer aweet, And the brown leaves spurned of Nos vember's feet

She is changing back again to spring's. cluding lessees or mortgagors of real or handclasp:"
Archey's fingers closed more firmly over Delia's soft, warm, slender hand, as the two sat together in a corner, but he said nothing, and his gaze did not wander from the face of the speaker.—Chicago personal property, trustees acting in any trust capacity, executors, etc., employers and all officers and employes of the United States having control, receipt, cusoday, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensation, remuneration, emolu-

dren it seems to me you have everything

Your husband is willing to allow you the custody of the automobile, the poodle and the rubber plant, with liberal all-mony, while he takes the children and the graphophone."
"Stop the divorce," sobbed the wife,
"I'll never get another husband like that."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

MAY BUILDING HER HOUSE.

Richard Le Gallienne May is building her house. With apple She is roofing over the glimmering of the oak and the beech hath she builded its beams, And, spinning all day at her secret With arras of leaves each wind-swayed wall the pictureth over, and peopleth it all
With echoes and dreams,
And singing of streams.

May is building her house. Of petal and blade, Of the roots of the oak is the flooring made, With a carpet of mosses and lichen and clover, Each small mirscle over and over, and tender, traveling green things strayed.

Her windows, the morning and evening And her rustling doorways, ever ajar With the coming and going Of fair things blowing. The thresholds of the four winds are.

May is building her house. From the

The Best of Everything

Ticket Offices Chicago and North Western Ry.

To the Public: Women's Activities

The delivery arrangement between the Arwood Dairy and the Alamito Sanitary Dairy company has been terminated. The Alamito company will deliver no more Arwood products.

We deliver our own products commencing,

Sunday, May 11

Those desiring Arwood products phone Harney 1869. Delivery service will improve shortly, Arwood Dairy W. Righter Wood & Co., Prop'rs.

TIME CARD

INTERURBAN LINE TO BELLEVUE AND FORT CROOK

Effective May 4th, 1913

Cars Leave 24th and N Streets, South Omaha, as follows:

Saturdays

Week Days Except Sat'days 5:45 a. m.

6:45 a. m. 8:00 a. m.

Hourly there. after until 12 o'clock midnight | night.

days until 12:00 noon. Half-hourly thereafter until 7:00 p. m.,

Same as week First car 7 a. m, Hourly thereafter until 1:00 20-minute service from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m., 7:30, 8:00. Hourly therethen hourly until 12:00 o'clock mid-o'clock midnight. Returning, Cars Leave Fort Crook Thirty Minutes Later than Above Omaha & Southern Interurban Rai way Co.

Sundays