What, in his mind, were the rags of clothed the church of Rome, and, so as decision on the final hearing of the case. to still claim the name of christian church, patched her heathen garments with christian patches? Or, was it because of the inroads of heathenism the To Brother Dwight J. Robbins, Erie, Lord was disgusted with her associations and would not give her any new garments, and this is the cause of the old garments being torn to tatters and therefore appears as rags?

Rags of popery. If this is a fact, beautiful tomb and meet the Apostle hope for your speeedy recovery. Peter at the gate of heaven, and he says to you, "Why do you wear the rags of popery?" you might be inclined | that he shall be punished to the full exto say, "I do not wear any more rags tent of the law. than you do, for I wear the same garto wear it? You cannot prove it so as Roman Catholic church: to satisfy every one on earth; and that garment that you have on has been dyed; it has been dyed in the blood of my nearest friends, it is a garment worn only by usurpers and those who endeavor to rule both God and man, also be furnished THE OMAHA AMERIand the garment is in rags and will last CAN and The Camp News for publicabut a little longer." I can imagine that when you hear this, you will think, "Oh, that the days of the inquis-Ition were not past."

But I would advise you to think these things over, and if you come to the same conclusion, that your church is clothed in rags, you had better have a change of raiment for her.

Protestants Must Unite.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Religious circles are excited over certain statements made by Dr. Charles A. Briggs on the subject of church unity. Dr. Briggs, in a published statement, dwells upon the hopeful attitude which the Roman Catholic church is now assuming. The tendency which is shown by denominations of the Protestant church to unite is also very encouraging. Theological controversies are not nearly so destructive as formerly. Dr. Briggs adds: "Denominationalism is a terrible curse, and unless it is abolished Roman Catholicism will conquer our country. Our denominations waste a great amount of resources, both of men and money. The Roman Catholics have in the United States 9,157 ministers, and 6,231,417 communicants, with an average of 685 to one minister, and 8,776 churches, with an average of 709 communicants to "Denominationalism is a terrible curse,

WARNINGS.

Thomas Jefferson warned us against just what has befallen us. He said: In proportion to their numbers they (foreigners) will share with us the legislation. They will infuse into it their spirit, warp and bias its direction, and render it a heterogeneous mass.
