ORANGE PRINCIPLES.

On behalf of the Loyal Orange Lodge of the United States of America, and with a view of correcting the false impression that enemies are endeavoring to convey to the minds of men who are unacquainted with Orange principles, are these few statements

The Loyal Orange Institution is a brother hood and sisterhood, bound by three ties-Justice, Truth and Righteousness. It has no hidden aims

It is Fraternal and Benevolent-assisting and protecting members while living and their widows and orphans when they are removed by death.

It upholds the right of private judgmentthe untrammelled freedom of opinion; be-lieves the public schools are an essential safeguard of the state, and should be kept free from ecclesiastical or sectarian control and that persons disloyal to the government -who hold a mental allegiance to the pope of Rome should be rigorously excluded from seaching therein.

It believes primary allegiance is due to the government which protects the lives, liberties and properties of its citisens, and that ecclesiastical authority should not under any circumstances, be permitted to meddie in the affairs of state, and that coercion of acitisen in the exercise of his or her right of franchise, under the guise of religious or spiritual authority should be pundous or spiritual author ished as a crime against the state.

That it is the duty of every citizen to defend the lawfully constituted authority and institutions of our country against corrupt and inimical influences, as well as against armed assailants, to the end that our glorious freedom be protected and transmitted unimpaired to posterity.

It encourages habits of frugality and in dustry among its members, and is proud to boast that Orangemen seldom become s public charge or accept pauper bread. It believes in the restriction of immigration 3 "d the extension of time for the natur-and shall be held for actual American citiens who become settlers. The Loyal Orange Iustitution of the United States of America has certain requirements for membership:
