Republican Club Meetings. Fifth Ward Republican Club meets every Thursday at the Club hall, 18th and Lake streets.

Est Dyball's Candies, 1518 Douglas Miss J. B. McCabe, the dressmaker, has returned from an extended trip to California.

Judge Scott entertained the Fifth Ward Republicans in a lively speech Thursday evening.

Nearly all the large business houses took advantage of Jubilee day to give their employes a holiday.

Attorney I. R. Andrews has returned from a month's vacation spent in visiting in the east. He is now at his office ready for business.

Miss Harriet B. Pinkerton, stenographer for the law firm of Saunders, Macfarland & Dickey, has returned from a month's vacation spent in visiting friends in the eastern states.

H. K. Burket will run Mike Maul quite a lively race for the coronership at the coming election, and the people will make no mistake, let the nomination go to whom it may.

Every attorney in the city can expect a good fish story when Edison Rich returns from a trip to the Big Snake River country. Ed. writes that after a battle of twenty minutes he succeeded in landing a trout weighing three and a half pounds.

THE AMERICAN job department is turning out a fine assortment of "candidate cards," and they are just the thing with which to introduce yourself to the people. They don't rob you simply because you are a candidate, but give you good work at a fair price.

W. R. Bennett Co.'s entire force of clerks turned out for a day's jubilee at the fair grounds, and every one of them was decorated with a badge of bright colors. Bennett's large business and the efficient manner in which his many clerks attend to their duties has made this establishment the most popular in the city, and the pleasure attending a day's outing is well deserved.

The Loback Merchandise Company will shortly open up a department store in their new building on Capitol avenue near Sixteenth street. Mr. Loback has been for many years engaged in the hardware business in this city, and has made many friends by his honest and upright dealings. The company proposes to make a specialty of American-made goods of every description, and we wish them success in their new business venture.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Fatted Calf," the attraction at the Creighton theatre during the present week, is a musical comedy constructed on original lines, and has pleased large audiences during its appearance here. The company includes a number of capable artists, notably Miss Rhea Starr, Jenny Lind Lewis, whose talented solos were heartily enjoyed; Ed. Sheriff, a clever whistler; Nellie Sheldon, who gave an artistic interpretation of the Irish baby farm proprietress, and Miss Katharine White.

Commencing with Sunday matinee September 8th, The John Stapleton Company, under the direction of Gustave Frohman, open a return engagement at the Creighton theatre, producing Sardou's brilliant comedy, "Americans Abroad," during the first four nights of the week, and D-Mille and Belasco's famous comedy-drama, "The Charity Ball," during the remainder of the engagement. This company achieved a decided success during the past week in its production of "The Wife," and should meet with a repetition of the same during its coming visit.

The instantaneous and marked success achieved by the presentation of Miss Pauline Hall's new operatic comedy, "Dorcas," has been phenomenal. The most lavish and whole-souled praise has been accorded her by the press and public generally wherever Miss Hall and her company have appeared, and from its first inception up to the present moment it has not received one adverse criticism. The music of the opera has been especially commended as being particularly tuneful and catchy, and with the new additions imported by Miss Hall, none of which have ever been heard in America, its attractive qualities will be materially enhanced. Full scores of the opera are now in course of publication, and will soon be presented to the public in book and sheet form. This famous organization will open the regular theatrical season at Boyd's Theater on Sunday evening next, the engagement continuing for three nights. The sale of seats will open at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Wouldn't Make a Vest.

All the Catholic people of Gallitzin have agreed to send their children to the school where the Sisters of St. Joseph will act as teachers after having refused to defy the religious garb bill by teaching in the public-schools, and the result will be that the public-school will be practically deserted.—Phillipsburg Ledger.

Nothing queer about that, Bro. Williams. No doubt that is the orders from the priest of the parish, and in the eyes of some people a priest is so large that George Washington's overcoat wouldn't make him a vest.—Holtzdale Observer.

WHO PERSECUTES!

A Few Words About Foraker, McKinley, Bushnell and Linton.

WILKESVILLE, Ohio, Aug. 31, 1895. EDITOR AMERICAN.—The cause is not languishing in this neck of the woods; though the enemy has made use of all manner of means to retard our progress, we are steadily increasing our membership and organizing a new council occasionally. Our organizer, C. A. Kinkead, is having a great deal of opposition to overcome, the hardest of which comes from sleepy, weak-kneed and spineless Protestants who are afraid to turn around for fear they will see their own shadow. Or, in other words, they are afraid to openly proclaim themselves Americans for fear they will lose Catholic trade. Then there is another class who hold up their hands in holy (?) horror when asked to join the order, and say: "I don't believe in persecuting a religious sect." Bless their ignorant souls! When will they get their eyes open? Will they never realize what the words "American Protective" mean? They surely do not mean persecution to any sect or class. The true American does not persecute. Do or do not the Catholic element persecute any and all who do not take their views of everything? A little incident that took place a few days ago at this place is a sample on a small scale and serves to show who is for persecution and who for protection with a big P.

A certain A. P. A. lives entirely surrounded by Catholics, in a farming community. It has always been customary for farmers during the threshing season to exchange help in threshing, thus enabling a poor man without money to get his crop threshed without any cash outlay for hands—a rule that has never been broken in that neighborhood until this year. The Catholic! Yes, these good Romanized friends who do not believe in persecution said: "We will not help this damned A. P. A. to do his threshing, neither will we allow him to help us. And we will try to prevent the threshermen going to his place with their machine." All of which they attempted to carry out. But mark the result: This A. P. A. reported his situation to the council, of which he was not a member, and these infernal A. P. A.'s, these persecuting "Apes," turned out sixty strong, and, with the Stars and Stripes floating from the roof of his barn, helped this "friend" of humanity to do his threshing, and then required the threshermen to go to another A. P. A.'s and do his threshing, actually laying hold of the machine with their hands and rolling it up a steep and rocky hill to the crop. After the threshing was done, and the machine moved to a Catholic neighbor's, the "hellish" A. P. A.'s enjoyed themselves in social chat until the machine was in operation at the "other place," when the "Apes" formed in line and with "Old Glory" floating marched past the "saints," and their (the saints') smiles were not radiant, nor their countenances as benign as one would expect to see on "angels'" faces.

When will the American people arouse to the fact that they are blindly allowing the papal power to gain absolute control of our educational institutions, state and general government? Americans, awake, for God's sake, and for the sake of liberty for your children and your children's children arouse, arouse while it is not yet too late.

You asked me some time ago to write you a letter, requesting me to tell you how the boys are on Foraker, McKinley and Bushnell, or was it Linton? I haven't the letter at hand. Foraker is true-blue and is all right with the boys; that little flag episode has not been forgotten, and the boys now realize that there was more to it than they at that time supposed. As for McKinley, we are as yet dubious. I have it from apparently good authority that he is a bitter enemy of the A. P. A., and that he is a member of a Catholic society in Columbus, Ohio, his name appearing among the incorporators. We have no direct information on Bushnell, our candidate for governor, but have reason to believe that he is all right. As for Linton: Why, I believe the boys would actually go wild could they be sure that he would be the Republican candidate for president in '96.

More anon, if this does not go to the waste basket. A. P. A.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by catarrh which is a thing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

It is. With the Mayor of Spring Valley a foreigner who openly upholds mob rule, and the Mayor of Lemont a foreigner who defends crime and assists the criminals, is it not time that the roots of an American honor and decency be planted in every city and village in the State of Illinois?—Aurora Blade.

How Mrs. Wm. Henry Makes Money! I have been so successful in the past few months that I feel it my duty to aid others by giving them my experience. I have not made less than $15 any day for the last five months if they try. Address the Iron City Iron City Wash and people send for them by the dozen. They give each good satisfaction. My own family wants one. Dishes washed and dried in two minutes. I think any person can easily clear $10 a day, and my husband and I are now getting on. I don't see why anyone should be destitute, when they may just as well be making lots of money if they try. Address the Iron City Wash Co., 145 S. Highland avenue, Station A, Pittsburg, Pa., and they will give you all instructions and testimonials necessary to succeed.
