THE AMERICAN.

JESUS FROM A JEW'S STANDPOINT

We take the following report on (ccount of Jest, s. of August 7th, 1899.

Mr. Clement P. Rowlands, ren- ers of Jesus ?" dered, very effectively, several hymns.

A RETROSPECT.

training.

since passed, I distinctly recall became to me of profound in- the Jewish forms or to observe him as he sat at the head of the terest ; I read the story of his the Jewish rites or dietary laws. table, surrounded by Jewish life as told in the New Testa- A belief in God and in the teachlads between the ages of 7 and ment. I read the conception of ing that Jesus was the Son of 13, his long, flowing locks and Jesus as portrayed by some of God, made them eligible for white beard giving him the ap. the ablest modern Jewish and membership. pearance of one of the Biblical Christian scholars ; I carefully It is true that according to patriarchs.

him an ignoramus. All truth, Jew, died a Jew. I found that all knowledge worth knowing, he preached nothing but Judagreat Jewish Talmudists and of establishing a new belief, or commentators. To look else, even a new sect, was farthest seemed to him a waste of time was not to follow after the heaand energy and showed a lack thens, but to seek out the lost of appreciation for Jewish sheep of the house of Israel. thought and Jewish literature. I found that his mission in Joshua : "The words of this and to expose wickedness in Torah shall not cease from thy high places. mouth, and thou shalt meditate .I found that he gave his heart, Jewish lore.

subjected to the thumbscrew,

JESUS THE JEW.

characterized by breadth of view mind, and doubtless had their thens as well, who became be- observe his every injunction. applause. Mr. Weinstock said : fering had been placed upon the the rabbis."

were known to me. In time, lives, while the heathen converts

Though thirty odd years have the life of the man from Galilee were not called upon to practice studied his utterances as pre- the Gospel of St. Mark Jesus

I recall how innocent he was sented in the Gospels ; and the said : 'Go ye into all the world of all worldly knowledge, with picture of this great and won- and preach the Gospel to every what contempt he looked upon derful character grew to me to creature." And in the Gospel secular instruction, and how to be a very different one from that of St. Matthew we also find a him the sum of all human wis. painted by my venerable and similar utterance, wherein Jesus, dom was confined to the Torah pious, but uninformed Hebrew in speaking to his disciples, says and the Talmud. The greatest teacher. I found that, accord- "Go ye therefore and teach all living savant or philosopher, if ing to New Testament traditions, nations. unable to read Hebrew, was to Jesus was born a Jew, lived a CHRIST CAME TO FULFILL THE LAW. But it is also true that in His had, in his opinion, been uttered ism in its purest and simplest Sermon on the Mount, Jesus by the Hebrew prophets and the form. I found that the thought said : "Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets ; I am not come to dewhere for wisdom or knowledge from his mind ; that his aim stroy, but to fulfill. "For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be The Talmud explains the saying seemed to be to uplift the lowly fulfilled. "Whosoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach thereon day and night," and to his soul, and his very being to men so, he shall be called the my old and pious religious teach- the poor, to the sick and to the least in the kingdom of heaven er, this injunction left no room needy. He said : "I am pot but whosoever shall do and the Gentile world and in abolfor the study of anything but come to heal the sound ; I have teach them, the same shall be been sent unto the sick." called great in the kingdom of heaven," and later, in the Gos-THE MORAL CODE OF MOSES. pel of St. Matthew, he says : I found that he was a man of "I am not sent, but unto way, brought into the religious great moral courage; that he the lost sheep of the house of followers had so much faith in and their toeth drawn from their Jewish teachings, reduced to a the one injunction they must at the doors of Judaism. Not or of the humi, jaws ; their badies cast into foul clear and simple form, which certainly violate the otherso with Paul. His idea was to thus lift the heatly. dungeons-how, time and again, the most orthodox and pious Jew When it is remembered, how unite the whole human race shough of moral de they had been put on the rack, could not but accept as a part of ever, that eminent and devont under one belief. He soon re- pagan vice in which to

Why, then, was it that, as the Christian scholars have made it alized, however, how hopeless steeped, and fill their and burned at the stake, all, all, outcome of such ethical dewish plain that neither Jesus nor his the task, should be maist upon with the thought that, the utterances, the Jews should have disciples, excepting, perhaps the observance, on the, part of they might be alaves in the of Mr. Henry Weinstock's lecture I remember how aroused and been so mistreated by the fol- Luke, ever wrote any part of the the heathen, of the severe and flish, each had a soul beyond from the "Oakland Enquirer" impassioned he became while lowers of Jesus, and Jesus so Gospels themselves, and that the rigid ceremonialism of the Jews, the reach of earthly kings, a recounting the frightful suffer- much contemned by the Jews ? Gospels as we now find them, To Paul, the spirit was all in soul given by God, before whom Henry Weinstock, of the firm ings and calamities which had Then followed, on my part, a were not edited until about 150 all ; the form nothing. Not that the meanest among men stands of Weinstock & Lubin, of San been visited upon the Jews, for study of Christianity and the years after the time of Jesus, Paul I ved the letter of the law the equal of prince or potentate. Francisco and Sacramento, yes- all of which, in his opinion, Je- causes which led to Jewish per- and that, meanwhile they were less, but that he loved the spirit It was the love for the spiritnal terday afternoon delivered be- sus was primarily responsible. secutions. It took but little handed down orally from gener. of his religion more. He clearly welfare of humanity that gave fore perhaps the largest audi-"How, then," he concluded, reading to learn that Paul, the ation to generation, we can saw that the apostlos of Jesus. Paul the courage to defy the ence that ever gathered in the "can any self-respecting, loyal Grecian Jew, and not Jesus, was readily see how, in these oral by their unwillingness to let one authorities at Jerusalem, the assembly room of the Y. M. C. Jew take into his hand even a the real founder of Christianity; transmissions, contradictions jot or tittle pass from the law, disciples of his master, to defy A, building, his new celebrated book containing the name of that Paul was the man who con- could easily creap in. To de- would permit the spiritual wave even James, the brother of Jelecture upon "Jesus the Jew." Jesus" How can the name of ceived the idea of spreading Ju- termine, however, which of these to die out, which Jesus had cre- sus, and to go out into the hea-Mr. Weinstock was introduced Jesus be thought of without con- daism among the Gentiles by two opposite commandments Je. ated. Paul saw a magnificent then world at the risk of life by Noel A. Jacks, secretary of necting it in the mind of the preaching the God of Israel and sus expected to be observed, we opportunity to spread, among and limb and invite the hatred the Association, but prior to Jew with the centuries of inhu- the man Jesus, the Son of God. need but follow the course of the millions of heathen, the and persecution of those high that time the Association male man outrage and persecution I found it was Paul's heroic action adopted by his disciples, beau iful truths of Judaism, in authority, in order to preach choir, under the direction of visited upon him by the follow- qualities which enabled him, who, during his ministrations, But he realized that this could what he believed to be the truth. despite the severest persecution were at his side day and night, be done only by ignoring the Thus, from the very beginby Jew and Gent le, to surround breathed in his every word and letter of the Jewish law and by ning, do we find that much For many years these utter, himself with a large following, thought, and faithfully and ear. preaching its spirit. He said ; which was done by Paul and Mr. Weinstock's address was ances and teachings clung to my not of Jews alone, but of hea- nestly endeavored to religiously "If the uncircumcision keeps others, in the name of Jesus, and held the large audience in thize with the feelings and sen- ed as the Son of God sent upon that they were to devote them. in the spirit and not in the responsible. rapt attention for nearly three- timents of my people, and, in earth to save the human family. selves to the lost sheep of Israel letter." quarters of an hour. At the common with my orthodox "Hence begetting the new the- and not to the Gentiles. They conclusion of the discourse his teacher, feel within my heart ology irreconcilable with the faithfully worshipped in the hearers burst forth in prolonged and soul that the badge of suf- doctrines and the discipline of synagogue and observed all the Mosaic laws and ceremonies in Jew by the words and acts of History tells how the follow- accordance with the injunctions Looking back into my early Jesus. All this I felt before I ers of Paul were known as Jew- of their master, and made no boyhood days, the picture is had had an opportunity to read ish Christians, and how the effort to convert the heathen. vividly brought to my mind of and to think for myself, before Jews among them continued to They insisted that the heathen the old rabbi under whose in. the words and the deeds and the observe all the Jewish forms and must first become a Jew before struction I received my religious sentiments of the Nazarene ceremonies, and to lead Jewish he could become a Christian,

> In accordance with the exhortations of the master, James, the brother of Jesus, and the other disciples, were so insistent on the rigid observance of the Mosaic law, that Peter, one of their number, who had permitted himself to dine with the Roman centurion Cornelius, was severely taken to task for eating forbidden fruit, thus violating the Mosaic dietary laws. Peter silenced the disciples by professing to have eaten with the heathen only in response to a positive vission from God.

THE PREACHING OF PAUL.

the righteousness of the law, was done of their own volition, and catholicity of spirit. He influence in warping my lievers in the Jewish God and Their conduct after his death shall not the uncircumcision be against the manifest spirit and spoke with the ease and grace of thoughts and coloring my opin- worshipers of the Jewish car- would make plain that he had counted for circumcision? Cir- teachings of Jesus, and for one used to public utterance, ions. "I could not but sympa- penter Jesus, whom they accept- filled them with the thought cumcision is that of the heart, which he should not be held

TO BE CONTINUED.

Paul was willing to let form "FIFTY YEARS IN THE CHURCH OF POME," by Rev. Chas Chiniquy; cloth, $2.00. Fifty Years in the Church of Rome, (cloth) by Rev. Charles essential, if he could but implant

The Priest, the Woman and the ship of an all-wise, an all-know-Confermional, (cloth) by Rev. ing, unseeable God who is Fath-Charles Chiniquy $1.00 go, to let circumcision go, to let ceremony go, to let everything go that he looked upon as non-into the Gentile heart the wor-

CAMANTHA

THE PASSING OF A PERJUDICE.

I recall, upon one occasion how one of the pupils, in some unbounded sympathies and of school a book containing the was simply striving to practice Israel. name of Jesus. I remember, and to preach the great moral when this was made known by code established by Moses and some other lad who had noticed the prophets, and to literally rabbi spoke, and how he regard- the great law-giver's precept of ed the act as most sacrilegious "love thy neighbor as thyself." and deserving of the severest censure. I further remember ed chiefly in preaching : how he delivered an impassioned discourse to his pupils upon the centuries of suffering to which the Jews had been subjected because of Jesus. How the Jews had been made outcasts and wanderers over the face of the earth. How, for hundreds of years, they had been and plundered ; how their beards 'sake."

"Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of ers, through their own convicit, with what indignation the put into practice in his daily life but go rather to the lost sheep accord and knock for admission caratteer variables of Israel."

> To the reader of the Gospel I found his teachings consistthese contradictions may be difficult to understand. It may > not seem clear how the state-"Blessed are the poor in spirit. ment of Jesus, that his disciples "Blessed are they that mourn. shall go into all the world and "Blessed are the meek.

preach the Gospel to every crea-"Blessed are they that hunger ture, can be reconciled with his and thirst after righteousness. opposite statement, wherein he "Blessed are the merciful.

"Blessed are the pure in heart. says : "Go not unto the way of "Blessed are the peacemakers, the Gentiles, and into any city "Blessed are they which are of the Samaritans enter ye not, robbed and pillaged, tortured persecuted for righteousness but go rather to the lost sheep of Israel."

Despite the fact that Jesus observed all the Jewish forms and ceremonies, and despite the faithful observance on the part of his disciples of the command not to go into the way of the Gentiles, Paul,-who had never seen Jesus, and who did not become a convert until three years after his death,-in his enthusiasm to proselyte and to spread the belief in the Jewish God and the Jewish teachings, did not hesitate to assume the right to > abrogate and to modify many of the Jewish forms, rights and ceremonies. By so doing, it cannot but be self-evident that Paul, in going out to convert ishing the Mosaic laws, acted contrary to the spirit and to the commands of Jesus.

Judaism never went out to proselyte among strangers. Its the truth which it taught, that they patiently waited for strangthe Samaritans enter ye not, tions, to come of their own uertha ná lineatogn'' des hey farmus knoks. " Sam furm of itemantia and Juciab Allen upon a visit to Saraas to Lake George, Mount Metergor and other AT SARATOGA Is they to closed for some case one course that occurred eville, the home of the Allene. It is brimtall of witty reenths, Anoll philosophy and fudicious descriptions, written in r's test cein, and will be onjoyed by every locar of the " Ardesta Tut Heans of the chapters are The Chevity of the Innews Stame " Taben Long Walts Joslah's Vietations," " Miss C. Washington · in it have been an Varman & work?" A Drive to Carateen " Lake Centyr and Mount Materiant," " At a Lown Party. " An Arcident with Results." The Roetal Relative Marting/ Many Downshill of the solution of this is seen sold at $2.50 each. The solition that we offer contains all the winh Allen's Wife text of the original, and it is published in a fundamor tomo, will nus of 874 pages, well prioted from large type on good paper, em-efficient with 66 humorous illustrations by Opper, many of them full page, and heavitifully bound in alth-finished cloth, alamped in black and gold. It is a hundsome book, well worth a place in any liberary, and our liberal offer places We will send "Samantha at Faratega" by mail post-paid upon receipt of Fifty Conts.

杨玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉玉

Kay's L

he was almost entirely relieved of her cough and she also found made her sleep better. We find your remedies work like a charm.

If druggiets do not have them take no substitute for they had been torn from their roots, I found that these were all If the disciples were to follow