SOME PATIENTS ARE DESTITUTE

Treasurer Cowell of Bellef Committee Can Get No Answer to Lettern to the Hospital Management.

Attempts on the part of the Omeha General hospital to force destitute tornado sufferers who received treatment there to pay full price for services has aroused the citizens' relief committee to protest, although some of the bills have delegates and guests will be here. been paid by friends of the sufferers and others are in the hands of the relief committee for payment.

Robert Cowell, treasurer of the relief committee, has written the hospital management two letters asking for a statement as to what they are going to do in regard to the charges now held against penniless tornado victims. To neither of these letters has a reply been written.

Every other hospital in town gave their rooms and the services they rendered absolutely free," said Mr. Cowell. "The Omaha General hospital, which have always considered a semi-public institution, has attempted to collect full price for all patients treated there.

"In the beginning patients were sent to the Omaha General hospital as to all others. Early I learned they would expect full price and I wrote the hospital naking for the names of the sufferers who were there so we could remove them. This letter was not answered. have written another, asking the management to state what will be done in this matter so we will know how to act

"Of course, I expected this institution to care for these poor people without charge, as the other hospitals were doing. The manager, Charles F. Robel, is a former mission worker, and of a man who had engaged in mission work we would expect, naturally, that he would exercise mercy and kindness under such circumstances."

When questioned, Dr. W. O. Henry and Dr. S. K. Spalding, who are interested in the hospital, said they had not discussed the matter and knew nothing about it. They referred all queries to who has been ill for the last Robel was neither at home nor at the hospital when called for.

RYDER FAVORS SESSION WITH THE WATER BOARD

"If the Water board will run its end of it we'll take care of ours," said Mayor ahlman when the report of the city legal department adverse to bringing suit to test the power of the Water board was read before the city commission and placed on file.

"What we ought to do," said Police Commissioner Ryder, "Is to get together in a conference with the Water board once in a while and find out what they're doing and exchange confidences."

Councilman Thomas McGovern, who introduced the resolution instructing the legal department to institute proceedings test the power of the Water board, said to City Attorney John A. Rine:

"After this, Mr. Rine, I'll submit my resolutions to the legal department for an opinion before I introduce them before

Attorney General Returns Evidence

Attorney General Martin has returned the evidence sent him concerning disbarment proceedings against Carroll H. Wright, Omaha attorney, with the information that he will not take any action against Wright.

Judges of the district court, whose action now will be final in regard to any further proceedings, held a secret meeting Wednesday night to discuss the case. No judge would say whether they decided upon what will be done. According to other attorneys if anything further is done the judges will have to send the evidence to the supreme court of the attorney general to take further steps

These lawyers assumed that if the judges had decided to drop the case such ettent form the basis of the disbarment proceedings
