NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Ex-President Harrison will be mar ried Monday to Mrs. Dimmick. The Iowa senate defeated the liquor manufacturing bill Thursday. The Central Republican Club will hold its reguier meeting in Washington Hall next Thursday evening. Congressmen Hainer and Andrews showed they were consistent Thursday by opposing an appropriation for a Congregational institution.

Senator Thurston has gone east. He will stop over in Chicago and address League in the Auditorium.

AMUSEMENTS.

Thomas Keene, the great American tragedian, is coming to Boyd's for three presentations of classic and Shakesperean drama next Monday. His "Louis XL," "Richelieu," "Richard III," "Hamlet," "Othello" and "Shylock" have been accepted as equal to those of the great masters who are now dead, and to those of any living actor in this country. It has been declared by some one who has watched the public temper in regard to stage favorites that it is necessary for an actor to die before the world will give him his deserved place among the favorites of the stage. This did indeed seem true in the case of the elder Booth, of McCullough and of Lawrence Barrett, and in a less degree of Forrest and Edwin Booth. The foremost place among living exponents of tragedy, which critics delight to give Mr. Keene, makes it certain that when he no longer enchants in person the that of the most splendid of his profesbe, Monday, "Louis XI;" Tuesday, "Richelieu;" Wednesday, "Richard III." The sale of seats opened this morning.

That pleasing, screaming and novel the American Republican College cyclofarce-comedy, "The Bicycle Girl," with jolly Nellie McHenry as the star, will bubble up serenely at Boyd's Theater for three performances, on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 19, 20 and 21. Miss McHenry is well known to the theatre-goers of this city, and has been seen here in the past in her comedy success, "A Night at the Circus," but will make her appearance in a more laughable skit, "The Bicycle Girl." It is from the pen of Louis Harrison, and is described as his funniest effort. It has more plot than the conventional farce-comedy, and relates to blcycle life-a field of comedy broad not aware of the fact, because they for the introduction of the "new were kept out of print. That is one woman," funny business, original music, catchy things, pretty dances, fire-fighter. One company answered and specialties. Mr. Nat C. Goodwin, who is regarded as one of the foremost comedians of the day, will come to Boyd's Theatre for one night and one matinee on April 15. Howard Medicine Company.-Gentle-It is needless to dwell on the merits of Mr. Goodwin, as his fame for artistic strength of their manhood slowly slipcomedy is world-wide, and the mere There was a new club organized in announcement of his coming should be

At the mercy of an up-toin every village, town and city in the date wife, Mr. Robson finds himself in some ludicrous positions, to abstract himself from which forms the basis of one of the best comedies of to-day.

> The Woodward Theatre Company close its second engagement in this city at Boyd's Theatre Sunday night, after playing a week to crowded houses. The attendance Thursday evening was something really unexpected, as every seat, every box, the aisles, the chairs usually used by the orchestra were all filled, while hundreds stood up in the rear of the house until the curtain went down on the last act. The attraction was "East Lynn," and it was well rendered. Mr. Kirke made an excellent Levison, so good a one in fact that the audience forgot he but represented a character and hissed him when he was abusing the woman he had duped and when he was leading her astray. Mrs. Woodward, as Barbara, Mr. Long, as Archibald, and Miss Caroline Clore, as Lady Isabel, could not have been excelled. Many of those who have attended every performance and have grown accustomed to seeing Mr. Long assume the role of a villain and Mr. Kirke that of the hero, were agreeably surprised last night when those gentlemen exchanged places and rendered in a truly artistic manner characters so very different to what they usually delineate. This city has never seen a better villain on the stage than Mr. Long, and yet Mr. Kirke equalled him in a proper conception of such a character. It is not putting it too strong to say our people were exceedingly well pleased with the work of the Woodward Theatre Company, and will be pleased to welcome them at any future time. They go from here to Council Bluffs.

JUNIOR ORDER CROWDS.

Denver to be Flooded With an Army of Visitors.

Secretary L. A. Richards of the ex ecutive committee to arrange for the national convention of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, which will meet in this city during the summer, finds that he has undertaken no small job. He did not anticipate what the vulgar would term a "picnic" when he started in, but the work has grown to an extent which he did not think possible. Where the order expected a few hundred visitors thousands have been promised, and droves will come from sections of the country from which not one had been guaranteed by local members

When the executive committee meets during the coming week, it will find the work laid out for it growing beyond expectations. The committee will not be worried by having an immense banquet on its hands to which half of those who wish to attend cannot gain en-

Mr. Richards returned from Cripple Creek yesterday with the arrangements about complete for a visit to American public, his memory will be that camp and others in the neighborhood, in which the visitors will be shown more gold-bearing rock than they thought existed in this great silver state. The trip includes a drive about the many towns of the district and a trip to the place of the old Bull Hill fortress.

The committee is confronted with but one difficulty of any great proportion, and that is as to a hall of sufficient size. The Masonic Temple has been secured, and will be large enough for the deliberations of the body of delegates, but there is no hall where the friends of delegates and members of the order who attend can be accommodated. The auditorium would have settled this had it been built. While the officers of the local lodges furnished estimates early in the year of the number of visitors expected, they have given up now. From letters received they anticipate that the attendance will be second only to that of the

What C. A. Potter Says.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 31, 1895 .- The men: I desire to say to all who feel the ping away, whose ambition is at its lowest ebb, whose mind is beclouded, and the senses dulled, when you feel dyspeptic, and lose your 'self-respect, that your blood is out of order, and all you need is some of Howard's Vegetone Blood Powder to tone up your system. It will act almost instantly upon the blood; you will feel the crenewed life treasurer. A vice-president from each ward was also elected. It chose the first and third Thursdays of each month as its regular nights of meeting, and Washington hall as the place. A flambeau club will be added.

Mr. Stuart Robson, the quaintest of comedians, direct from his successful run at the N. Y. Garrick Theatre, will appear in his new and best comedy, "Mrs. Ponderbury's Past," at Boyd's Charles that all patriotic citizens get up petitions to the national the country with Mr. Joseph Jefferson at its head, supported by a combination of the most prominent stars of the and vigor coursing through your system; you will feel the denewed life and vigor coursing through your system; you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as active as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your mind will be as ever; your friends will observe the flag of health flying in your face, and you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; your will feel the old-time grip in your hands; you will feel the old-time grip in your hands; you will feel the old-time; you will feel them; you 17 and 18.

Not since the days of "The Henrichta" has Mr. Robson found a part so blood-purifier on earth.
