Henry Bollen's trial is set down for next week in the police court.

Judge Powell has decided that the North Thirteenth street paving tax is legal.

City Engineer Howell has resigned his position as secretary of the state board of irrigation.

Several Omaha business men will manufacture their own ice this year and will thus evade the ice combine.

The Fifth ward Republican club has been organized with Dave Christie as president and W. E. Stockham as secretary.

A new building will shortly be erected on the old Fifteenth Street Theatre site suitable for stores and offices.

The Stoetzel Stove Company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $6,000, and will resume business at the old stand.

James Morrissey, an expressman, was fined $25.00 and costs, for wife-beating, by Judge Gordon Wednesday. He has appealed.

The Creighton will case, which has been on trial before Judge Fawcett for the past month was given to the jury at 5 o'clock last night.

Mayor Broatch did perfectly right in vetoing the "Corkew" ordinance. He believes that ordinances now existing are amply sufficient if properly enforced.

The Omaha Retailers Association are endeavoring to secure a reduction in the present insurance rates of the city, with a possibility that they will be successful.

There are said to be about 100 suits ready to be filed against ex-Clerk Moores to recover fees alleged to have been illegally charged while he was clerk of the district court.

Thomas D. Crane has now an elegant suite of rooms on the ninth floor of the New York Life building. Mr. Crane one of the foremost lawyers in the city and has always enjoyed a good practice.

The jury in the case of George Bruen vs. Lou Leeder have rendered a verdict for $50.00 damages. Bruen was injured through the careless driving of Leeder on Florence boulevard some time ago while riding his bicycle.

There will be a rousing meeting at Washington hall Saturday night, to organize a John L. Webster club. Nearly 375 men have signed the call. Only those who have their names on the roll will be taken in the first night.

The Independent Workmen of America gave a very enjoyable entertainment at Germania hall last Thursday evening, under the direction of Mr. Frank McCoy, who took the part of the "Busted Showman" in Bartley Campbell's play, "The Divorce." After the play the hall was cleared and dancing was indulged in by all who wished.

Mr. Alfred Burkland who had been a resident of Omaha for 20 years and who had been engaged in the tailoring business on Sixteenth street for a number of years, died at his home at Twenty-seventh and Pierce streets, March 28. He leaves a wife and thirteen children. The funeral occurred Wednesday from the residence, and the interment at Prospect Hill cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS.

Elaborate costumes, good music and thorough enjoyment, attended with perfect respectability, are among the principal features of the Arion ball of Saturday, April 11, at Creighton hall, and arrangements are rapidly being completed for what promises to be the masquerade event of the year. The promoters of the Arion are not connected with other events of like nature, and are devoting their energies to the complete success of the enterprise, which will be a fixture in Omaha amusements in years to come. Tickets are meeting with a ready sale and a large attendance is assured.

PROVED AN ANTI-A. P. A. TICKET.

The Kumpf Gang, Star and World Newspapers.

The Star and World, two anti-A. P. A. papers, are making broad assertions to the complete success of the enterprise, which will be a fixture in Omaha amusements in years to come. Tickets are meeting with a ready sale and a large attendance is assured.

The Star is a paper which advocates corporations for the same purpose an attorney would, and the World is a purely gang sheet. It sold out to the gang at the previous election and now comes out on the gang ticket again.

It is demonstrated by these papers that the Kumpf ticket is purely a gang measure to defeat any American who may appear on any ticket for election. The sole object in placing the Kumpf ticket in the field is to oust every man who has the slightest appearance of Americanism and to put the gang and Roman Catholics in office. The following assertions appeared in the World to support of the Kumpf gang anti-A. P. A. ticket:

"The Democrats can at least claim that their ticket was nominated in convention and not in a lodge-room."

"It is absolutely certain that if Henry C. Kumpf is elected mayor, his appointments will not be dictated by a secret committee of an oath-bound organization."

"The administration of a mayor depends to a great extent upon the character of his appointments. Mr. Kumpf will be free to select his own appointees, influenced by any secret cabal."

The Star, a paper which employs editors who close the doors in the faces of ladies of the W. A. P. A. who call at the office to ask that notices be printed, says:

"The contest in the present city campaign is not between Democrats and Republicans. It is between the advocates of business government on the one hand, and those who would use the city offices and the city money to strengthen a bigoted secret political organization on the other."

Using plain English, it means that the present campaign is not between Democrats and Republicans, but Rome and the gang against the Americans.

The ticket is called "Independent" by the Star and World, but it was named in the Democratic convention, which convention was run by such men as Shannon, O'Neill, Stonestreet, O'Flaherty, May, and other.

The Journal of Wednesday last gives an excellent record of the compilers of the Kumpf gang anti A. P. A. ticket, as follows:

"In order that the public may be fully informed as to who is responsible for the nomination of the mongrel ticket, a list of some of the delegates has been compiled and their names will be given here, together with some of the facts concerning their personal characteristics and associations. Most of the men named were there as delegates; others were there on proxies and still others were on the floor of the convention working with their friends for the nomination of Kumpf and others of the candidates.

The May gang was very much in evidence in the Second ward delegation, which voted solidly for Kumpf. Mike Moran, brother of Councilman John Moran, who is under indictment for ballot-box frauds; and William Buck, bartender in one of the May-Moran saloons, were delegates; George J. Pierce, one of the indicted Second ward election crooks, who is now a deputy under Sheriff John P. O'Neill, was also there working for Kumpf, although not a delegate. He was assisted by Frank King and Ed J. Harris, who have been bartenders for John May and John Moran for years.

"Even before the regularly elected Third ward delegates walked out of the convention and the delegates from that ward who were not elected, took their places, Sheriff John P. O'Neill, who has some of the men indicted for election frauds upon his pay-roll, was in the convention as one of the leaders of the Kumpf forces. He had a number of assistants who were repudiated at the Third ward primary. Among them was Frank F. Rozelle, who was city counselor under Mayor William S. Cowherd, and who aided materially by his legal opinions in keeping John May in the office of superintendent of streets at a time when the Board of Public Works was endeavoring to get rid of him and put William L. Sheppard into the office. Henry Crawford, better known as "Baby" Crawford, was another of Sheriff O'Neill's lieutenants from the Third ward. It is admitted by members of the gang that he occupied the office of city auditor for two years by reason of the frauds committed at the polls. The men who make this admission have said that his opponent, John G. Bishop, was elected by over 1,500 majority. Crawford is now a deputy under Henry M. Stonestreet, who is holding a stolen office—that of circuit clerk.

"County Surveyor Frank J. O'Flaherty, who had George J. Pierce in his employ for a time after Pierce's indictment, was the leader of the Kumpf contingent from the Fourth ward. He was ably assisted by his brother Ed O'Flaherty, who was sidewalk inspector when Kumpf was mayor.

"Conspicuous in the Fifth ward delegation as workers for Kumpf were ex-Councilman Dennis Bowes, who was indicted for hoodluming during the Cowherd administration; and Deputy Sheriff W. F. Cartwright, who was discharged from the city detective force.

The leader of the Kumpf forces in the Seventh ward was William C. Scarritt, who is a bondsman for some of the election manipulators. Mingling with the delegates from this ward and urging the nomination of Kumpf, was ex-Recorder of Voters Charles S. Owsley, who is under indictment for election crimes.

"Circuit Clerk Henry M. Stonestreet, who has taken care of a number of the election crooks by putting them upon his pay-roll, was the most active worker for Kumpf in the Eighth ward delegation, and when Kumpf was nominated he threw his coat into the air and shouted at the top of his voice. Jim Shannon and several others of his deputies were also in the convention working for Kumpf. In addition to giving employment to indicted election crooks, Stonestreet has gone upon their bonds and testified in their behalf at their trials. While upon the stand at Lexington he admitted that he contributed to the election crooks' defense fund. Frank G. Graham, who was city clerk under Cowherd; Arthur Chapman, who was at one time an assistant in Recorder Owsley's office; Frank P. Walsh, who has made speeches for every gang ticket nominated during the past five years, and others, were also in the Eighth ward delegation working for Kumpf.

"In the Ninth ward delegation Probate Judge J. E. Guinotte, who is holding an office to which he was not elected, was conspicuous as an advocate of the nomination of Kumpf. Some of the other Kumpf people from this ward who were there either as delegates or proxies for delegates, or as workers, John Johnson, well-known lottery and policy man; Joe Shannon, the chief boss of the ward, and his brothers, Frank, Jim and Charley; Caspar M. Welch, Joe Shannon's private detective, who was appointed sergeant-at-arms of the convention; Charles A. Millman, who was tried for poisoning an election judge, and whose trial ended by a disagreement of the jurors; Tom Davis, keeper of the notorious "Lucky Number" saloon, at 1711 Grand avenue.

"At the head of the Tenth ward delegation was ex-Mayor William S. Cowherd, who kept John May in the office of superintendent of streets. He was one of the most ardent advocates in the convention of the nomination of Kumpf. J. Ray Samuels, who was chief clerk in the office of superintendent of streets under John May, and who is now a deputy in the office of the county clerk—which latter office is held by Thomas T. Crittenden, Jr., and to which he was not elected, was another Kumpf boomer. Cowherd and Samuels were assisted by W. E. Hagan, a deputy in another stolen office, that of clerk of the criminal court.

Although Crittenden lives outside the city limits, he was in the convention working for Kumpf's nomination, and was assisted by his indicted deputies and other deputies in both the Kansas City and Independence offices."

What Relatives Of my Patients Have To Say. One of My Great Cures During The Month of October, 1895.

Read the following convincing testimonial from two prominent Omaha Citizens:

Judge Isaac S. Hascall and R. F. Williams have this to say: We consider Dr. C. Gee Wo. of 319 North 16th St., Omaha, Neb., one of the best physicians in the city for the following reasons: Four years ago our daughter became very nervous and at times sick and unable to control herself. We doctored with and consulted some of the leading physicians of this city, but she gradually grew worse, until on the 7th of October, 1895, she was attacked with spasms. She was unconscious and delirious for weeks following the attack, and at a consultation of physicians they agreed that she could not get well. We then employed Dr. C. Gee Wo., and the patient began to improve at once, and in a remarkably short time was up. She is feeling better than she has for a long time. She is improving every day and bids fair to get entirely well. R. F. WILLIAMS, Father. ISAAC S. HASCALL, a Dear Relative. 2105 S. 13th St.

EX-CONSTABLE S. B. CLARK, office 319 1/2 14th St., says: I can't say too much for Dr. C. G. Wo. My little boy and girl had diphtheria and other physicians said they could not recover. I then called on Dr. C. Gee Wo., and in less than 24 hours they were out of danger. He cured myself of Leaning and general debility, and my wife of inflammation of the bowels and female weakness, from which she had suffered many years. I can't thank him enough for what he has done in my family. S. B. CLARK AND WIFE.
