AMUSEMENTS.

The comedy, "Charley's Aunt," by Brandon Thomas, which will have its second representation at the Creighton Oct. 17, 18 and 19.

"The Raven" Paraphrased.

Once upon a midnight dreary I was sitting, rather weary.

When a noise served to remind me That a thief might chance to find me.

Rooted fast in mute amazement, Only this and nothing more.

For on the threshold stood a figure; 'Twas not white nor yet a nigger.

Blinking, winking, shrinking, stinking, Standing at my chamber door,

Mutely standing at the portal— Only this and nothing more.

While its great red eyes were staring I could hardly keep from swearing;

Confound those eyes so red and sore, Standing, shinking, blinking, winking

At me from my chamber door— Only this and nothing more.

Talk about your fragrant breezes, Onions, garlic and stale cheeses—

By the great eternal Crosses, He was rotten to the core,

Blistering, festering, putrid, rotten to the very core,

And I'm not sure but something more, Patience ceased to be a virtue,

"Sir," I said, "I'll surely hurt you"— Here I heaved a stick of stove-wood

With all the strength my body bore, Heaved it in sheer desperation,

Mad beyond all comprehension, But to my great consternation

He had vanished from the door, Into thin air he had vanished—

Only this and nothing more, But the ghost had left behind it,

On the floor I chanced to find it, The greasy paper that it fluttered

WEALTH AND IMMIGRATION.

"What Matters It Where a Man Has Been Born?"

We are to-day accumulating wealth at the rate of more than $7,000,000 a day.

And in the midst of prosperity let us never forget the men who helped to save our country.

On the train, going over, there was a fellow who got into a dispute with a minister about the first chapter of Genesis.

He said: "I do." "Well," said the fellow, "don't you think he could put in another day here to devilish good advantage?"

But, as I have said, we have got about one-seventh of the good land of the world.

I often hear people say that we have too many folks here; that we ought to stop immigration; that we have no more room.

Here in this land of ours 500,000,000 men and women and children can be supported and educated without any trouble.

Church Factions Fight.

St. Joseph's Society held a peace meeting at St. Hedwig's Church, Chicago, and many in attendance were armed with clubs, bricks, etc., which they concealed about their persons.

The two factions quarreled. Vincent Solecki, private watchman, mauled John Zenda over the head with his club. Flats flew thick and fast.

The All Saints' crowd were in the majority, yet they wanted no fuss, and got out of the church as soon as they were able to.

THROUGH CAR SERVICE.

St. Paul, Minn., to Los Angeles, Cal. Arrangements have just been completed whereby the Union Pacific and connecting lines will run a Pullman Tourist Sleeper from St. Paul, Minn., to Los Angeles, Cal.

For comfort there is nothing that exceeds the tourist cars operated by the Union Pacific, and it is an established fact that this line makes faster time than any other line in the west.

This already gives promise of being the popular line for California travel, and applications for space in the sleeper should be made early.

When down town drop in at John Ruda's and leave your watch, if it is out of repair, to be fixed, 317 north 16 St.
