CITY AND STATE

City Clerk Higby retains his old force of deputies and clerks.

Fire destroyed the store and residence of our friend Timme at Bennington last week.

Dr. Tilden and B. G. Burbank have been appointed as the board of insanity for Douglas county.

It is reported that a move is on foot to cause the arrest of ex-City Treasurer Bolin on account of the alleged shortages.

Albyn Frank has assumed the duties of district clerk, and the place which knew Frank Moores once will know him no more.

The county treasurer's office was closed Thursday morning in order to make settlement and transfer of books to the new county treasurer.

Jerome Coulter's attorneys have filed a motion for dismissal of the charges against him, and will argue the case in police court next Wednesday.

President Saunders will circulate between two offices during 1896, the city having provided an office for the president of the council in the City Hall.

Ex-County Coroner Maul was the recipient of a fine leather upholstered chair, being the gift of a score or more of his many friends, Thursday evening.

Jailer Miller retires to give place to George Shand, who will have two deputy jailers instead of one as heretofore. They are John Lind and Louis Grebe.

Sheriff MacDonal took possession of the sheriff's office Thursday, with John Lewis as chief deputy and Deputies Del A. Pearce, Geo. W. Hill, and H. S. MacDonal, bookkeeper.

Under the new contract, the city will in a short time receive a royalty from the Gas Company of $7,000, this being five cents for each one thousand feet of gas consumed during the year 1895.

Coroner Burket returned from Chicago Wednesday morning in time to assume the duties of his office the following day. For the present his office will be located at his undertaking establishment, 1618 Chicago street.

Mrs. J. F. Fisher returned last Saturday from Marion, Iowa, where she had been for several weeks ministering to her father, Mr. H. E. Carver, a staunch old American who was seriously ill, and finally died. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. J. W. Carver, and his two pretty twin daughters.

Two true American families are rejoicing in the recent arrival of fine babies. One is J. H. Harvey's, at Fifteenth and Burdette, and the other is W. F. Knapp's, of the Pacific Express Company. Master Harvey arrived Dec. 29, 1895, and Miss Knapp Jan. 1, 1896. The mothers and the babies are getting along nicely.

AMUSEMENTS.

The announcement of the coming engagement of Hanlons Brothers' "Fantasma" at the Creighton should prove popular to the patrons of that theatre. A short engagement of four nights will be opened with the usual Sunday mat-nee, Jan. 12. In amusements the Hanlons may be said to be purveyors to the "masses" since their entertainments are equally pleasing to all classes of theatre-goers. While they have produced a number of plays of this same character, "Fantasma," which is the oldest, is still considered by many as their best effort. It will be given this time with the same attention to detail as has characterized former representations and by a company said to be a very superior organization.

Governor Bradley's Boom.

Some leaders of the Kentucky Republican party have pledged themselves to send a Bradley delegation to the St. Louis convention. They purpose arousing sentiment in the governor's behalf strong enough to make him a factor in the presidential nomination race. They claim several southern states are already in line for him and declare he is entitled to be considered among the probabilities.

This sanguine view of our blue-grass Republicans is the result of Bradley's victory over the Hon. Watt Hardin last November. It will strike the average man as rather presumptuous when the conditions which surrounded the campaign in Kentucky are recalled.

Bradley's election was due not to increased Republican strength but to defection in the Democratic party. Hardin was nominated on a gold platform, which he proceeded to repudiate and make his campaign on free silver. This split Democracy up the back. Old-line Democrats who have always voted their party tickets as they take their liquor refused to follow Hardin, not because he was a silverite but because he did the unpardonable and undemocratic offense of putting himself above the platform. One of the canons of Democratic faith is that no man is superior to the platform which is the will of the people in the party. It was Hardin's repudiation of the platform more than his free-silver views which caused his party to desert him and, consequently, his defeat.

Kentucky Republicans falsely impudently impute to Bradley's popularity and the permanent ascendancy of the Republican party in their state. On this premises they have builded a Bradley boom. When this boom bumps up against the plans of the Hon. Thomas Collier Platt and the Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay its staunchest devotees will not recognize it.—Chicago Daily News.

Maryland Legislature.

BALTIMORE, Md., January 2.—For some time past the A. P. A. feeling has been marked in Maryland, and religious prejudice entered extensively into the last campaign. Notwithstanding the fact that many of the most influential Catholics of the city and state were warm supporters of the United Independents and Republicans, the leaders of the A. P. A. movement were very active in distributing anti-Catholic campaign literature and otherwise endeavored to array Protestants against the Church of Rome. After the election they claimed the credit for the Republican victory.

That since then the sectarian sentiment has not abated, but become rather intensified, is shown by an incident which occurred during the organization of the house of delegates when the general assembly met on Wednesday, S. dney E. Mudd, an ex member of Congress from the Fifth district, was the Republican caucus nominee for speaker, and it was fully expected that he would receive every vote of the party. Great surprise was occasioned upon counting the vote to find five blanks in the box. Inquiry soon developed that the blanks were cast by delegates from Baltimore city, and that religion was the motive, Mr. Mudd being a Catholic. One man—Mr. Cunningham, of the Third ward—admitted that he cast a blank. He is a strong Junior Order United American Mechanics man, and led the fight on Mr. Mudd. It was generally accepted as a fact that religious bigotry actuated the other four Republican members to vote blank ballots. What makes the development of sectarianism all the more remarkable is that the Catholics of southern Maryland, from which part of the state Mr. Mudd comes, are largely Republican.—Dispatch in Chicago Chronicle.

Worked in Public.

Success Council No. 3 W. A. P. A. gave a public installation at their hall in the Continental block, Wednesday evening, Dec. 8, 1895. State President Mrs. M. A. Hertzmann installed the officers for the ensuing year, with Miss Nellie Hathaway as president. A great many A. P. A. friends witnessed the installation, after which the ladies spread a delightful luncheon. Speeches were made by different friends, and after passing a few hours in getting acquainted and other topics of enlightenment the company disbanded to their homes, feeling well repaid for the time they had spent.

Knows His Friends.

The American Protective Association can claim the election of a governor as among the recent fruits of its agitation. Governor Bradley, of Kentucky, says without reservation: "I owe my elevation to office to the American Protective Association."

A Chance to Make Money.

I taught school last winter and this summer. Seeing so many advertisements of dish-washers, I thought I would make some money during vacation. You said in your paper the Rapid Dish-washer was best, so I sent to W. F. Harrison & Co., Columbus, O., who manufacture specialties for agents, and got one, asked the neighbors in and washed the dinner dishes so quick and nice, everyone present bought one. I made this week $2.00, and that is a good deal better than school teaching, so I am going to sell dish-washers this winter. Other teachers would be glad to have this hint.

SAYS HE WAS AN ARMY OFFICER.

But Fort Sheridan Men Cannot Remember Such a Man.

Some one down in Chester, Ill., telegraphed a Chicago daily paper on New Year's Day that Lieutenant Anton Czhoricz, of Chicago, had appeared there hoping to get as a Christmas present a bride, Miss May Long, and told of Anton's keen disappointment at finding Mary wedded, one Wetze having captured the prize. The telegraph instruments must have got tangled up when Anton's last name went into the hopper. The Chester correspondent doubtless meant Anton Czechowicz, of Will street and Milwaukee avenue, Chicago. To be sure, this Anton says he has not been in Chester recently, and he was not laying siege to the heart of Mary Long. But then Anton also says until two years ago he was a second lieutenant in the Fifteenth United States Infantry at Fort Sheridan. The officers have no recollection of him as a comrade, and his name does not appear in the army register, and Anton forgot yesterday just how he received his commission and why he threw up such a snap as an army berth with $1,400 a year and quarters to take the job of drilling cadets in a Noble street church. Mr. Czechowicz fought shy of any further conversation in reference to his commission in the Fifteenth Infantry when he learned that his questioner had a fairly extended acquaintance among army officers. The Holy Trinity Polish Cadets have been drilled by Mr. Czechowicz, and it is said that they are to go to Fort Sheridan for target practice next spring, at which time the lieutenant will have a chance to renew acquaintance with his comrades.

Vegetone Cures Constipation.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 20, 1895.—Howard Medicine Company, Omaha, Neb.—Dear Sirs: This is to certify that I have been troubled for years with indigestion and constipation, and have taken almost everything I have heard of, but without effect until I used HOWARD'S VEGETONE. I have taken two packages, and can say with enthusiasm that it has cured me. I consider HOWARD'S VEGETONE the best remedy for those diseases I have ever tried, and can recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Very respectfully,
