ORANGE PRINCIPLES.

On behalf of the Loval Orange Lodge of the United States of America, and with a view of correcting the faise impression that enemies are endeavoring to convey to the minds of men who are unacquainted with Orange principles, are these few statements nade

The Loyal Orange Institution is a brother hood and sisterhood, bound by three tiesustice, Truth and Righteousness. It has no hidden aims

It is Fraternal and Benevolent -- assisting and protecting members while living and their widows and orphans when they are renoved by death.

It upholds the right of private judgmentthe untrammelled freedom of opinion; be-lieves the public schools are an essential afeguard of the state, and should be kept free from ecclesiastical or sectarian control and that persons disloyal to the governmen -who hold a mental allegiance to the pope of Rome-should be rigorously excluded from seaching therein. It believes primary allegiance is due to the government which protects the lives, liberties and properties of its citizens, and that ecclesiastical authority should not under any circumstances, be permitted to meddle in the affairs of state, and that coercion of a citizen in the exercise of his or her right of franchise, under the guise of relig-ious or spiritual authority should be punished as a crime against the state.

That it is the duty of every citizen to defend the lawfully constituted authority and institutions of our country against corrupt and inimical influences, as well as against armed assailants, to the end that our glorious freedom be protected and transmitted unimpaired to posterity. It encourages habits of frugality and in dustry among its members, and is proud to boast that Orangemen seldom become : public charge or accept pauper bread.

It believes in the restriction of immigra tion." "d the extension of time for the naturaliza. on of citizens, and that the public and shall be held for actual American citisens who become settiers.

The Loyal Orange fustitution of th United States of America has certain requirements for membership:

That a man shall be an actual American citizen, having complied with the laws of the United States with regard to naturalization, and without a mental reservation. That the applicant shall be a Protestant. and also that his parents and wife shall be Protestants. That he shall be thrifty and successful in his business; honorable and truthful in his dealings with his fellowman, and shall be known as a law-abiding citizen. That he will endeavor to give his children or any children under his charge at least a good common school education, being care ful to avoid all popish doctrines, and That he shall be in sound health at the ime of making application.
