hand, but could do nothing.

A Journal reporter reached the sta-He was mistaken for a member of the order that the crowd was objurgating. He was hustled, insulte i, struck at and his life generally made unpleasant for him until he had to seek shelter inside

Here he found a few earnest looking men, many of them elderly, quietly sitting about, silently awaiting the special train and paying no attention to the insults and outrages. Small boys dashed through the rooms, while their larger and older brother stayed outside.

Several times the reporter went outside and saw no change in the sentiment except that the crowd was growing impatient at the wait and was stamping and singing in an endeavor to keep warm.

THE VISITORS ARRIVE.

After several false alarms, the train bearing the visiting A. P. As. pulled in, and was greeted with hisses and fairly desperate howls.

Back from the train came a thunder ing chorus of cheers and the crowd stared affrighted. The latest reports received from Boston were that only 250 men were coming, and here were eight closely packed cars!

A band went to the front, and colors followed. Then red fire was lighted, and the procession moved with the wierd, warm light of the burning chemicals, casting a blood hue over all.

Long and continued had been the jeering and insulting the remarks. But as the torches blazed up and the crowd saw the long line and realized that there were 1,200 enthusiastic men there, silence became noticeable and the mob fell into step alongside the column of fours, while the band played stirring marches, and Mr. Dunbar, red fire in hand, led the way.

Up Lowell street to the Common, where the soldiers' monument loomed up through the darkness, the procession took its tortuous way. Everywhere outside all was stony and silent and disapproving.

But within that column what a contrast! Every man from outside the town was hale and strong. Each was gayly decorated. All were enthusiastic.

With the power of a battering ram they charged onward and up to the Town Hall. Here the mob had collected and tried to force and entrance into the hall, but was once more overawed and swept back, while the column went on and on until the platform, floor A. men pressed forward.

So an overflow meeting was held in ground. the Grand Army Hall, and this was private.

a few score reputable citizens of Conhall, and then the meeting began.

It was a wild scene at first, and again and again the hot-heads among the A. P. A. forces started to clear the hall. trouble, though at times this was hard. GROWS MORE SERIOUS.

But after the meeting came the chief time of trouble. The column re-formed, with the Concord lodge leading, and then the band, followed by the colors, two stands of colors, like the badges being simply "Old Glory."

Further down the line came a transparency marked on one side "The A. P. A. Has Come to Stay," and on the other "No Rome Rule in America."

This was regarded with hatred by

Stones began to fly at it, as well as toward the rear guard of the proces-

Stones flew thick and fast.

Men reeled and staggered and then marched faintingly on. Several times the rear guard formed and faced the mob, which at once fell back and waited until the retreat began once more.

As the transparency went across the Common, two or three of the mob made a rush and seized it, bearing it away in triumph, amid the exultant jeers of the

But short-lived was that triumph. As the great waves gather around and then pile forward with relentless force as the whirlpool gathers, so came the men of the A. P. A. Deep and alarming was their rallying cry. Once more it was only the power of their leaders that saved trouble, for the mob who had stolen the transparency were allowed to escape, while it was borne proudly back and joyously swung aloft.

REVOLVERS NOW. The Lowell road is dark, lined with hedges and swamp willows between it away on either hand. A few weak lamps vainly try to illuminate its long and broad expanse.

the main body of the mob, while a de- were successful. tachment dashed on ahead and threw

From behind the hedges and willows P. A.," and "we have no use for you." and controlled the men.

though into a wild beast's cage, and came a velley of stones and bricks. Men Three of the A. P. As. forced their booted, howled and threatened bodily fell and lay like logs, to be picked up way into this crowd to cheer their was interviewed by a Journal reporter. violence. The local police were on and dragged on by their friends. Two friends, but were immediately sur. The A. P. A. leader said that he and tion while the trouble was at its height of tough hide and springing wood. The consequences would have followed. and to give encouragement to their storm continued.

Then men drew their revolvers and from the platform. began firing into the air.

blazing of whole bunches of fire-crack-by the youthful members of the mob. were dark and their eyes burned.

sounded in the unmistakable way that but were all stopped before any dis- hear of an Irish Roman Catholic procomes from rammed-in ball on copperbound powder.

There came alongside a particularly dark place, from which the head of the line received many well-aimed stones. Suddenly several of them drew their revolvers and rushed through the dark blank into the gloomy meadows.

It was a dramatic, but a terrible line of fire, and hurried forward in time One man in the column was a short recaptured the transparency. blonde, with a big mustache. He wore the A. P. A. sadge. The reporter hurried across to him, and placed a hand upon his shoulder.

The A. P. A. man spun around, glowering, while placing his revolver in his hip pocket. "Was it loaded with ball cartridge?"

"Who are you?" demanded the man, adding, "I don't want to know you. ' asked the reporter.

"I am a Journal reporter," exclaimed the newspaper man, and he repeated his question.

"Yes, there were bullets there, and there are more of them," said the man people had come together to see it, but venemously, "and I can show you if it was received in silence. No lights you like," menacingly putting back his flashed from the windows, and on the hand and beginning to draw out his revolver. But his companions prevented this and swept him away, out of

The drum-major, reeling from a fear ful head blow, started forward once more, and the shooter came into view, only for a moment, but long enough to tell the reporter, sulkily, that he had been struck on the leg so hard that he had felt impelled to draw and shoot.

When the procession reached the station and broke up, the members rallied along the platforms and faced the mob, which dared not resort to and gallary were packed, the aisles violence, until just before the train was could hold no more, and still the A. P. going, when several men were struck by stones and one laid senseless on the

The A. P. A. men charged and the mob fell back and fled. Taunts were But a hundred or so of the rabble and hurled at the A. P. A. from a safe distance, and vain attempts were made to cord were permitted to enter the upper ontice individuals into the power of the

Finally the train was loaded and the mob came closer to the cars. As the train moved out and slowly gathered But Mr. Dunbar would not permit this. headway, in every car shades were He exercised a remarkable control of pulled down and shutters arranged. the great crowd, and with the aid of This soon proved a wise precaution, as the law-abiding members prevented stones struck the sides of the cars. One of the rear cars was struck by a perfect volley, and several windows were smashed in by the flying missiles, the broken glass injuring the travelers. One stone penetrated through a shutter.

Wild was the excitement on the return journey and vehement the talk. It was generally stated that if the Concord lodge be furthered troubled, the A. P. A. will turn out in greater force and with guns.

When the Union station was reached the first ludicrous scene of the evening occured. Grown men good naturedly struggled with one another for the possession of pieces of the broken drums and car panes, as relies of the second "Concord fight."

SEEN BY ONE ON THE OUTSKIRTS. Early in the evening it was very plain to see that some unusual excitement was abroad. The stores were all closed but the streets were lined with men. The cause of the excitement was the announcement that a newly formed public meeting in the Town Hall. A special train was to arrive at 8 o'clock on the Boston and Maine Railroad from Boston and stations east of Arlington. About 7:45 members of the local council began to arrive at the station and of the experiment. were jeered and hooted by a crowd of several hundred.

The council draws its members from the neighboring towns as well as the center. The mob were loud in their threats of violence to the members, who kept inside the station.

On the arrival of the special with eight cars and about 1.200 men, the and the low river land that stretches crowd subsided into hisses and groans. The march to the hall was quiet until the arrival at the hall, when several attempts were made by the mob to Behind the hedges and willows lurked strike at the members, some of which

The gallery was literally packed with drums were smashed as though they rounded and shut up. But for the in- his friends came to show the Concord were made of the frailest china, instead tervention of the police more serious people what the A. P. A. really was,

This amused the crowd, as had the entrance, and hearing some one saying then thought that the meeting would "A. P. A.," said, "Why don't you say greatly boom the order. ers in the midst of the march, set off it as an American citizen should?" The fellow turned on him, and said, A. P. A. forces were homeward bound, But there were earnest, warm-blooded "You're no American citizen." The a Journal man approached Mr. Dunbar men in the hundreds that were march- lie was given and returned. The A. and asked what the latter thought of ing, and they liked not the insults of P. A. man drew his revolver, saying, the stormy scenes of the evening. the stones and the injuries received "I come prepared for such men as you." therefrom. They blazed heavenward He was hustled into the crowd by his with their revolvers, and their looks friends before an officer could arrest us. Did you notice that they were the him. Many attempts were made to aggressors? We merely came out, as It was noticeable that the pistol shots hustle the men away from the crowd, we had a right to do. Did you ever tance was attained. At the close of the meeting the whole mob rushed for the door and grabbed old saying runs, and I think that you stones, bricks and everything in the will find that this attack upon us will missle line, and waited for the councils be the best thing that could have hapto come out. The transparency reading, "The A. P. A. Has Come to Stay" principles." to the side of the road, and fired point and "No Rome Rule for America" was hardly lighted before a perfect shower of stones rained on it. When the line was formed and had hardly marched a A Journal reporter saw the sudden rod, three or four of the mob made a charge from a vertical to a horizontal rush for the transparency, captured it and ran for the court house yard. With to see three men blazing away into almost one accord the whole body of A. utter darkness that surrounded them. P. A. literally swept after them and

But for the leaders more serious injury than sore heads would have resulted. The sides of the Lowell road, down which the march was taken, are lined with low willows, behind which the mob was hidden and threw their

The A. P. A. men, angered by seeing their friends hurt, drew revolvers, and shots were fired. One of the drums of the band was totally demolished by and they will be themselves to blame stones, and the bass drum had to be for it." protected by men marching on each side of it.

Just before reaching the track the line had to be balted. The mob had gathered all the old sleepers, sticks of timber, brush, etc., that they could find, and piled it across the road. The advance guard took hold of the obstruction with a will, and although the stones were flying thick and fast, soon cleared it away. During the halt a part of the mob attacked the rear guard, and a warm time was witnessed there.

At the station the mob was at its worst. Thinking this to be their last chance, they assaulted anyone they could lay hands on. One of the visitors while talking with one of his friends. was struck on the temple with a large stone and knocked to the ground. His friends made a rush for the assailant, but lost him in the crowd. The mob divided into groups all along the platform, and blows were exchanged right and left.

One of the A. P. As. drew a revolver and fired three shots into the bushes from which the stones were coming. The police were unable to do anything newed with redoubled force.

Although the blinds were all down the stones went crashing through the windows, splintering blinds and injuring a number of the passengers. Bricks four inches square were found in the cars, and many were cut by the broken glass. The mob stool back from the light of the car windows so that they could not be distinguished.

The whole movement was a surprise to all the towns-people. Not until afternoon was it known that the meeting was to be public, and it was never dreamed that so large a delegation from have not yet discovered and the towns-Boston would come. The mob was people are not aware of. composed of the younger, hot-headed portion of the town, although the gen-

The Concord council is young, having ployed in Murray's grocery store. held only three meetings. After each one this same element has congregated

The members say the object of the meeting was to enlighten the town people in regard to the workings of the council of the A. P. A. was to hold a order and the end for which they are

The business men of the town look upon it as an exhibition of the strength of the order, and are very much set against the idea, as well as the result

A number of the mob were heard to say that if they (the A. P. A.) ever came again they would be prepared for them, and would know how to use them in a rougher style.

MR. DUNBAR TALKS.

E. H. Dunbar, supreme surgeant-atarms of the A. P. A., and its most active organizer, led the hosts that swept from Boston across Middlesex county to Concord, on the line taken by the British 119 years before, but by different from Murray's grocery store-doubtless methods of conveyance and with different motives. He is a dark man, with a strong, live face, keep eyes and the manner of a leader, which last he unobstructions in the way of the advanc- the town element, who took up their questionably was, for fairly marvelous hisses and calls of "put him out," "A. was the manner in which he handled Leipsic, 20; in Paris, 48, in Vienna.

Just after he arrived, Mr. Dunbar Several times they had to be warned Concord brothers. He said that the meeting was entirely spotaneous and One A. P. A. man standing at the that the turnout surprised him. He

When the rioting was over and the

"It will give us hundreds of ner members It is bound to strengthen cession being stoned? The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church,' the pened for the spreading of American

THE TOWN AUTHORITIES

Just before 8 o'clock, nearly an hour before the train bearing the A. P. As. arrived, a Journal reporter went to the house of James B. Wood, of the Concord board of selectmen, and asked what to keep the peace, as all sorts of wild rumors were flying about.

Mr. Wood was at first somewhat im patient in manner, which he later explained by saying that he was feeling really sick.

He said: "We have put on four specials. If these people will come out and peaceably go to the hall and hold their meeting quiet'y, there will be no trouble. But if they come out with bands and hurrahing, and parade around, there is liable to be trouble,

Later Mr. Wood said that he thought there would be no trouble, as he did Later Mr. Wood said that he thought there would be no trouble, as he did not think that the A. P. A. was coming as expected.

He said that on Sunday one of the members applied to him for protection and that he consulted with the officers, and that very afternoon Mr. Craig, the head cor stable and night watch, had come to him asking for more assistance, which had been granted him.

THE MEETING.

According to the Boston Journal's story, when the plans for the meeting were first laid, it was thought that only a few Boston men would come out, but late in the afternoon it was learned that no less than 250 would be in attendance, and the large town hall was engaged and hastily decorated with flags and bunting. When the train-load pulled in, the members of the order in Concord were greatly surprised. Every available space in the entire hall was taken up, even to the size and gralleries.

Special Master Commissioner's Sale.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale on decree of forcelosure of mortgage issued out of the district court for Douglas county, Nebraska and to me diverted. I will, on the I?th day of December, A. D. 1894, and the north front door of the dounty court house. In the city of Omaha, as county, Nebraska sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the property described in said order of sale as loughas county, I be because the edit of the district court of the district court of sale and order of sale as loughas county, Nebraska sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the property described in said order of sale as loughas county, Nebraska sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the property described in said order of sale as loughas county, Nebraska sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the county court house. In the city of Omaha, as surveyed, platted and recorded, together with all the appurehences thereto belonging, all situate in bouglas county, state of Nebraska. Said property to be sold to satisfy John Basset plainting in the action in the entire hall was taken up, even to the

Mr. E. H. Dunbar, the supreme sergeant-at-arms of the A. P. A. was The police were unable to do anything with the crowd, and they had everything their own way. The fifteen minutes taken in loading up the train was the liveliest this old town has seen for a great many years.

At the first movement of the train the rain of bricks and stones was renewed with redoubled force.

Called to preside, and made a stirring speech, and was frequently encored by his audience, and hissed by the hoodlums from the gallery. Some one gettion in the District court within and for boughas county. Nebraska, in an action wherein Harry J. Twinting was plaintiff, and margaret Bluckmore, Herbert Bluckmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Toomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Toomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Toomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Toomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E. Plackmore, Ida E. Plackmore doubt been cleared. He said, "Let them stay in, they have much to learn," and to the hissers he remarked, "That is not gentlemanly; that is not Ameritation of the payment of the amount found due to the hissers he remarked."

"That is not gentlemanly; that is not Ameritation of the payment of the amount found due to the payment of the

Here are facts which the Boston Citizen has gleaned, but which the dailies

The leader of the mob was one Dennis Gleason, a laborer, about 30 years of eral sentiment of the town is set against age. He was called by the other rioters "the captain," (of the mob). He is em-about the door, taking the names and of a stone mason named Michael Con-

Another was John Grimes, son of Gilbert Grimes, who is employed in the store of Messes. Walcott & Holder. He has the reputation of being very quar-The above are the names of a few-the other names are being held back for a special purpose. Several of the rioters were armed with axe handles, which were obtained supplied by Gleason and Wallace All the above are Irish Roman Cath-

In London for every 100 legitimate births, there are four illegitimate; in 118, and in Rome, 243.

Bullene Moore Emery Hor.

Representative House Of the West . .

Million and a Quarter

Dollars worth of Goods to Select from.

Bullone Moore Emery 4 Bo.

KANSAS CITY, MO, MAIL ORDERS SOLICITED. SEND FOR CATALOUE.

RARE CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY

Juvenile and Other Holiday Books. precautionary measures had been taken Rare Wherein? Let Us Give You Particulars! If you want to make from $250.00 to $400.00 between now and the Holidays, write to us at once for a canvassing outfit of our BEAUTIFUL JUVENILE HOLIDAY BOOKS. We guarantee the

BEST TERMS AND BEST BOOKS

In Every Particular. Best of Paper. Most Amusing. Interesting and Instructive Stories, writte the children. Prices, 50c, $1.00, $1.50, graded to suit all ages.

Big Sales! Large Profits! Exclusive Territory! t you want your choice of Territory, send immediately 45 Cents to pay express charges and we will send you full instructions and

Our Beautiful $4.50 Outfit Free.

No Experience Necessary. [Address] We Give Full Instructions. DEPT. RARE, S. I. BELL & CO., Publishers, Philadelphia, Penn

Special Master Commissioner's Sale.

To Margaret Blackmore, Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Mrs. Blackmore, wife of Thomas Frederick Blackmore, E. C. Bates, first name inknown, John H. Bassett and James B. Dickey, defendants: the payment of the amount found due at the defendants be debarred and forecan."

His speech was followed by one from Oscar Emerson, president of one of the Boston councils, and Mr. James Stark, from Dorchester, and others.

There was also plenty of music, which added to the enthusiasm of the meeting.

The councils are the defendants be debarred and fore-closed of all interest in said premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due that the defendants had premises and they be soid to satisfy the sum found due the sum of the sum found due the sum found due the sum of the sum found due the sum of the sum fou and all costs.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 31st day of December, 1894.
Dated November 23rd, 1894
HARRY J. TWINTING.

By Saunders, Macfarland & Dickey, his at-torneys, Doc. 45, No. 345, 11-23-4

Legal Notice.

In the District court of Douglas county, Nebraska, Howard W. Charles, plaintiff, vs. Fred Hansen, defendant. Notice to Fred Hansen and Hilda Hansen.

Dioyed in Murray's grocery store.

The fellow who had the Harvard "H" on his shirt was John Connors, the son of a stone mason named Michael Connors. John graduated from the high school last spring, entered Harvard this fall, but left suddenly for some unexplained reason. He is sald to be quarrelsome, and is designated as a "tough." He is about 22 years old.

Another of the rioters was John Wallace, a section hand on the Fitchfield Railroad. He is a son of Michael Wallace, employed in Murray's grocery store.

Another was Gilbert Grimes, who is a mason and does odd jobs around the town.

Indicate the fendants:

You will take notice that on the 21st day of November, 181d day of November, 181d and petition in the District court of Douglas county. Nebraska, against Fred Hansen and Hilda Hansea. the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage to the sucuted by the above named defendants to Eugene C. Bates, and by him assigned to Howard W. Charles, plaintiff herein, upon the following described real estate, to-wie North twenty-three 23 feet of lot seventeen (17), in block one (1), in Armstrong's First addition to the city of Omaha, Douglas county. Nebraska, as surveyed, platted and recorded. Said mortgage was given to secure the payment of a certain promissory note dated May 22, 1889, for the sum of six hundred dollars (800), due and payable in five years from the date thereof; that there is now due upon the said note and mortgage the sum of six hundred dollars (800), with interest thereon at seven (5) per cent. from the 22nd day of November, 1863, and all unpaid coupons to draw interest at ten (10) per cent. per annum. Plaintiff prays for a decrete that defendants be required to pay the same, and that said premises may be sold to satisfy amount found due.

You will take notice the pount of Douglas county. Nebraska, against Fred Hansen and Hilda Hansea. the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage which is to foreclose a certain mortgage to secure the payment of a certain promiss ion-resident defendants You will take notice that on the 21st day of

Legal Notice.

Neis Hendrickson will take notice that on the 3sth day of September, 18%, Edmund Bartlett, a Justice of the Peace of Douglas Bartlett, a Justice of the Peace of Doughas county, Nebusska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $24.00, in an action pending perfore him wherein Axel Meyer is plaintiff, and Neis Hendrickson defendant; that property of the detendant, consisting of one sewing machine, three upholstered chairs, one divan, one center table, one bundle of carpet and two quilts, has been attached, under said, said cause was continued to the 23nd day of December, 1894, at it o'clock a. M. Omaha, Nebraska, Nov. 18th, 1884.

AXEL MEYER.

AXEL MEYER. Plaintiff FOR RENT CARDS-IIXH mehes, at 75 cents Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

To Margaret Blackmore, Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Mrs. Blackmore, wife of Thomas Frederick Blackmore, E. C. Bates, first name unknown, John H. Bassett and James B. Dickey, defendants:

You are hereby notified that on the 27th day of July, 184. Harry J. Twinting filed a petition in the District court within and for Douglas county, Nebraska. In an action wherein Harry J. Twinting was plaintiff, and Margaret Blackmore, Herbert Blackmore, ida E. Blackmore, Homas Frederick Blackmore, Mrs.

Blackmore, first name unknown, his wife, James B. Dickey, John H. Bassett, E. C. Bates, lirst name unknown, his wife, James B. Dickey, John H. Bassett, E. C. Bates, lirst name unknown, Louis Levi and the Collins Gun Company were defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose one certain tax deed upon lot eight 8, block "D," of the city of Omaha, (original plat) Douglas county, Nebraska, and to also foreclose a certain tax certificate upon said lot, which said deed and certificate are now owned and held by the plaintiff. Plaintiff asks that in default of the payment of the amount found due that the defendants be debarred and foreclosed of all interest in said premises and that they be sold to satisfy the sum so found due. Plaintiff claims that on September 17th, 1894, there was due upon said tax deed and certificate the sum of three hundred and certificate the sum of three hundred

HARRY J. TWINTING. By Saunders, Macfarland & Dickey, his attorneys. Doc. 45. No. 346. 11-23-4

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

To Margaret Blackmore, Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Mrs. Blackmore, wife of Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Mrs. Blackmore, wife of Thomas Frederick Blackmore, E. C. Blates, first name unknown, John H. Bussett and James B. Dickey, defendants:

You are hereby notified that on the 27th day of July, 1894, Harry J. Twinting filed a petition in the District court within and for Dougas county, Nebraska, in an action wherein Harry J. Twinting was plaintiff, and Margar t Blackmore, Herbert Blackmore, Ida E Blackmore, Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E Blackmore, Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E Blackmore, Thomas Frederick Blackmore, Ida E Blackmore, Thomas B. Dickey, John H. Bassett, E. C. Bates, first name unknown, touls Levi and the Collins Gun Company were defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose one certain tax deed upon lot six 66 block 'D,' of the city of Omaha, (original piat) Douglas county, Nebraska, and to also foreclose a certain tax certificate upon said jot, which said deed and certificate are now owned and held by the plaintiff. Plaintiff usks that in defaul of the payment of the amount found due that the defendants of debarred and foreclosed of all interest in said premises and that they be soid to satisfy the sum so found due. Plaintiff clains that an expression of certificate the sum of twelve hundred and three and 30 109 dollars ($1203.30) with interest at the rate of ten (10 per cent. per annum from September 17th, 1884, and an autorney's three and 30 100 dollars ($1203.30) with interest at the rate of ten (10) per cent, per annum from September 17th, 1894, and an attorney's fee equal to ten (10) per cent, of the decrees and all costs.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the sist day of December, 1894.

Dated November 23rd, 1894.

HARRY J. TWINTING.

By Saunders, Macfarland & Dickey, his at-torneys. Doc. 45. No. 344. 11-23-4

Special Master Commissioner's Sale. Under and by virtue of an order of sale on decree of foreclosure of mortgage issued out of the District court for Douglas county, Neoraska, and to me directed, I will, on the dist day of December, A. D. 1894, at ten o'clock a. m. of said day, at the n rth front door of the county court house, in the city of Omaha, Douglas county, Neoraska, sen at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the property described in said order of sale, as follows, to wit: The west half of lot number four (b. 1894) decree of foreclosure of mortgage issued out follows, to-wit:

The west haif of lot number four (4), la block number "V." Lowe's addition to the city of Omaha, as surveyed, platted and recorded, together with all appurtenances thereunto belonging, all in Douglas county, state of Nebraska.

Sald property to be sold to satisfy Sarah J. Barrows, defendant herein, the sum of eight hundred, ninety-one and 25,100 dollars (899).25) judgment, with laterest thereon at rate of eight (8) per cent per annum from September 17th, 1884.

To satisfy Frances I. T. omas, To satisfy Frances I. I omas, plaintin here n. the sum of twenty-four dollars ($24.00) judgment, with interest thereon at rate of eight (8) per cent per annum from September Ifth, 1894.

To satisfy the sum of twenty-eight and 45-

To satisfy the sum of twenty-eight and 63-100 dollars ($5.50) costs herein, with interest thereon from the 17th day of September, A. D. 1884, until paid, together with accruing costs according to a judgement rendered by the District court of said Douglas county at its September term, A. D. 1894, in a certain action then and there pending, wherein Frances I. Thomas was plaintiff and John W. Latham and others were defendants.

Latham and others were defendants. Omaha, Neb., November 26, 1894, CHARLES L. THOMAS. Special Master Commissioner.
DEXTER L. THOMAS, Attorney.
Francis I. Thomas vs. John W. Latham et al.
Ex. S. Page 82. Doc. 41. No. 347. 11-30-5

M. DALEY,

2107 Cuming St.,