Nov. 11 .- This morning the white people made good their threats to take vengeance on the segre newspaper which published the editorial derogatory to white women At half past 7 o'clock, the regroes not having responded to the demand for the removal of the press of the Record, the negro newspaper, ex-Representative Waddell, the chairman of the white committee of twenty-five, repaired to the Light Infantry armory, where he was to meet the citizens by appointment. Eight o'clock was the last hour of grace for the negroes to reply and that hour passed without answer. The citizens then waited balf an hour for reinforcements. At half past 8 o'clock the procession. headed by ex-Representative Waddell and the committee of twenty-five, moved in the direction of the Record printing shop. All along the line of march the procession was joined by armed citizens, and when the negro quarter was reached the negroes could be seen a few blocks away running into their houses.

When the crowd arrived in front of the Record office, a two-story frame building, picket lines were thrown out across the streeets and squads of men posted in the neighborhood. Some one turned in a fire alarm and when the engines. responded the crowd elicered and discharged their weapons. The affair was soon over, however, and no one was burt. The publishing house was destroyed, but the neighboring property was saved. The colored editor, Manley, his brother and their associates have fled and could not be found by the citizens.

After destroying the printing house the marchers returned to the armory, where they had left a rapid-fire machine gun mounted in a wagon ready to be dispatched to the scene if a battle should occur.
