ONE HUNDRED MONKS MURDERED.

Appalling News to Hand From the Insurrection in the Philippine Islands.

MADRID, September 25.—A dispatch to the Imperial from Hong Kong says that steamers which have arrived there from Manila, the capital of the Philippine Islands, bring the announcement that Cavite is occupied by 15,000 insurgents. Over one hundred monks have been murdered on the island since the breaking out of the insurrection. Many victims have been fastened to trees, their clothing soaked with kerosene oil and ignited, and the victims burned to death. Rich natives are being arrested daily. Documents have been seized by the authorities in which are given the names of the president and various other officials of the proposed republic.

What Will the A. P. A. Do?

What will the A. P. A. do? is a constant inquiry of us. Except for the benefit of sympathizers and thousands of readers who are not A. P. As, who desire to vote only for true American candidates, we would have no occasion to reply to these multiplying inquiries, but for their benefit and our mutual good, we can say that we believe very few, if any, A. P. A. votes will be cast for any other presidential candidate than Wm. McKinley. And yet no paper, or other authority, can speak for any A. P. A. as to how he will vote. The order stands a guarantee to its members that they shall have a free ballot and a fair count, in every particular, except to knowingly favor Roman Catholicism, which is the world-wide recognized enemy of civil and religious liberty.

There is an unmistakable rallying line-up under McKinley for Americanism, in all that is meant by sustaining our existing conditions of government, and as definite a line-up under Bryan for all that oppose our present institutions, which will culminate alone in the claims and aims of Roman Catholicism.

This article is based upon information from the most reliable sources, and letters from the most impartial and non-partisan prominent men in the nation, and therefore its suggestions are worthy of your kind consideration.—Freedom's Banner.

Linton's Advice.

□ A few days ago I was in Chicago, and accidentally met Hon. W. S. Linton. I asked him to go with me to my room at the hotel. When we were seated there I told him of my doubts and perplexities, of my earnest desire to vote wisely and right—not as a partisan, but as one whose first wish is for the welfare of the country—and then I said: "Now, Mr. Linton, forgetting all partisan prejudice, forgetting that there are such things as parties, and remembering only that we are Americans who are striving to be worthy of that title, how do you advise me and the thousands of perplexed and puzzled members of our order to vote in the approaching election?" I give his reply in his own words: "Without party prejudice and in behalf of true Americanism, I earnestly advise and request all my friends and those asking for information to vote for Major McKinley."

Mr. Linton's words have weight with me, and I believe they will with many, who, like myself, have been perplexed, to come to a decision regarding their duty this fall. Mr. Linton has been tried, and always found true to our cause. He has never feared to speak the truth concerning our fees. He has never been guided by party policy and duty seemed to conflict. I have confidence in him, and when his testimony was added to that I had already received, I felt forced to abandon the position I had been occupying. I shall vote and work for Wm. McKinley.—A. O. Garrison, in Boston Citizen.

Freemasons and Devil-Worship.

The papal church papers of the United States are everywhere accusing the Freemasons of being "devil worshippers." Here is how one of these lies was called by one of their own papal bishops, in the Church Times, of Liverpool, England:

"The Right Rev. Dr. Northrop, bishop of Charleston, S. C., U. S. A., recently informed a correspondent of the Catholic Times that, in his opinion, there is no truth whatever in the sensational accounts about devil-worship in a magnificent Masonic Temple in Charleston. Bishop Northrop has lived fifty years in Charleston, is personally acquainted with all the leading Freemasons there, and has been in the Masonic Hall, which in no particular answers to the description published in numbers of newspapers. His lordship considers that Catholics, who are themselves the victims of so many calumnies, should be especially careful not to spread falsehood about others, and gave our correspondent, who is in Liverpool, permission to publish what he said. Mgr. Quigley, the vicar-general of the diocese, also expressed his complete disbelief of the stories about devil-worship, in so far as Charleston is concerned."

THE AMERICAN until election day for 10 cents. Cash with the order.

Four Orders.

There are four orders of Jesuits throughout the world. Of the first order are ecclesiastics, whose office it is to take care of things promoting religion. Of the second order are politicians, whose office it is, by any means, to shake, trouble, or reform the state of kingdoms and republics. Of the third order are seculars, whose province it is to intrude themselves into offices with kings and princes, to insinuate and intermix themselves in court business, bargains and sales, and to be busied in civil affairs. Of the fourth order are intelligencers of spies—men of inferior condition, who submit themselves to the services of great men, princes, barons, noblemen, citizens, to deceive and corrupt the minds of their masters.—From the Harleian Miscellany, volume 8, page 195, in the San Francisco public library, published in London in 1810.
