FIRE AND BLOOD

From Sea to Sea, Will Be the Result of Jesuit Intriguery.

A fearful crisis is forced on this nation, and millions are not yet apprised of the fact.

The pope, the Jesuits and the Roman clergy are plotting the destruction of our free American institutions, civil and religious, in the near future. A national conspiracy exists of which I have positive evidence, which challenges investigation.

The upheavals of 1894 were not merely "labor strikes," as many supposed, but were intended to culminate in a national revolution, which would disrupt the Government, "bury the President and Congress beneath the rubbish" and "roll a tidal wave of fire and blood from sea to sea!"

It was predicted that "500,000 railroad men would lock every wheel in America, skilled mechanics would tear up the rails, destroy the bridges, and burn the cars so that the United States army and militia could not be concentrated, and that from 1,500,000 to 3,000,000 tramps would back the movement." This plot was projected when T. V. Powderly was master workman of the so-called Knights of Labor, under the endorsement of ten archbishops, sixty bishops, Cardinal Gibbons and Pope Leo XIII.

Gibbons is hereby defiantly challenged to disprove these facts!

Gibbons dare not deny the fact that after he obtained the sanction of the aforesaid archbishops and bishops, he went to the Pope of Rome in person and influenced him to revoke a former decision against Powderly's Romanized organization. It is said that Powderly cheerfully promised to make the emendations required by the pope, and expressed his readiness to comply at all times to the wishes of the ecclesiastical authorities.

These significant facts occurred before the national upheaval developed itself. Thousands of honest toilers were misled by Powderly's Jesuit hypocrisy, and narrowly escaped being led as lambs to the slaughter. Under these circumstances it may not have been difficult for Debs, a Roman infidel, to affiliate in the treasonable conspiracy. In April, 1893, I detected and exposed this conspiracy, and Powderly resigned, but Sovereign took his place before the usurping commenced. Thanks to the President of the United States, the judiciary and army, for prompt and efficient work which, for the time, checked this vile Roman plot of treason.

But now alliances are now being formed, new methods projected, reserved forces marched to the front, and the combined elements of national corruption confederated for demoralization and anarchy; the ultimatum of which is a national collision between labor and capital in order to disrupt this government, destroy free American institutions, and on their ruins establish a papal monarchy.

Hence the persistent efforts to crowd into the army and navy of the United States the minions of an ecclesiastical despot, who assumes infallibility and claims by divine right universal, spiritual and temporal supremacy over church and state, with judicial power to save or damn at pleasure.

Hence the accumulation of billions of untaxed property in the United States held in trust by papal archbishops for the despotic alien Pope of Rome.

Let on the search lights from the Protestant pulpit and the patriotic press, and let every loyal family have at least one patriotic paper. Stop at once and forever the importation of paupers and criminals.

Suppress or expel the Jesuits, as they have been more than seventy times in other countries.

Let the public schools be maintained, the English language and American patriotism taught in them, and the American flag float over them.

Let convents, monasteries, Houses of the Good Shepherd and other papal prison pens be opened by legislative enactments to inspection and reformation or suppression.

Let the secret abominations of auricular confession as now practiced by 9,754 Roman priests in the United States, be exposed to men only, till by legal enactments the Roman confessional shall be suppressed, as the right arm of the papal power and the most prolific source of prostitution, debauchery and crime known in the annals of history.

Let all true patriots, regardless of party alliances, stand firmly together for the defense and perpetuation of our free American institutions, and let unequivocal loyalty to all American institutions and suitable qualifications be indispensable to office in municipality, state and nation.

If the several states do not promptly disband and disarm the Catholics in our midst, let Protestants organize and arm for mutual protection of person, of property, state and nation. Let the Roman clergy understand that free speech shall be maintained, that mob violence shall cease, otherwise they will suffer the penalty. Let it be known throughout the world that Protestant American institutions must and shall be protected, if it requires the last drop of patriotic blood and the extermination of every traitorous Jesuit, cardinal, bishop and priest in the United States!

Let every loyal American, native-born and adopted, inscribe on his banner, "America For Americans, And American Independence And Institutions, or death." REV. J. G. WHITE. STANFORD, Ill., Sept. 10, 1895.

Ex-Priest Wagner Stays in Jail.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 15.—Casper J. Wagner, the ex-priest, was arraigned in the criminal court for trial this morning and, on application of attorneys for defendant, the case was continued until the November term, at which time Wagner will be tried on the charge of embezzlement and possibly on the charges of assault and kidnapping. No mention was made of bail to-day, as Wagner does not desire to be released, but will remain in jail pending a trial of his case.

POLISH SECEDERS.

They Hold a Meeting and Ex-Communicate Bishop Ryan.

The temporary church of the congregation of the Holy Mother of the Rosary could hardly have held another person last evening at the meeting called for the purpose of hearing the priests and others interested in the movement for an independent Catholic church. The main floor was crowded as closely as it was possible for human beings to pack themselves, and even the confessionals were used by the people, who were anxious to hear the remarks of the leaders in the movement.

The most importance was attached to the utterances of the Rev. Father Kolazewski, of Cleveland, who was the leader in the revolt which resulted in the formation of the independent Polish churches. He talked rapidly in Polish, and was received with frequent applause by his hearers. He was on the altar of the church while speaking and some of those in the rear of the hall could hardly see him because of the craning of necks. His voice was good and everybody could hear him plainly.

When he finished his address he again took the platform and repeated the old maxim, "Vox Populi, vox Dei," "The voice of the people is the voice of God." "As Bishop Ryan, of Buffalo, Bishop Horstman, of Cleveland, and Archbishop Feelan, of Chicago, have formed a syndicate and excommunicated us," he said in English to a reporter for the Express, who asked for a translation of his speech, "we now publicly excommunicate them. We have the right to do so. We now represent over 200,000 souls and we are like the policemen who are chosen to protect the rights of good citizens. We are for the people and are defending the rights of our people. We are an organized body of soldiers, but want a leader. The time will soon come when the Polish people will have a bishop of their own, one who will be a bishop instead of an oppressor. There is no greater oppressor than Dear Pittass. We are attacked as schismatics. We are not. The bishops call the attention of the people to the biblical passage which says 'He who despiseth you despiseth me!' We have love and respect for the bishops while they exercise their lawful authority. We do not deny that authority when used in its proper sphere, but when it is used as a means of oppression then we have the right to object. We do not deny any of the tenets of the faith, and, in fact, desire to bring our people more in touch with the church. We are working with the object of having a Polish bishop who will not look for his personal ends and use moneys in building houses and furthering personal ends when they should be devoted to the church."

Father Kolazewski was frequently interrupted by applause, and when he left the platform he was perspiring freely.

The Rev. Father Kozlowski, of Chicago, reviewed the work which has been taken up by a few of the Polish priests in forming the independent church.

The Rev. Father Karminski, of Freeport, Pa., followed in the same strain, and I. Merski, of Chicago, the vice-president of the general committee, told of the growth of the movement, the number of churches now in being 22. The committee, he said, had been formed for the purpose of seeing that the title of the churches be placed in the name of the congregation instead of the bishop or the pastor. This the committee promised to have done in every case where one of the independent parishes were building churches.

The Rev. Father Klawiter, pastor of the church, addressed the congregation briefly, and called attention to the fact that the $5,900 balance due on the 22 lots, which comprise the church site at the corner of Sycamore and Sobieski streets and Sweet avenue, has been paid, and there is now $5,000 in the bank for the prosecution of the building work. The three-story school-house on Sobieski street, which will in part be used as a temporary church, has been started and the foundations are well advanced. It will be 90 by 110 feet and will cost complete $22,000. The church will be of stone and will face Sycamore street. It will be 80 by 180 feet, and will cost complete about $100,000.

The Rev. Father Szanski, of Omaha, was present on the altar, but did not speak.

A dinner was served to the visitors and some of the officials of the church at the house of Father Klawiter after the meeting.—Buffalo (N. Y.) Express.

Image of the Virgin Crowned.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 12.—An immense crowd early this morning sought admission to the church at Guadalupe, to witness the coronation of the image of the Virgin. The doors were opened at 7 o'clock, but so great was the rush that the doors had to be closed an hour later. The ceremony was magnificent, there being thirty-seven archbishops and bishops in full robes of office present.

The crown was carried to the front of the altar by ladies who had subscribed to it, and there, in the presence of the public notary, was formally presented to Abbot Plasencia and the Chapter of Guadalupe. They took the oath to preserve it for the purpose for which it was intended. The crown was then blessed and mass followed. Afterward came the procession, headed by the archbishops of Mexico, New York, Cincinnati, New Orleans and Oaxaca, and a great number of bishops and priests following. The crown was carried around the church to the entrance and was then brought into the church and placed above the image of the Virgin by the bishops and archbishops of Michoacan.

The image which was crowned to-day is a painting, claimed by Mexican Catholics to have been miraculously impressed in the year 1531 on the "tina" or apron of a poor Indian, recently converted from heathenism. This event is said to have taken place at Guadalupe, a village about three miles distant from the City of Mexico. The crown is composed of gold, contributed by the ladies of Mexico, the jeweler supplying nothing but the workmanship, for which he charged $30,000. This sum was also contributed by Mexican ladies. It is rich in diamonds, sapphires, rubies and other precious stones.

Louisville All Right.

Louisville is now wrestling with the same old Roman ring that we have just downed here in Nashville. Louisville did not win in the county election last year and is now trying conclusions with the remainder of the coast. But Louisville is equal to the occasion, having more than 20,000 A. P. As within her corporation who will see to it that Rome gets her deserts and is kicked out bodily.—Nashville Tribune.

Will Go A. P. A.

In Kentucky the Democrats struck a blow at the A. P. A.'s in their second plank, and Mr. Hardin has but little to say, but we think he tacitly endorses it. Upon the other hand Mr. Bradley, the Republican candidate, comes square out upon the American idea.—Nashville Tribune.

Got the Axe.

Mary had a pair of lambs, Their fleece was like the flax; They had green ribbons 'round their necks, And crosses on their backs. They followed her where'er she went, With the crosses on their backs, They followed her to Omaha, And there they got the axe.

Hood's Is Wonderful

"At harvesting time I took a severe cold which settled in my limbs, and in a short time developed into Inflammation Rheumatism. After spending a good sum of money for different remedies and suffering all winter, I became so crippled that I had to walk with the aid of crutches. By the kind advice of a friend I was prevailed upon to buy six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took the medicine and it has fully restored me to health and I think it saved my life. I will cheerfully answer all who may wish to correspond about my affliction or statement." A. W. COOLEY, Clifford, North Dakota.
