A VOICE FROM THE CHURCH OF ROME

We came from the sade of our bretains. backing shalter and rest, and a house For this, you will know, was denied us. Fix the land shadowed a'er by the throne. An administrate non gave so when funder. like a gaunt welf, annihad to at the dear-You gave bread to our wives and our children. And we came here to ask you for more

We have asked and you did not done us A abulter, while we, to repay Your kindness, built up our twigion. To undersolve yours, day by day. Our pape, and our cardinals, and bishops. laytons, and pricets, every one,

Have told us there's no true religion Save that of the Virgin and Son. Now we asked, and in places 'two granted.

To exped from our free public schools The little, for surely its teachings Made berettes, sinners and fools. And we think it our due that the orders, oth secret and sectal, and all. Should be sank in the sea of oblivion, Not rise at the trumpet's last call.

We would seek to root out disbelievers.

We would torture, and lairn, and destroy, As in days of the old inquisition. We'd have no one around to annoy We would have down your places of worship We would rule and pillage each home. Where an immate dure breath in rebellion Galast the church that was founded in

Then we'd ask you, and surely 'tis little-Our wishes are modest. I hope-That you'll let the great seat of this nation. Be occupied soon by the pope. He is wise, far beyond your conception; The our gain may perhaps be your loss; He is filled with the spirit and wisdom Of the Savior who died on the cross.

And he'll govern this country and people. At least, that's a part of his plan. For he fears that he soon must be moving Away from the great vatican. And he fancies the capitol building. With its arches, and pillars, and do Can, with little expense, be remodeled, To make him a comfortable home.

Then we'd ask that the shamrocks of Ireland Might be trained with the greatest of care. On the grave of America's eagle You'll agree with me, this is but fair. And your great flag, the bright starry emblem worship today with such zest,

Well replace with another, which shall be What ever our great pope thinks best. Now these are a few modest wishes, Which we trust that you will not deny.

For should you not willingly grant them. We'll take them by force, bye and bye. We do not intend to be thwarted. In the plans we have laid with such care; And to those who might wish to oppose us, We would say just this one word, "Beware! -A. H. RICHARDS.

CONVENT OF THE SACRED HEART

WRITTEN BY HUDSON TUTTLE FOR THE PRO GRESSIVE THINKER.

CHAPTER IV .- CONTINUED.

"You are surprised at my asking your attention, and I will tell you why. I have a mother's care over those under my charge; I have vowed to the blessed Mary and the Holy Jesus that I will do all I can for them: I noticed the atten-1 you gave the words of the bishop. What a wonderful discourse! What a child go among wolves." noble man he is! He is one with the Jesus himself, to whom they devote trayed and butchered! I have the hetheir lives."

"It had a strange effect on me," replied Zelds. "I am lost in doubt, and, promptings of your evil nature, of Satan. Put them behind you. Your true course is to give yourself to Jesus; that is, to the true and right."

But this I cannot do. What would my father say were I to become a

"Your immortal soul is of more con-Your heavenly father is more worthy of obedience than your earthly. Besides, if your father could have this presented in the right way, he would, without

There was a low rap at the door; it was pushed open and a priest entered. "You are just in time Holy Father," poor child, a lost lamb of the fold." priest, kindly. "The blessed mother waters of life."

all sins, and restore thee to thy re- present safety." deemer as the bride of Jesus." Saying which he sprinkled Zeida with a copious intentions, or could offer a word of protestation, he made the sign of the cross on her forehead. "You are now a member of our holy mother church. I abjure you to reouter darkness, beyond hope of reprieve or redemption." Saying which he passed out, and Zelda found tongue

I a member of your church?"

"Irrevocably, for it is a proverb, once a Catholic always a Catholic. That is, us." the member can never escape the control of the holy father."

"But I did not intend to join. I might have concluded to have done so, but I was in doubt."

"And you should return thanks that your doubts were so easily disposed of; e matter is settled for you, and now you have only to go on in the good ourse so well begun.'

"My father! What will he say? His daughter foreaking the instructions he gave her, and recreant to the trust re-bricards for His sale. Many are the so. dear saints who have described luxurious ? homes, for the rode life of beggary, and by softering and humiliation of the The Sacrod Hourt. flesh, become stars in the Savigur's grown. Your father will see the error ance. Perhaps you will be the means; of his salvation. You should write him and ask him if he greatly cares." "I will do so at once."

"Sit down at my deak, my daughter, for now I may truly call you such; write your father, and I will at once CHAPTER V. with chilly ocean wind, and a fire was mine?" agreeable. He had had an unusually time and attention. "Let us see," said ance." he, musingly, "in a month more Zelda "Yes, the deargirl," said Mrs. Joslyn ters, and however much she may be in- persuaded. Oh! we did know." terested, I will send her to the states, detested."

all," responded Mrs. Joslyn, "for she sion of the lips. has been farther away in reality than she would have been on the other side life," he answered. "I could bear anyof the Rockles."

announced.

turned from the father to the heavily-

"That work of yours, Mr. Kensett, is a masterpiece, and gives you the freewithout her had I not had this picture. forget this alliance." Just like the darling girl-almost speaks. I sometimes think I see her smile!"

visitor.

otherwise. But somehow, her letters of for her tomorrow!" (To be Continued.) late are queer. There is a loosening, a yielding. I tell you, Kensett, I don't like it. I believe I have let my gree List of

"So I fear! I was brought up with a v they were dastardly bereditary hate of that massacre in my veins."

oh! Mother Superior, what shall I do?" lyn.
"And last night I had a dream," con-

for some one to roll it off;"

visitor.

The servant brought a letter and presented to him. He looked at the address, when we all want to hear from her. The blessed girl; she always thinks of

With hasty hand he tore open the en-clope and read aloud:

DEAR FATHER AND MOTHER: great event has come to me; whether fortunate or unfortunate depends on how you regard it. I was strangely af-fected by the sermon of the bishop today. I think I am growing morbidly sensi-tive. I do not know what is the matter with me. I was, as I said. greatly af-fected, and the superior, after dinner, called me to her room. While there, a priest entered, and sprinkling me with holy water, told me I was a member of the Catholic church. I do not regret being a Catholic, for they are all excellent people, and the novices live pure,

"Disobodience to an ungedly parent ascert lives. I hope you will not think do not like our public schools, clas they is commondable. The excelled one said that I have changed, or blame me for not committing you. I had no time to not be one they not committen and your acceptable on the your acceptable. Many are the

He read to the end without appearing to comprehend the words, which of his ways, and is brought to repent amote like flame the cars of his listenors. He held it out in his hand, and groped with the other, as though seeking support. He staggered to a chair, and sank heavily down. Then he gazed up wildly to his wife, and said in a dry and grating voice:

"What does it mean? Is this from send it to him by a trusty messenger." Zolda? Does Zelda write this? Has she trampled under foot the implicit confi-Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn sat late in the af- dence I reposed in her? Oh! I thought terneon in easy chairs on opposite sides her strong and true! She writes like an Remish church wishes its children caluof the grate. The atmosphere was raw billot. She can be no daughter of cated in Romish parochial schools,

"I pray you, Mr. Joslyn," interposed hard week's work. Since Zelda had been | Kensett, "do not blame your daughter. away, he attempted to forget her She has been subjected to influences absence in the routine of business, and which a child like her could not resist. had enlarged so as to occupy his entire You have overestimated her endur-comes home. Only a month, and I shall through her toars; "we ought to have nothing new or strange in it. It seems not allow her to return. I think I see a known; we did know. We did not wish marked change in her mind, by her let- to appear prejudiced, and were over-

Mr. Joslyn turned to Kensett, whose to a liberal college, I'll not patronize an strength of will was shown by the maninstitution I detest, and always have ner in which he received the news, for there was no perceptible change ex-"I regret that we allowed her to go at copt a gleam in his eyes and a compres-

"This is the bitterest hour of my thing better than this. I would that The bell rang, and Mr. Kensett was every dollar I possessed were gone, and I could go out to the placers and wash After the salutation he said: "I beg gold, even in this old age-wash gold to your pardon, Mr. Joslyn, for this intru- give my little daughter bread. A crust sion, and I should not have ventured but for myself, but she should have the interest in your daughter's welfare heart of the loaf! Oh, anything! I'll prompted." As he spoke his eyes sell myself for a slave, to work at the most menial toil until these withered framed portrait of Zelda which hung on hands fall lifeless, if it only gives her happiness. What shall I do?" he asked. turning helplessly to Kensett.

"Do! why man, the case is not hopedom of this house. You should have less. Go this night and demand your made use of the privilege before. I do daughter. Bring her home at once, and not know how I should have managed under your superior influence she will

> "The messenger awaits an answer," interrupted the servant.

"An answerl Then I will write, in-"I came to inquire of her," said the stead of going tonight. The morning will be as well. I dare not trust myself "She's all right-all right. A girl tonight. Tomorrow I will write to editors into such a chorus of lamentalike her, with my training, could not be have Zelda come home, and I will go

THE FIGHT IN CLEVELAND.

Master. Can you wonder that we wor- prejudice against the Catholic church. temporaries are disturbed over the sud- and the other the bulk of the Protship our priests? They are different I am of the Huguenot stock. You refrom other men. They are part of member how they were dastardly bethis city called the American Protecto use its power, in a large measure, to tive association, strongly resembling, recompense Roman Catholics for their we are told, the old Know-nothing influence, and to appoint them to teach When order which flourished something like in schools which they have been taught a third of a century ago. The demo- to abhor as unfit places for their own cratic press vouches for the assertion education. The second would be comthat it is "a dark lantern skull aggre- pelled, from the very nature of its tinued Kensett. "It was a frightful gation" organized to "stir up strife." dream about your daughter. I was to pit "one class of citizens against standing by a river. Just above the another." The senior local organ of who love and cherish our public school point where it rolled down a wild rapids, the democracy says the aim of this new system, and who believe that the perwhirled into waves by the rocks and order is "to keep from participation in petuity of our free institutions depends lashed into white foam—as I stood there all governmental matters Catholics, I heard some one call my name far up members of all sects differing in religion series of a broad and deep spirit of the river. The voice I knew well as that from orthodox protestantism, and all American patriotism. Between these sequence than your father's frown. of your daughter. My heart stood still foreign-born citizens." Possibly our when a small boat came in sight, bear- contemporary thinks he knows whereof choose on Monday next, and we think ing her swiftly onward. I saw she had he speaks, but we fear he is groping in we can predict what their choice will one broken oar in her hand, but was traditional democratic darkness. In a be.-Cleveland Leader, allowing the boat to take its own course. communication in yesterday's Leader a doubt, see the same as you. Your con. I shouted to her to use the oar in turn- citizen stated that the order in question version may be the means, by God's ing the boat toward me, and clasping a admitted Jews and foreign-born citizens grace, of saving your whole family from point of rock with one hand I stepped of all nationalities. A well-known as far into the water as I dared, and Irish-born Clevelander called at this made ready to grasp the prow of the office yesterday to inform us that he tions of this country-should have no boat when it reached me. Fortunately was a member of the "dark lantern, an eddy assisted and turned the boat so skull aggregation," and that its objects exclaimed the superior. "Here is a that I caught the prow, and for a mo- were to promote "a stronger American ment stayed its career. As I did so, sentiment," chiefly by keeping the pub-"Jesus is the Master," replied the Zelda leaped on the rock, and the boat, lie schools in the hands of the true escaping my grasp, was caught by the friends of common school education. intercedes for such. Here, I have the current and disappeared. I awoke in The members of the order will not vote, agony of fear, and have been so haunted he said, for any man for the school coun-He held a bowl in his hands, "and all the day that I have come that I cil who belongs to a political or religiwith it I have the power to wash away might hear directly from her as to her ous organization which is opposed to the American common school system. In "A singular dream, which I hope short, the members of the new society may have come from indigestion. I've in this city are making the same fight shower, and before she was aware of his had awful dreams from that. Dreamed that was waged by the people of Boston of having the trunk of a big redwood to rescue their schools from Romish rolled on me, and awoke up shouting control. In that city the Romanists had grown so arrogant and confident of Mr. Joslyn made believe this was a their power to shape American constigood joke, but his laugh was a failure, tutions that they dictated the choice of main steadfast, else you will be cast into and found no second with his wife or text books and expelled teachers for having taught the truths of history as set forth in standard writings. Had not the intelligent, public-spirited citizens and exclaimed with delight: "A letter of Boston combined against the growing to ask:
"Mother Superior, is this true? Am from Zelda, just in the nick of time, abuses the usefulness of their free schools would have been destroyed. There is nothing remarkable in an American citizens' movement against the aggressions of Romanism. General

> Nothing whatever is to be gained by attempting to disguise the fact that the chief object of the organization which is giving our contemporaries so much annoyance is to prevent Roman Catholies from obtaining control of our States .- Looking Glass.

I fully intended to have written would not denounce them from vatioan and polpit, through press and pass-With my loving regards, affections philet. Roman Catholic private unbounts. itatingly amort that it is difficult to hold their children strictly to the faith when they are educated in the public schools. The association with the American-born Protostant boy, and the daily course of studies seem to relegate Catholic teachings and procepts to a subordinate place in the minds of Catholie children. In other words the light of modern teath and the power of mediern thought, as taught in free America, conflict with and undermine the teachings of papal supremacy as expounded from Rome. Therefore the which it has the absolute right to do under our free institutions. On the other hand any body of American citireus, native or foreign born, have an undisputed right to band themselves together in societies to protect our common schools from the sect which opposes them. This movement has zens, native or foreign born, have an opposes them. This movement has Salme nothing new or strange in it. It seems rather to be quite a natural result of Lina beans, can the abuses that have of late character-wax beaus, can punchis, can ized our school government in this Pumpkins, cau Peas, can city. A little clique of democrats, in 5 bars R B soap order to placate the Roman Catholic vote, have given places as teachers to Catholics living outside the city when there were scores of capable Protestant seen the inside of a public school building, have been appointed teachers, while scores of girls educated in our public schools were rejected. They were appointed by democrats because not less than 98 per cent. of the Roman Catholic church votes the democratic ticket. The democratic papers of Cleveland know this, and therefore they have brought this subject into this campaign, and are heaping denunciation and abuse upon a body of men, who, so far as we can learn, have no object in view except to protect the rights of the graduates of our public schools to positions as teachers in the same schools where they have passed most of their days, and around which cluster all the most cheerful associations of their lives. Really the Leader cannot see anything in this society which ought to drive the democratic difference between the two princer in promptly delivered; weighing on city scales, if so desired.

tion and woe. Public officials must, from the very nature of our politics, show some favor to the party that elects them. The only THE FIGHT IN CLEVELAND.

this respect is that one contains practice. Some Agent for Coal weighing on city scales, if so desired.

Some Agent for Little Ton Coal. Our esteemed democratic local con- tically all the Roman Catholic voters. membership, to appoint teachers who had been educated in our public schools. upon making our public schools the nurtwo parties the voters of Cleveland will

The friends of the public schools and good government decided by their little ballots on Monday, that all men owing allegiance to Rome, who are the enemies of good government and the instituvoice in the management of affairs.-Patriotic American.

"EXETER EYE" OPENERS.

America for Americans; and every resident of the proper age and education should be a full fledged American citizen.

There is no room in America but for Americans. One country; one flag; one undivided American nation. No rights reserved: no foreign potentates acknowledged, but all thoroughly ignored.

The campaign is now over in South Omaha and the Ed. Johnston gang was left, thanks to the South Omaha Tribune tirad. It was one of the foulest campaigns ever waged in any civilized community.

It should be remembered that denominational schools can never supplant the public schools in America. Our government is not one of church and never can be. If you love liberty help to improve and perpetuate the public school.

Some strong testimony as to the need of further restriction on immigration Grant said that the next great struggle crept into press dispatches a few days in the United States would be on this ago. It was in the form of a telegram question. Possibly we are now in the telling about two confessed murderers midst of the first stages of that struggle. from Italy, who were prevented from landing at New York, and will be sent back to their native shore. Nineteen other ex-convicts were admitted, however, and hereafter will be numbered among the criminal classes of the United

> Fine watch repairing, John Rudd, 305 north Sixteenth street

C. G. AHLQUIST.

NAILS ETC. ETC.

Guttering, Spouting and Roofing a Specialty. 1302 Saunders Street or North 24th Street.

We'll take back any sack of flour bought at our store which does not give satisfaction in every particular. This guarantee plan, together with the fact that we sell flour for less money than any other dealer dare, has built up for us, the biggest business in this line in Omaha. We make a specialty of Omaha made flour (which is the equal of any on earth, no matter where manufactured) and carry all the different brands. Flour from S0c a sack up.

De 3-ib sack sait 4 c Lye, can 10 c Hest valencia rusins, pou 15 c Hest muscatel rusins, por Evaporated peaches, pound
Evaporated currants, pound,
Evaporated apricots, pound,
Evaporated apricots, pound,
German coffee, package
Jamava coff- pound
Our "Private growth" Java, best on Scour son Compressed yeast, Glenwood tomatoes, can

The Peoples Peerless Purveyors.

W. R. BENNETT CO. 1508 TO 1514 CAPITOL AVE.

girls in the city, waiting for positions. THE B. H. OSTERHOUDT SPRING WAGON MANUFACTURING COMPANY

No. of Size of Lgth of Wdth of Capa-Price Wagon, Axle. Body, Body, inch. city, Price 2 1% 7 ft. 6 in. 40 1000 100 125 ALL WORK WARRANTED.

St. 14 8 ft. 6 in. 40 to 44 2000 140 1500 125 ALL WORK WARRANTED. 5 115 8 ft. 6 in. 40 to 44 2000 140 Above prices are net. Where brake is not wanted, deduct $6.00 on Nos. 2 and 3 and $7.00 on Nos. 4 and 5.

1801-1803 Cass St., OMAHA, NEB. Telephone 1657.

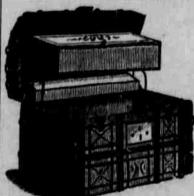

OFFICE:—S. W. Cor. 16th and Howard streets. Tel. 1664 YARD:—20th street and Poppleton avenue. Tel. 1222 DEALER IN Rock Springs, Ohio, Walnut Block, Hard Coal, Wood Kindling and Coke.

EXPRESS

you desire to change your place of residence and want your furniture moved without being broken or scratched, look for my wagons 77, AND 207. BERS and you won't think two moves equal to a fire. I. GARD. Fourteenth and Douglas Street.

C. H. FORBY. MANUFACTURER OF

AND TRAVELING BAGS.

REPAIRING DONE.

1406 Douglas St., OMAHA, NEB.

DON'T HAWK AND GAG and make yourself a nulsance, but use

RHINOLIN. Valuable for CATARRH, COLD IN HEAD and INFLAMED NOSTRILS.

ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS.

RHINOLIN CHEMICAL CO., THE ALOE PENFOLD CO., General Agents, 114 South 15th Street. OMAHA, NEB.

PRICE 75c Powder and Blower.

OMAHA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

ROHRBOUGH BROS., Proprs.,

Cor. 16th and Douglas Sts. Occupies new and elegant quarters. Has the largest atteneance in its history All departments constantly in operation. All business and normal branches taught including Short Hand and Type Writing. In session all the year. Students enter any time. Work for board guaranteed. Normal branches a specially from April 1st to September 1st. Actual business Department the finest in the state and always running. If you attend a college attend the best. An elegant new catalogue sent to any address and a beautiful specimen of penmanship. Send fifty names of school teachers and get the "Modern Educator" ons year free. Send 30c in stamps and egt one-quarter gross of our college pene, the best made. Address ROHRBAUGH BROS., OMAHA, NEB.