CITY AND STATE

Hon. J. H. MacColl was in the city Thursday.

Next Thursday night is the regular meeting of the John L. Webster Republican Club.

District court will adjourn earlier than usual this year—the date being about June 25th.

The attorneys for Henry Holla have filed a motion for a new trial in the embezzlement case.

Attorney Ralph Breckonridge has returned from Chicago, where he had been attending legal business the past week.

The many friends of W. S. Smith will be pleased to know that the park board has appointed him watchman at Riverview Park.

City Clerk Higby, received a dispatch from Peekskill, New York, Monday, announcing the death of his niece, Miss Birdie Smith, who was attending school at that place.

W. H. Russell made a business trip to Detroit and other eastern cities, returning Wednesday morning. He is of the opinion that real estate investment prospects for Omaha are equally as bright as those of Detroit or Chicago.

At the last meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club held at Patterson hall, Charles E. Winter was unanimously elected president. Applications for thirty new members were received and acted upon. The regular meetings of the club are held on the first and third Wednesday evenings of each month.

AMUSEMENTS.

M. B. Curtis, who is known as one of the most successful character comedians on the stage, will appear at Boyd's theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, the 24th, 25th and 26th insts., in "Sam'l of Posen," the comedy in which Mr. Curtis won his fame. He will be supported by an excellent company.

There are still some good attractions to be presented by the Boyd this season. There will be Ellen Beach Yaw, Eugene O'Rourke, John L. Sullivan and Paddy Ryan in "The Wicklaw Postman," Primrose & West's minstrels, Roland Reed, and "Creation," by the Swedish Oratorio Society. Besides these there are one or two others that have not been definitely arranged for yet, but which in all likelihood will come.

Miss Rhea will commence a three nights' engagement at Boyd's Theatre to-morrow (Sunday) evening, when she will give a magnificent revival of her grand Napoleonic drama, "Josephine, Empress of the French," which performance will be repeated on Monday night; while on Tuesday night she will close her Omaha engagement with her specially engaged company in her new historical play, "Nell Gwynne." Mr. Kester has given us in this play a historical study, containing most delightful touches of comedy and strong and picturesque scenes. The dialogue is brilliantly and the interest admirably sustained. Rhea in the title role is given ample opportunity to show her remarkable talent; and it is said that in this part she demonstrates that she is one of the most gifted women on the contemporary stage. The production of "Nell Gwynne" is a most remarkable one, and the entire costuming and all the accessories being of the time of Charles II., making it one of the richest and most sumptuous of the stage creations. Seats for the entire engagement are now on sale.

After Linton. Mr. Linton, member of congress from Michigan, whose opposition to the appropriation of money to Catholic Indian schools recently stopped that measure in congress, is now receiving letters from unknown persons threatening his life. Of course these letters are not written by any one but Romanists, as no motive could prompt them but that of resentment. In this is seen the murderous spirit of this incarnation of sin which, under the garb of Christianity, would repeat its cruelties and its persecutions in our free land, that it is wont to practice in the dark ages. Well did Lord Macaulay say that Jesuitism and the Roman hierarchy were the most cunning devices wrought by men. There is not a more intensely anti-Christian institution that has ever existed on earth, than the abomination of desolation, cleft the Roman hierarchy. It is a reeking mass of murderous cowardice, duplicity and vice. It seeks to enslave the soul, to crush manhood, to dominate intellect, to foster ignorance and to nourish crime. It is the apotheosis of satanic wickedness. It dangles its keys from its girdle at the same time that it mumbles over its beads and whets its swords. If the earth has a more intense form of human wickedness, we have not discovered it.—Texas Baptist Herald.

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants

In the district court of Douglas county, Nebraska, C. A. Kent, plaintiff vs. Michael Kanouse and others, defendants. To Michael Kanouse, Otto B. Langerson, and all unknown heirs of Margaret H. Kanouse, deceased, non-resident defendants, you are hereby notified that on the 15th day of April, 1896, C. A. Kent, plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the above entitled cause, in the district court of Douglas county, Nebraska, against you and each of you, together with other defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage executed on the 2nd day of April, 1892, by Margaret H. Kanouse (now deceased) and Michael Kanouse upon the property described as follows:

Lot eight (8) in block ten (10), Hitchcock's First addition to the city of Omaha, as surveyed, platted and recorded, all in Douglas county, Nebraska, to secure the payment of the mortgage bond signed by Margaret H. Kanouse and Michael Kanouse, with interest coupons attached, for the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800.00); that there is now due and payable on said bond the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800.00) with interest according to the tenor thereof, from the first day of April, 1893, for which sum, with interest from April 1, 1893, plaintiff prays for a decree that the defendants pay the same, and that in default of such payment said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due. The plaintiff is the legal owner and holder of said bond and mortgage. You are required to answer said petition on or before the first day of June, 1896. Dated at Omaha, Nebraska, April 24, 1896. C. A. KENT, Plaintiff. By H. E. Burnam and W. H. Russell, attorneys for plaintiff. Kent vs. Kanouse. Doc. 55; No. 285. 4-24-4

What Relatives Of my Patients Have To Say. One of My Great Cures During The Month of October, 1895.

Read the following convincing testimonial from two prominent Omaha Citizens:

Judge Isaac S. Hascall and R. F. Williams have this to say. We consider Dr. C. Gee Wo of 512 North 16th St., Omaha, Neb., one of the best physicians in the city for the following reasons: Four years ago our daughter became very nervous and at times sick and unable to control herself. We doctored with and consulted nine of the leading physicians of this city, but she gradually grew worse, until on the 7th of October, 1895, she was attacked with spasms. She was uncomely and delirious for weeks following the attack, and at a consultation of physicians they agreed that she could not get well. We then employed Dr. C. Gee Wo, and the patient began to improve at once, and in a remarkably short time was up. She is feeling better than she has for a long time. She is improving every day and bids fair to get entirely well. ISAAC S. HASCALL, a near Relative. R. F. WILLIAMS, Father, 210 S. 13th St.

EX-CONSTABLE S. B. CLARK, office 319 S. 14th St. says: I can't say too much for Dr. C. Gee Wo. My little boy and girl had diphtheria and other physicians said they could not recover. I then called in Dr. C. Gee Wo, and in less than 24 hours they were out of danger. He also cured myself of Lagripp and general debility, and my wife of inflammation of the bowels and female weakness, from which she had suffered many years. I can't thank him enough for what he has done in my family. S. B. CLARK and WIFE. Mrs. H. A. DUGAY, 1512 Clark St.--Heart trouble and nervous debility of many years standing.
