H. C. WALL, Tel. 1279. 1215 Farnam Street, OMAHA, NEB. GRAND LODGE LOYAL ORANGE INSTITUTION OF THE United States of America.

Both Protestants and Roman Catholics are weary of the warfare, and both are inclined to reach a compromise that will bring about a settlement. Archbishop Langevin, the head of the Roman Catholic Church in this country, stated to-day that he was postponing a visit to Rome in the hope that he might be able to convey to the holy father intelligence of an amicable arrangement.

ORANGE PRINCIPLES. On behalf of the Loyal Orange Lodge of the United States of America, and with a view of correcting the false impression that enemies are endeavoring to convey to the minds of men who are unacquainted with Orange principles, are these few statements made:

Prosecuted by the A. P. A. ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 19.—The Rev. J. C. Hull, late pastor of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, was to-day suspended from the ministry for a year, or until the next conference meets. This is the result of a secret church trial over which Presiding Elder Marshall had charge.

Few Rent Not Counted Cash. WABASH, Ind., Oct. 20.—Father Kelly, of the Catholic church at Lagro, this county, and president of the Catholic Total Abstinence Society of Indiana, is involved in litigation with Barney Cary, one of his parishioners. While the priest was in New York recently Cary took care of his horse, and brought in a bill for $17. The priest found Cary was behind $33 on paw rent, and offered to give him credit for the amount. Cary objected, and brought suit for the $17. The justice now has the case under advisement.
