

ITALY PLACATED.

Indemnity Paid and Diplomatic Relations Re-established.

IMPERIAL'S GRACIOUS NOTE.

The Senate Passes the Bill Extending Free Mail Delivery to Towns of Five Thousand Population—Mrs. Harrison's Condition—Farm Animals Statistics.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The sum of $125,000 was paid to the Italian government through the Marquis Imperiali, accompanied by a note from Secretary Blaine. The money was taken from the fund which is usually appropriated for the state department to be used in emergencies and for extraordinary purposes.

WASHINGTON, April 15, 1892. To His Excellency James G. Blaine, Secretary of State:

Mr. SECRETARY OF STATE—You were pleased to inform me by your note of today that the federal government had decided to pay to Italy, by way of indemnity, the sum of 125,000 francs, to be distributed by the Italian government among the families of the royal subjects who were victims of the massacre which took place March 14, 1891, in the city of New Orleans.

The king's government does not hesitate to accept this indemnity without prejudice to the judicial steps which it may be proper for the party to take, and considering the redress obtained sufficient it sees no reason why the relations between the two governments, which relations should faithfully reflect the sentiments of reciprocal esteem and sympathy that animate the two nations, should not again become intimate, cordial and friendly as they have traditionally been in the past, and as it is to be hoped they will be in the future.

In bringing the foregoing to your knowledge, in virtue of the authorization given by his excellency, the Marquis di Rudini, president of the council, minister of foreign affairs, in the name of the government of his majesty, the king of Italy, my august sovereign, I have the honor to declare to your excellency that the diplomatic relations between Italy and the United States from this moment shall be re-established. I hasten, moreover, in obedience to instructions received, to inform you that pending the minister's return to this capital I have taken charge of the royal legation in the capacity of charge des affaires.

Be pleased to accept, etc., IMPERIALI.

CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—In the house Mr. Burrows of Michigan, rising to a privilege on the question, said that the Congressional Record contained copious quotations from Henry George's book, "Protection and Free Trade." Mr. Burrows moved to strike out the extract from Mr. George's book by Mr. Stone of Kentucky in order to test the sense of the house.

The discussion was participated in by several members, and finally the motion of Mr. Fithian to lay the resolution of Burrows on the table was then agreed to by a vote of 119 to 71.

Mr. Richardson asked unanimous consent for the present consideration of a resolution directing the committee on civil service to investigate the conduct of certain public officers in Baltimore who are alleged to have violated the civil service law.

Mr. Hopkins of Illinois objected and the resolution was referred to the committee on rules. The house then went into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill, the pending amendment being that of Mr. Boutelle of Maine, which provides for two sea going coast line battle ships of 10,000 tons, displacement at $1,000,000 each, ten torpedo boats at $150,000 each, and authorizing the secretary of the navy to requisition the secretary of the navy to requisition for proposals for one swift torpedo cruiser of 700 tons, heretofore authorized, and limiting the cost of said cruiser to $512,000, exclusive of armament.

Senate.

The senate had a long and interesting debate on a bill to increase the number of judges of the court of claims, which brought up the question of the expediency also brought up a speedy reference to the increase in the number of judges of the court just before the legal tender act was sustained. The discussion was still in progress when the senate adjourned till Monday.

In the earlier part of the day a senate bill was passed extending the free delivery mail system to towns of 5,000 people.

Simpson's Prophecy.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—"It is all humbug," said Congressman Simpson, after reading a despatch that the Democrats of his district, the Seventh Kansas, had decided to nominate a straight ticket, and that this destroyed any hopes the party may have had of returning him to congress. He said:

I ran against Mr. James B. Halliwell, a popular Republican, who polled more than 1,000 Democratic votes. His vote was 25,151, and mine 22,513. Of course the Advances and Democratic candidates, there are perhaps in the district. The Democrats should elect the Democrats to nominate a straight ticket we have nothing to fear. Mr. Halliwell will not be a candidate again, and show the last election, the strength of my party in the district has grown fully 50 per cent. The same may be said of it throughout the state. Then, too, I came here without any reputation. Since then I have not been idle, and believe I am not unknown to you, among my people at least, unfavorably known. I am confident that I will be sent back to congress and I have no fears of either a straight Republican or a straight Democratic ticket, or the two combined. The Alliance is on a grand boom. We will make large gains in the west, and it is my judgment that we will surprise the whole country in the result in the south. The Alliance will cut more of a figure in the next congress than it does in this, I assure you.

Pension Office Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—G. W. Wayson, examiner in the pension office, the witness who at a previous meeting refused to answer questions, and was included in the resolution to the house recommending he be dismissed by the commissioner of pensions, was again called to the stand. He admitted that he borrowed and loaned money from and to pension office employees, and that it was a common practice in the office. Mr. Enloe wanted to know why the witness answered questions now when he refused to at his previous hearing.

Witness replied that he did so upon the advice of Judge Payson.

Representative Dungan submitted a resolution to the committee requesting the secretary of the interior to disbar from practice James F. Morgan of Bloomington, Ind., the attorney who was examined by the committee. Representative Lind said he would offer an amendment to the resolution, and the committee went into executive session, the result of which was that a resolution was formed and signed by the members calling the attention of the secretary to the evidence given, which, in their judgment, merited his consideration. A copy of Morgan's testimony accompanied it.

Iowa's Direct Tax Refund.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The treasury issued a warrant for $384,274 in favor of the state of Iowa on account of direct tax collected from that state.

Mrs. Harrison Not So Well.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Mrs. Harrison is not quite so well, the weather having depressing effects upon her.

MICHIGAN REPUBLICANS.

Alger Delegates Selected but No Instructions Given.

DETROIT, Mich., April 15.—The Republican state convention to choose delegates to the national convention at Minneapolis met here at noon. The prayer over, the secretary read the call and announced the enforced absence of Senator McMillan in Washington and called upon ex-Congressman Ed P. Allen of Ypsilanti to occupy the chair temporarily. In his speech Mr. Allen said:

The administration of President Harrison will pass into history the equal of most and superior to many, save only the administration of Abraham Lincoln, the just. No blot, no stain rests on the administration of Benjamin Harrison. The Republican party is rich in material for the presidency. She is not compelled to select one man. But whether it be Benjamin Harrison or that distinguished citizen of Michigan, loved in its every home, who stands out truer than any because of the calamity cast at him, the Republican party will make no mistake.

Mr. Allen's allusion to President Harrison was received with great applause. When he referred to General Alger the applause was deafening and continued.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—In the house Mr. Burrows of Michigan, rising to a privilege on the question, said that the Congressional Record contained copious quotations from Henry George's book, "Protection and Free Trade." I ran against Mr. James B. Halliwell, a popular Republican, who polled more than 1,000 Democratic votes. His vote was 25,151, and mine 22,513. Of course the educational course has not engaged the attention of others. With characteristic brightness, George Washington Wood upon it as the one best location for a strictly national university. He spoke and wrote frequently on the importance of it, planned for such an institution and in his will devised stock equal to $25,000 as the foundation for a fund for his "favorite national university." Generous men added subscriptions to our own, distinguished statesmen and educators have from time to time renewed the advocacy of the project. We deem it due to our churches and to our position in the Protestant family to undertake the establishment of an institution of learning which shall represent the highest educational ideals and that spiritual life on account of which the world has deemed us worthy of its confidence. Depositories for the receipt of funds are the agencies for the Book Concern at New York, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco.

Senator Chandler's Plan Terms.

CONCORD, N. H., April 15.—Senator Chandler has written an open letter to the committee on resolutions of the Republican state convention, in which he says a platform on local questions can be promulgated that will insure a Republican victory beyond a doubt. He says he will speak in plain terms in favor of the prohibitory liquor laws, including the nuisance act, and should demand the enforcement of these laws by all public officials charged with their execution. He says also that the platform should unmistakably pledge the Republican party to the maintenance of the interests of the people against injury from the corrupting influence of railroad corporations.

St. Paul German Crowded Out.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 15.—A deed of assignment was filed to Jacob F. Fraser by the officers of the St. Paul German Fire Insurance company. The assets and liabilities of the company are not known. The unprecedented losses occurring during 1891 and up to the present time in 1892 caused the assignment.

Blizzard in Iowa.

DES MOINES, April 15.—Reports from throughout the state are that the storm which has been raging for some time has increased in fury, and has now assumed the proportions of a blizzard. Telegraph and telephone wires are down in every direction and railroad traffic is delayed.

Snow Blockade.

BURLINGTON, Ia., April 15.—The Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern passenger train arrived here eighteen hours late, having been delayed by the immense snow blockade between Rockford and Albert Lea. The drifts for miles were from five to ten feet high.

Fifteen Inches of Snow.

BOONE, Ia., April 15.—There was fifteen inches of snow here in the morning but before noon it had nearly all melted, leaving the roads in an impassable condition.

To the Gold Fields.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., April 15.—It is officially announced that the Colorado Midland Railway will build a branch to the Cripple Creek gold fields.

A CRISIS IN ITALY.

The Cabinet Retires on Refusal of the Military Estimates.

ROME, April 15.—The minister of war, General Pelloni, insisted on an additional allowance of 18,000,000 francs for rifles and the reorganization of the artillery. The minister of the navy asked for 8,000,000 francs for fast cruisers. So far as the request from the navy is concerned no attention seems to have been paid to it, and only 14,000,000 francs were granted to the war office. This sum it was proposed to raise by economy in other directions, but Signor Colombo insisted that taxes should be levied to meet this. This caused a division in the cabinet and the retirement of all but the minister. It is conceded that the Marquis Rudini has a large personal following, but it is admitted nevertheless, that the task he has before him is a most difficult one.

Father Slattery's Work.

BALTIMORE, April 15.—It is announced that the Rev. John Slattery will soon withdraw from the order of Josephites as an active member, and with him Epiphany, Apostolic college and Joseph seminary. Epiphany college was opened three years ago and is a feeder to St. Joseph seminary. Father Slattery is the president of the latter and the head of both. When the final act of separation has been accomplished a new order will be formed by Father Slattery to carry on the same work as is now being done by the Josephites—the evangelization of the colored race in this country. The name of the new order to be formed has not yet been determined. It will be under the direction of Cardinal Gibbons.

The Rubber Trust.

NEW YORK, April 15.—At a meeting of the directors of the United States Rubber company the capital stock was increased to $1,200,000. George Lewis, president of the Goodyear Metallic Rubber company, was elected a director. This company is quite an acquisition for the consolidation, as it is one of the four leading boot and shoe companies in the United States. The negotiations for the purchase of the plant and the business of the Mayer Rubber company of New Brunswick was reported as progressing satisfactorily.

Instructed for Harrison.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 15.—The Republican state convention chose the following delegates-at-large to the national convention: J. E. Lee, colored; E. R. Gunby, white; James A. Sharon, colored, and John G. Long, white. The three former are federal office holders. Instructions for Harrison were given.

Bogus Butter Men Indicted.

PITTSBURG, April 15.—The grand jury found true bills against 119 violators of the state oleomargarine law. The penalty for selling in other than original packages is $100 fine for the first offense and imprisonment for the second.

REV. DR. SPALDING.

Rev. Dr. Spalding has returned from England, where he was employed on a Roman Catholic newspaper, and is now at Cambridge. At Christ church, Cambridge, yesterday, the congregation was invited to resolve after the regular morning service to hear an announcement of special measures to them. When the service was over the treasurer, Mr. F. S. Hill, gave notice that a special service would be taken next Sunday for their late pastor, Rev. J. P. Spalding, who lately having come over to the Protestant faith had come back into the Protestant fold again.

Mr. Hill was deeply affected by making the announcement, and finally broke down completely, obliging the choir ladies. Mr. Foster to continue the explanation.

Rev. Dr. Spalding is stopping for the present with Mrs. Spalding on Mercer circle, who is one of the leading ladies of Christ church. He was interviewed yesterday, but declined emphatically but courteously, to speak about his recent action or his future plans. He said that he should have an explanation for the press.

It is suggested that Dr. Spalding needs absolute rest for a season after the severe mental struggles he had recently undergone. It is hoped to send him to the country until he is in somewhat health.

It is pretty certain that Dr. Spalding intends again to enter the ministry of the Episcopal church.

Commenting upon the above article, the Boston Traveler says:

The return of Rev. Dr. Spalding to the Episcopal church, after a brief stay in the Roman Catholic fold, subjects him, of course, to a great deal of criticism; but, convinced that he had made a mistake in going into the communion that he has just left, the only thing for him to do was to confess as such and be true to his convictions, let the world say what it would. In other words, Dr. Spalding has shown that he has courage. Many a man who could charge a battery without flinching would not dare to do what the gentleman to whom we are referring has done, and for that reason all ungracious comments on Dr. Spalding's recent step are entirely out of order. His late Cambridge parishioners do well to take him by the hand and assure him of their respect and love, and no one who believes in Christian charity will blame them for so doing.

OMAHA, April 13, 1892—EDITOR AMERICAN.

The fighting factions in the democratic ranks of Nebraska, and the rankling bitterness there seems to prevail among the would-be leaders, is not only amusing to the republican party, but they are portentous, and it is plain to one on the outside that a compromise effected that will unite this poor, disgruntled, discordant and warring democracy, not only in Nebraska, but throughout the United States, the final results are plainly visible, and means simply inevitable defeat in the November election.

In our own state, and more particularly in the Gate City, the democratic primaries began with a spring zephyr, and ended in a cyclone of confused ideas in general. The Boyd-Matrin contest in the primary last Friday, which resulted in a split in the convention Saturday and a double header to the state convention where the aspirants must fight it out, is not only suggestive to Nebraskans, but illustrates the animosity that prevails in the party from Maine to California, as regards presidential possibilities. All these things are but sweet morsels that are being rolled under the great tongue of the republican party while "white winged peace" hovers over their strongholds, and harmony prevails all along their lines. It is only patiently and intelligently pursuing the even tenor of its way, passively awaiting the downfall and defeat of the party that is "divided against itself." Under the existing circumstances it requires no stretch of imagination or prophetic vision to announce the political forecast. It is simply this: Harrison's nomination and re-election is assured upon the basis of a sound currency, a protective policy and a reciprocity of trade relations with all foreign nations. Let the battle rage.

Riches of the Vatican.

The vatican, the ancient palace of the popes of Rome, is the most magnificent building of the kind in the world. It stands on the right bank of Tiber, on a hill called the vaticanus, because the Latins formerly worshipped Vatielinum, an ancient oracular deity, at that place. Exactly when the building was commenced no one knows. Charlemagne is known to have inhabited it over a thousand years ago. The present extent of the building is enormous, the number of rooms at the lowest computation being four thousand four hundred and twenty-two. Its treasures of marble statues, ancient gems, paintings, books, manuscripts, etc., are to be compared only with those in the British museum. The length of the statue museum alone is a fraction over a mile. Conservative writers say that the gold contained in the medals, vessels, chains and other objects preserved in the vatican would make more gold coins than the whole of the present European circulation.

The popes live in splendor unimaginable, surrounded by useless toys of gold and silver that might be melted up and sent about doing good. Millions of Catholics live in hovels, yet must give of their scanty earnings to support this magnificence, or else be consigned to purgatory. Shame on the craven Protestant who apologizes for Rome's robbery of the poor.—M. in Primitive Catholic.
