Mrs. Col. Richardson Saved by Mrs. Pinkham.

"You have saved my life, snatched me from the brink of the grave almost, and I wish to thank you. About eighteen months ago I was a total wreck, physically. I had been troubled with leucorrhoea for some time, but had given hardly any attention to the trouble.

"At last inflammation of the womb and ovaries resulted and then I suffered agonies, had to give up my profession (musician and piano player), was confined to my bed and life became a terrible cross. My husband summoned the best physicians, but their benefit was but temporary at best. I believe I should have contracted the morphia habit under their care, if my common sense had not intervened.

"One day my husband noticed the advertisement of your remedies and immediately bought me a full trial. Soon the pain in my ovaries was gone. I am now well, strong and robust, walk, ride a wheel, and feel like a girl in her teens. I would not be without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it is like water of life to me. I am very gratefully and sincerely your well-wisher, and I heartily recommend your remedies. I hope some poor creature may be helped to health by reading my story."

THE REAL "WINDOW IN THRUMS."

Here is a picture of the real "window in Thrums," from which Barrie saw all the human nature he tells of in his story. The proprietor of the ground on which the famous cottage stands has sold it to Alexander McPherson, coal merchant, Kirriemuir. The "window" of fiction was on the ground floor, while the window of reality, seen in the gable end of the house in the picture, is a small attic window.
