GENERAL NEWS.

The city council took some preliminary steps in the interests of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition Tuesday evening.

The recent large real estate transfers in this city show that confidence in the future of Omaha investments is returning.

The Union Pacific sent out one of the heaviest passenger trains Thursday afternoon that has left this city in many weeks.

Charles J. Johnson, of the Ninth ward, has been appointed a sanitary inspector by the board of health, to take effect April 1st.

The Central Republican Club is one of the recent organizations for the national campaign. It starts out with about forty members.

Heavy snows are reported from various parts of Nebraska during the past week, which is regarded as indicative of good crop prospects.

John O. Yeiser addressed the farmers' meeting of Union and Jefferson precincts at Irvington, Thursday evening, on the silver issues.

Policeman Hoff, owing to a difficulty in arresting J. O. Pearsall Tuesday night, was suspended for thirty days by the fire and police board.

The supreme court of Nebraska has declared the Platte ditch canal act unconstitutional, thus affirming the judgment of the district court of Douglas county.

The Omaha retailers have organized themselves into an association which is destined to be of some benefit to Omaha if their present line of action is continued. Mr. A. Hoepf, Jr., is president.

The recent action of the railway companies in taking off the terminal charges on shipments of stock to the South Omaha market will save many hundreds of dollars to the shippers of the state.

The farmers of Dodge county, Nebraska, at a recent convention in Fremont, decided to plant a large acreage in hemp this year, with a view to establishing a factory for its consumption in Fremont.

The supreme court of Nebraska has refused to grant a new trial in the case of the State against ex-Treasurer J. E. Hill and his bondsmen, growing out of the failure of the Capital National Bank of Lincoln.

The Wanderers' Club gave a very enjoyable "Smoker" at Myrtle Hall, Continental Block, Thursday evening, which was addressed by General John C. Cowin and other speakers. An excellent musical program was also rendered.

Hon. John L. Webster is in Washington looking after the interests of the state in the maximum rate suits in the supreme court of the United States. The strong argument made by him Thursday in the interest of Nebraska shippers cannot fail to be commended by everyone interested.

As a result of a conference between Mayor Broatch, the council judiciary committee, Judge Gordon and City Prosecutor Ten Eyck, the matter of remitting fines will in the future be left entirely with the mayor, and there will be more "bread-and-water" sentences as punishment for "vags" who make the city support them during the greater part of the winter.

The Bimetallic League of this city held an interesting public debate at Patterson Hall on the money question Thursday evening. The club now has 190 members and is still growing. The club passed resolutions instructing its secretary to communicate with Major McKinley and other presidential candidates in order to obtain their views on bimetallicism.

DR. C. GEE WO. What Relatives of my Patients Have To Say. One of My Great Cures During The Month of October, 1895.

Read the following convincing testimonial from two prominent Omaha Citizens:

Judge Isaac S. Hascall and R. F. Williams have this to say. We consider Dr. C. Gee Wo of 519 North 16th St., Omaha, Neb., one of the best physicians in the city for the following reasons: Four years ago our daughter became very nervous and at times sick and unable to attend to her school. We doctored with and consulted nine of the leading physicians of this city, but she gradually grew worse, until on the 7th of October, 1895, she was attacked with spasms. She was restless and delirious for weeks following the attack, and at a consultation of physicians they agreed that she could not get well. We then employed Dr. C. Gee Wo, and the patient began to improve at once, and in a remarkably short time was up. She is feeling better than she has for a long time. She is enjoying every day and bids fair to get entirely well.
