IT was but recently that a visitor in Kansas City, Mo., could not be made to believe that he was in the United States. He said that every policeman whom he had accosted "were not able to speak the English language without an Irish brogue."

THERE is one thing that can be said truthfully about the A. P. A. of Chie ago: It is composed of conscientious men, who love their country and its free institutions with the same intensity that they hate Roman encroschment and priestly dictation in politics.

THE management of THE AMERICAN is spending annually about $8,000.00 for upbuilding the principles of Americans who have gone to sleep.
