

CITY AND STATE

Judge Baker is attending the Democratic national convention in Chicago this week.

Mrs. A. E. Baldwin and children have gone to Galesburg, Ill., to spend the summer.

Attorney I. R. Andrews will leave Omaha on a vacation of several weeks next Sunday.

Senator Allen will be given a reception at the Creighton Theatre this (Friday) evening by the local Populist clubs.

Harry Plumb and wife started east Saturday on a visit to his old home in Ogdensburg, N. Y. He expects to return about August 15th.

Mrs. Dr. Garrison who has lived in South Omaha for a long time left Monday evening for Parisville, Ohio, where she will spend the summer.

Miss Edith Sharp, clerk an stenographer in Secretary Gillan's office, will spend her summer vacation visiting friends in Toledo, Ohio.

John Rudd has removed his jewelry store to 115 South Sixteenth street, where he will be pleased to meet all his old friends and customers.

Notwithstanding the adjournment of court there are an unusual number of new cases being filed which will come up for adjudication at the September term.

Annie Siebert asks to be divorced from Chas. Selbert on the ground of desertion. This couple was married in 1892. Thos. D. and Herbert S. Crane are her attorneys.

Congressman Mercer will return to Washington the early part of next week when he will resume his duties as secretary of the National Congressional Campaign Committee.

Marie Weber through her attorneys, Thomas D. and Herbert S. Crane, has applied to the district court for a divorce and alimony from Julius T. Weber, on the ground of extreme cruelty ever since their marriage.

Our friends who have been in the habit of visiting Dr. J. C. Howes at 978 North Twenty-Fourth street, will be glad to learn that his new number is 2218 North Twenty-Fourth street, and that at that place he would be pleased to meet them at any time.

The Council Bluffs Orangemen will hold an interesting meeting at P. O. S. of A. hall on the night of July 16th at which they have extended an invitation to all their Omaha brethren to be present and take part. There will be work in the Royal Arch degree.

Mr. W. E. Carman has commenced suit against the Harrison Granite Company, for $612.50 commissions due, and has attached $5,650.00 that was on deposit in the various banks of this city. Mr. Carman, it is understood, will also sue the company for damages.

Col. Luther Pollard, father of Mrs. John M. Thurston, died Wednesday morning from the effects of a severe cold contracted several weeks ago. Col. Pollard has been a citizen of Omaha a great many years and was universally honored and respected by our citizens. The funeral occurred Thursday afternoon from the residence of Senator John M. Thurston.

Congressman Strode of the First district was in the city Thursday. Mr. Strode is enthusiastic in his support of the Republican ticket although he is of the opinion that the national platform does not entirely meet the approval of the western states, but believes that when the people have thoroughly discussed the money question in all its phases there will be a sweeping reaction in its favor. Mr. Strode is all right on the side of Americanism.

Miss Georgie M. Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Park, was married on the 30th day of June, to Mr. D. R. Miller, a young businessman of South Omaha. The ceremony was performed at the residence 3221 Leavenworth street by the Rev. S. Wright Butler. The bride was dressed in white organdy and carried a handsome bouquet of sweet peas. Only the family and a few of the nearest and dearest friends of the happy pair were present. Among the number were noticed Mr. and Mrs. S. Wright Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Park, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. West, Mrs. A. E. Head, Miss Eloise Clark, Miss Clara Spetman, Miss Martha McH. Park, Mr. J. C. Moodie, Mr. C. M. Mayne, Master C. Graham West, Graham McH. Park, John D. R. Park, James B. Park of Omaha and Miss Martha Parker of Norfolk. Miss Georgie was a graduate of the High school class of '93, and had just passed her final examinations and received her certificate entitling her to teach in the kindergartens of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be at home to their friends at 2812 Hickory street after July 15th.

Congressman Talked About. "Which is Linton?" is a question answered oftener each day than any other one at the Capitol. Scarcely a stranger enters the gallery, but he wants the Michigan man pointed out, and the guide, or the next man on the seat is asked for the information. One of the very busiest men among busy men, he is always found in his seat or at his committee room, and usually the stranger goes away satisfied, for he has seen the great exponent of some of the principles of so-called patriotic orders.

He has seen a good looking man at that. Well built, of medium height, and with hair just beginning to turn gray, Hon. William S. Linton, looks every inch the sharp, shrewd, men he is. Serving only his second term in congress, he is one of the national figures. An unknown man in the Fifty-third congress, he was brought right to the front by an attack, during his absence, too, on his right to a seat. Mr. Linton had no opportunity to reply to this, but waited until the Indian appropriation bill came up, when he made a bitter attack on the use of public moneys for sectarian purposes. The speech attracted great attention. It was caustic in language and the reply of Mr. Wendock was of such a nature as to more widely advertise it. More copies of this speech of Mr. Linton have been distributed throughout this country than any made in congress for a generation. Millions of copies have gone out already, and there are still calls for it.

Mr. Linton, almost alone in the Fifty-third congress in his fight against the sectarian appropriation of money, has found himself leading a majority in the present house. The appropriation bills have gone to the senate containing provisions that no public money shall be used for a sectarian purpose. It was one of the most remarkable legislative victories for many a year. It was a victory of a principle, for it is the principle that Mr. Linton stands for. He is not opposed to any church, realizing that every man has a right to his own religious belief, and he would fight an appropriation for one church as quickly as another.

This signal success has pushed Mr. Linton forward. Each day, it is reported, his mail grows larger; it is now greater than that of any other member. It is said that the letters come from all directions and from all classes of people. Some of them are from admirers and some from enemies. Requests from his own district for attention to pension claims, the department clerks say, are many, while innumerable inquiries are made for seeds, documents, and for information relative to matters pertaining to Washington and government affairs. So they come from everywhere and everybody.

Mr. Linton has always been a Republican, he is still a Republican, and he is found voting consistently with his party. He loves the people of the Saginaw district and considers it his highest honor to serve them.

Mr. Linton has no war record. That is not his fault, as the Congressional Directory shows. He was only four years old when the war broke out. But he has made up for that misfortune by awaking the people to a great public abuse. But had he been old enough for war in the "sixties," the writer believes he would have commanded a corps. An old school friend says he was always at the head of all the organizations of boys in the school. As a mere boy he worked in the lumber yards. He has been a worker all his life, though he now owns an interest in a large manufacturing concern. The same school friend says that before Mr. Linton was well in his teens, he was president of a telegraph company, having a line a mile or two long, erected by half a dozen boys, and in all the clubs and social gatherings of his boyhood he was the leader. A worker himself, he knew how to treat workers, and in the great strike of 1885 his was one of the few mills on the Saginaw river where the laboring men found nothing to strike against.

Since coming to congress Mr. Linton has become much interested in the bill for the reorganization of the railway mail service. The measure has passed the senate twice, but has never been before the house for consideration. As a member of the committee on post-offices and post roads, Mr. Linton has taken the bill in hand, and is doing everything possible to promote its passage.

Mr. Linton has a most charming home on North Capitol street, and here he finds his only rest. His committee room—he is chairman of the committee on ventilation—is always crowded with visitors. He is one of the most generous men, and gives up his time to listen to any appeal that is made.—Washington Times.

Ice Cream Made by a New Process.

I have an ice cream freezer that will freeze cream instantly. The cream is put into the freezer and comes out instantly, smooth and perfectly frozen. This astonishes people, and a crowd will gather to see the freezer in operation and they will all want to try the cream. You can sell cream as fast as it can be made, and sell freezers to many of them who would not buy an old style freezer. It is really a curiosity, and you can sell from $5 to $8 worth of cream and six to twelve freezers every day. This makes a good profit these hard times and a pleasant employment. W. H. Baird & Co., 140 S. Highland Ave., Station A, Pittsburg, Pa., will send full particulars and information in regard to this new invention on application and will employ good salesmen on salary.

Milwaukee BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION -Of- AMERICA Milwaukee, Wisconsin, July 16-19, 1896

To the Baptists of Nebraska and Their Friends: I wish in this way to advise you that Chicago & Northwestern Railway has been selected as the OFFICIAL ROUTE for the delegates from Nebraska Baptist Young People's Unions, and their friends to the Sixth International Convention of the B. Y. P. U. of A., held at Milwaukee, July 16 to 19, 1896.

SPECIAL THROUGH CARS.—We will have for our use one or more special, clean, neat and comfortable cars, carrying Nebraska B. Y. P. U. Banners on their sides, direct to Milwaukee without change. Our Special will leave the Union Depot (10th and Marcy streets), Omaha, over the NORTHWESTERN LINE, at 4:45 p. m., July 15th, 1896.

ONE FARE FOR THE ROUND TRIP.—Tickets will be on sale at all points in Nebraska on the 14th, 15th and 16th of July at one fare for the round trip. These will be good returning until August 5th. The cost of ticket for the round trip from Omaha will be $14.75.

To get the cost of tickets from any town in Nebraska to Milwaukee and return, add to the above amount one fare to Omaha, from your nearest town on any of the roads hereinafter mentioned, which will give you the entire cost of railroad fare from your home to Milwaukee and return.

DETAILS.—Every person going from Nebraska will of course want to go with the regular delegation, which they are most cordially invited to do and thus share in all the special advantages and privileges secured by the regular delegates. It will be necessary for the people outside of Omaha to take train from their home early on the morning of the 15th of July that they may reach Omaha in time to catch the B. Y. P. U. Special, which always travels on time, and leaves the Union Depot promptly at 4:45 p. m. of that day. A fine program will be arranged to occupy all the spare moments we have on board the train from Omaha to Milwaukee. Song, praise and devotional exercises will be in charge of the brightest, most enthusiastic, and best leaders that Nebraska can produce.

HOBBY SOCIAL.—One of the main features of the train program will be the Second Annual "Hobby Social." The most social affair you ever attended will be this Hobby Social, in our special car, from 8:30 to 11:00 p. m., as we speed through the Iowa fields of dark green corn and golden grain. Remember the date, Wednesday, July 15th. You are cordially invited to be present.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING TICKETS.—The following named roads in Nebraska will sell tickets that will enable you to travel with the delegation from Omaha: The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley Railroad, the Sioux City & Pacific Railway, the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway, the Union Pacific and the Missouri Pacific Railway. Anyone who does not thoroughly understand any matters concerning the trip, should write at once to the undersigned, Transportation Leader, who will gladly furnish any information wanted.

THE TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE will be at the depot in Omaha to receive and direct all parties coming from points in Nebraska who wish to join the excursion. The committee will also travel with the regular delegation over the above named official route, and will look after the interests and comfort of all delegates and friends. Delegates and friends at Omaha purchase tickets at the City Ticket Office of the Northwestern Line, at 1401 Farnam Street.

BADGES.—Our delegates should all have a STATE BADGE before leaving home, thus making it possible for us to recognize each other on board train coming to and in Omaha. Write to Transportation Leader for badge at once. CHAS. E. MORGAN, Transportation Leader, 714 New York Life Building, Omaha, Neb.
