THAT BODY WILLING TO ACT.

A Joint Seaston is Hold, Hut No Action edly He Begon.

LINCOLN, March 31,-The committee of lawyers to whom the house referred the matter of impeachment of state officers has reported unantmously in favor of impeachment.

The only point on which the lawyers differed was with reference to the condition of affairs at the Lincoln insane asylum, Judge Pound held that there was nothing to show that in that case the board had received any notice of the cookedness that was going on and could not be presumed to be guilty in the abscence of such evidence. The other members of the commission held. however, that the board could not have. been ignorant, and if not in collusion had been grossly negligent and derelict in their duty and were therefore culpable. So far as the cell house evidence was concerned the three were a unit in declaring for impeachment. The committee's resolution, accompanying the report, was as follows:

Resolved, That articles of impeachment be prepared and presented to the supreme court of this state for malfeasance in office against the following persons, towit: John C.Allen, secretary of state; George H. Hastings, attorney general; A. R. Humphrey, commissioner of public lands and build ings, and J. E. Hill, ex-state treasurer.

The house was called to order at 9 o'clock. Barry of Greeley called up his motion to immediately consider the mittee's resolution to prepare articles of impeachment.

Keckley was on his feet and he wanted to offer a substitute but after a general wrangle the house took a recess until 1 80 o'clock.

The regular order after recess was the general appropriation bill, but it was laid aside and the impeachment proceedings taken up again. A resolution was adopted, instructing the committee to continue the taking of evidence against other officials and ex-officials whose names do not appear in the recommendation of impeachment. A message was sent the senate, informing that body that impeachment proceedings were pending in the house, and requesting the members to name a time for a joint session to consider the matter. The senate sent an answer saying it would meet the lower house in joint convention at 4 o'clock. Accordingly at that hour the senate marched in but nothing further was done than to agree upon another meeting and the joint session then adjourned. Public opinion is nearly unanimous in the belief that the senate will concur in the house resolutions that impeachment proceedings be instituted.

May Defeat the Bill.

LINCOLN, March 21.-It is announced here the railroads have succeeded in effecting a plan to defeat the maximum rate bill. The plan is to adjourn the senate sine die before the bill can be reached. They claim 17 votes for ad-journment. It is possible the scheme may work.

Another rumor of a sensational charwhile others claim it does not affect the bond.

ALBORTH INC. LABORED.

LOUTSVILLE, Murch III .- The developments in the whichy forgery of ware-avaluantic pince of fraud. How far it may reach there is no selling. but it threatens to involve others not yet montioned in the affair. "Jim, the Penman," has been at work; but who he is has not yet been discovered. It is the Takan-Watting in Include Others in provailing opinion, however, that A. B. Setten is responsible for the fraud. The this Bill-Presentings Will Undershit: thing has been going on for over a year, with a steady increase in volume.

From reliable sources, which cannot be quoted just now, it is learned that Louisville banks had $150,000 of the forged paper. It is so distributed, however, that the credit of none of the in-stitutions is affected. It is known that at least $5,000 of the worthless receipts are held in Kansas City. There is no extended in Constance in Sulton's case. At the time he put out the forged paper he had no financial standing, and it was not a temporaay expedient he resorted to, in a desperate strait, to pro-tect his credit, as is the history of duplicated warehouse receipts. It was simply a gigantic swindle from start to last.

Sutton claims he put up the mone thus raised as margins for whisky pur chased. Where this whisky is, has not yet been discovered, but Sutton says it is distributed over half a dozen different points. Genuine warehouse receipts are out against all of it, but who the holders are is another question. These receipts cover an interest of from $8 to $10 per barrel, and Sutton says his marginal interest amounts in the aggregate to $100, 000, which he still maintains is more than sufficient to meet all of his obligations, About noon Thursday it way learned that the Cincinnati banks have been caught for nearly as large an amount as those of Louisville, and that the amount of fraudulent receipts out will reach the total of $2.0,000.

READY FOR WAR.

Trouble Between Choetaw Factions Sure to Occur.

ANTLERS, I. T., March 31 .-- Both factions of Choctaws are massing their forces and a battle seems to be only a question of a few hours. At 8 o'clock Thursday night 100 militiamen gathered at Goodland and were getting everything in readinees to attack Locke. Governor Jones is en route and will reach Parts, Tex., at 10 a. m. Friday. Locke is in a strongly fortified camp three miles northeast of here beyond the Laimitia river. Fears are entertained that some non-citizens may be killed. United States Commissioner Gibbons telegraphed the situation to Indian Agent Bennett, at Muskogee, informing him that if he wanted to prevent bloodshed he must act at once. He also tele-graphed the interior department the status of affairs. There is a faint hope that they may intercede and stop the trouble.

CABINET CRISIS.

France Undergoing Another Ministerial Change.

PARIS, March 81. - The government was defeated by a narrow margin in the chamber of deputies, and another cabinet crisis is the result. By a vote of 247 to 242 the chamber decided to retain the liquor law amendment bill as part of the budget, although the ministry has expressed itself as firmly opposed to the amendment. After a somewhat lengthy consultation in a committee room the ministers proceeded to the Elyse and Another rumor of a sensational char-acter is that State Treasurer Hill's name does not appear on his bond. Just what effect this omission may have on the net and urged them to reconsider their validity of the bond is uncertain, some determination. His arguments were in determination. His arguments were in lawyers holding that it invalidates it. vain, however, and the ministers insisted that their resignations must be ac cepted.

POINTS AT ISSUE.

Questions for the Bering Sea Arbitrators.

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

the United States Scents and Parliament Apprised of the Silvation-Cleveland and the Congressional States Wash-Ington News.

WASHINGTON, March 31 .- The cases and counter cases of the United States and Great Britain under the treaty to arbitrate the Boring sea difficulties, between the two countries, were simultaneonaly sent to the United States and also made public by transmission to the house of parliament in London. They comprised altogether 14 volumes of printed matter, being about equally divided in bulk.

Claims of the United States.

The summary of the claims made for the United States is, that prior and up to the time of the cession of Alaska to the United States, Russia asserted and exercised an exclusive right to the seal fisheries in the waters of Bering sea, also asserted and exercised throughout that sea the right to prevent, by the employment, when necessary, of reasonable force, an invasion of such exclusive rights.

Recognized by Great Britvin.

That Great Britain, not having at any time resisted or objected to such assertions of exclusive rights, or the exercise of such power, it is to be deemed as having recognized and asserted the same. That all the rights of Russia in respect to the seal fisheries in Bering sea east of the water boundary, established by the treaty of March 49, 1867, between that nation and the United States, and all the power and authority possessed and asserted by Russia, to protect said rights, passed unimpaired to the United States under that treaty.

The English Side of It.

The case of Great Britain as set forth by Sir Charles Tupper, the British agent, was that Bering sea, as to which the question arises, is an open sea in which all nations of the world have a right to navigate and fish, and that the rights of navigation and fishing cannot taken away or restricted by the mere declaration or claim of any one or more nations; they are natural rights and exist in their full extent, unless specifically modified, controlled or limited by treaty.

Russian Claims Resisted.

After reviewing the conditions that existed in 1821, when Russis attempted to exclude foreign vessels from Bering sea, and the failure which attended this effort, the acquisition of Alaska by the United States is considered. In 1386, under changed conditions of territorial ownership, and in view of certain new sequence of the growth of the industry of pelagic sealing in non-territorial waters, the United States reverted in the first instance, to certain claims based upon those of the Russian ukase of 1821, which the United States together with Great Britain, had success-fully contested at the time of their promulgation; but in the course of the dis-cussions which have arisen, these exceptional claims to the control of non-terri torial waters were dropped, and in their place various unprecedented and indefinite claims have been put forward. which appear to be based upon an al-leged property in fur seals as such.

Reported Remark of President Cleveland About Appointments.
