SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Approach of Commencement Season Spurs Student Activities. DOINGS IN STATE INSTITUTIONS Uplifting Influence of a American Management of Schools in Hawaii—Various Educational Matters. Japanese pupils now form the most numerous element in the Hawaiian schools, and they are increasing at a more rapid rate than any other race, according to a statement by Governor Walter F. Frear, received at the United States Bureau of Education. The Japanese now have a considerable lead in the school population, with over 80 per cent of the total; the Portuguese follow with a little less than 14 per cent; the Hawaiian come next with 14 per cent; Chinese, 11 per cent, and all other nations or races 12 per cent. Governor Frear gives other interesting information about Hawaii's schools. Industrial schools that are partially self-supporting are a feature of the Hawaiian school system. There are three such schools, and in addition, the Normal school, the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, two high schools, and 131 schools of elementary grade. A number of the schools maintain city or county governments conducted by the pupils for practice in citizenship, and patriotic exercises are emphasized in all the schools. Nearly 20,000 children are enrolled. All the grades are faithfully rehearsing for an elaborate program to be given at the close of school. The grades under the direction of each critic teacher will present a section of a program Wednesday evening, May 21. The students in the senior rhetoric class have started the work in debating. Materials have arrived and the students are spending some extra time preparing their briefs. Benjamin Loewenthal gave the class in western development an interesting account of his first experience in the Black Hills in 1878. He told also of his trip by stage coach from Sidney, Neb., to Deadwood, the time required being three days and two nights. Senator W. H. Reynolds, A. L. McLaughlin, and State Superintendent Deibel visited chapel on Monday and each gave an interesting talk. The athletic girls join with the Dramatic club girls in the Greek play "Antigone." The seniors, 115 strong, marched into chapel Friday wearing their caps and gowns. The question, "Resolved, that the minimum wage scale should be established in all industries," came in for a triangular debate between Kearney, Peru and Wayne. The negative side won in each instance. Wayne from Kearney, Kearney from Peru and Peru from Wayne. The debates were unusually strong, but according to the judges, the question had but one side. Dr. H. V. Adams of Des Moines, will deliver the commencement address. The summer school will open on June 9, and will continue for eight weeks. Students will be given an opportunity to do a semester's work if they carry but two subjects. Dr. A. C. The young women composing the Mandolin club made a trip to Cedar Bluffs Friday evening and presented a varied program of mandolin, number songs, readings and instrumental selections. They remained over Saturday with friends and were entertained Saturday evening at a formal reception. The next trip is to be up the Northwestern to Randolph and stops will probably be made at other towns along the route. NEBRASKA WESLEYAN. Activities of Week Start with Weed Digging Fests. Last Tuesday was "Garden day." By 8 o'clock the campus was dotted with students working by classes and under the supervision of a faculty committee. They were armed with knives and diggers of various kinds and by 10:30 had succeeded in driving the "yellow party" from the campus. The seniors, who made the highest score as diggers, were given a treat by the faculty. F. E. Eden, of the senior class, has recently been elected to a fellowship in George Washington university at St. Louis. His work will be in the department of sociology. The next issue of the Goldenrod, the student publication of the school, will be a special senior number. A number of half tons are being prepared and the student body will make this the most attractive issue of the school year. Members of the senior class who have recently signed contracts for next year are: Paul H. Young, principal of schools at Surprise, Neb.; Bertha B. Preston, principal at high school, Neb.; George J. Lehr, principal of school, Wauneta, Neb.; Cleone D. Teter, primary department, South Sioux, Neb. The triangular debates held at Wayne, Peru and Chadron last week resulted in a victory and a defeat for each institution represented. The question for discussion was, "Resolved, that the minimum wage should be established in all industries," the home team defending the affirmative and losing in every case. The Peru-Wayne debate was presided over by Dr. G. A. Stephens of Lincoln, Principal A. B. C. Jacobs of Tekamah and Principal R. C. Scott of Norfolk. During the chapel period on Wednesday he related some of his experience in the northwest. His descriptions of the western universities were particularly interesting to the students. President Crono and Rev. W. W. Smith, the financial secretary of the college, left for the east last Monday, in the interests of the endowment campaign. The senior class was entertained Monday at the home of Mrs. C. L. Jones of the Bible department. DOANE COLLEGE NOTES. On Monday last, the Peru Normal baseball team defeated Kearney at Peru, by a score of 5 to 1. Last Monday evening the seniors entertained their friends in the chapel with an original production entitled, "An evening on the Styx." A number of the college faculty were represented as paying a visit to the house boat on the Styx, and several celebrities of years gone by, entertained them in a most unique and pleasing manner. After the performance the seniors invited their friends to the library where an informal reception was held. EDUCATION NOTES. Three-fourths of the teachers in Alabama are in the field. "A little car is all right at first," explained Maloney. "Afterwards, though, I expect to own a bigger and higher priced machine." Take Plenty of Time to Eat. There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow eating." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement. Wahl-Henius Institute

FERMENTOLOGY 108-110 FULLERTON AVENUE Chicago April 1, 1911. Mr. Alfred Uihlein Schlitz Brewing Co. Milwaukee, Wis. Dear Sir: Answering your favor of recent date in regard to the influence of light on the quality of beer, will say that our observations, extending over the last twenty-five years, have convinced us beyond a doubt that exposure of beer to light has a very detrimental influence on its quality generally, but especially upon the flavor of the beer. We have tested beers repeatedly in this direction placing the bottles into direct sunlight, and testing the same after one, two, three and five minutes exposure, found that the beer with three and five minutes exposure became undrinkable on account of the peculiar odor developed. The detrimental effect of light upon beer can be successfully counteracted by the employment of brown or dark colored glass bottles, and such bottles are therefore recommendable. Yours very truly, RW/B
