

THE AMERICAN.

AMERICAN.

John O. U. A. Second Class Mailer
John C. Thompson, X. X. Editor
W. C. Kelley, Business Manager.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY

Rooms 412-13-14 Sheely Block.

TELEPHONE 91.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Subscription, Per Year	$1.00
Six Months	.50
Three Months	.30
INvariably IN ADVANCE—MINIMUMS HALF RATE
CLUB RATES
5 Copies one year, per copy	.80
10	.70
15	.60
20	.50
The above rates to clubs are good only when full number, and cash for same, accompany order.

RECEIVED BY MAIL, EXPRESS OR POSTOFFICE MONEY ORDER, PAYABLE TO AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

THE AMERICAN IS THE CHAMPION OF ALL PARTHIAN ORDERS. THE ORGAN OF NONE.

OMAHA, NEB., JAN. 5, 1894.

ARE YOU AN A. P. A.? If not, why not?

CHICAGO'S ASSASSIN, Prendergast, is to hang.

WHEN YOU HAVE READ THIS PAPER GIVE IT TO A FRIEND.

ED. HOWELL, we desire to congratulate you. Next to an A. P. A. comes a fearless, Protestant democrat. May you live to be mayor.

REV. FRANK FOSTER will speak to the Jr. O. U. A. M. from his pulpit in Immanuel Baptist church, Twenty-fourth and Bieneck, Sunday morning.

LOOK into the principles of the A. P. A., and then if you are a lover of liberty and our Free Public school system you will immediately become a member.

Mrs. M. H. FARNHAM, of Gregory, Jewell county, Kansas, favored us with a very pleasant visit last Wednesday. Mrs. Farnham is a member of the Farm and Diamond Company, one of the largest stock raising companies of western Kansas.

VERY few daily papers have had the courage to espouse the cause of Americanism, but there is an exception to the rule in Cleveland, Ohio. The Leader of that city is an out and out advocate of Americanism. When looking for a Cleveland paper, ask for the Leader.

THE Inter-Ocean is a good paper, it is also neat in its appearance. Few daily papers worth naming equal it, either in newspaper or in the strength of editorial opinion or in its physical appearance. We are glad to note its increasing popularity in Omaha.

THE latest reports from Home state that Mgr. Satoll is a permanent fixture in America, so far as present indications are concerned. In case of his removal, another will be appointed in his stead, so Home says. Well! How would a congress composed of Americans act if they were faced by such a decisive assertion? We must have an American congress, and now is the time to put the movement on foot. Missouri can start the work, and execute it to the finish, therefore keep the iron hot, and hammer it to perfection. No peace for America.

A ROMAN OPINION. A letter from Mr. Raymond Blatchford, who two years ago came to the United States to study the Roman Catholic question and the position of the American Catholics towards Rome, writes:

"Home in America is in the van of the forward movement to a greater extent than is generally imagined, and those who have studied the question with an open and generous mind, have no doubt that the future welfare of the Republic lies in the hands of the Italian Mission, now flourishing in its midst."

It might be well to substitute the word "destiny" for "welfare," and then he would have it. Should this turbulent political "Italian Mission" be allowed full sway, the republic would last about as long as an egg-shell beaten by the surf against a wall of rock. Instead of a republic, we would have ourselves in the hands of a despotic monarchy.

to, there would not remain a single Protestant in this broad land. It would be advisable to give this encroaching political body a good round dose of pure American votes, and then let them digest the quality of demands.

COUNTY APPOINTMENTS.

Sheriff Druse's appointments are Harry Grobe, Herman Rosenweig, John Mahoney, James Carroll, William Olmstead, J. H. Miller, John Brandt, Samuel Ernest and Jas. Swift.

Peter Elsasser's are: G. F. Elsasser, deputy; W. F. Weber, chief clerk, and W. T. Reed, Frank Mahoney, W. C. Muggeath, David Shanahan and William H. Scroggins, clerks.

Judge Baxter has appointed Henry Morrow as chief clerk, and the remainder of the clerical force is made up of Henry Nat, William Shields, C. E. Winter and Miss Mary C. Haley. Miss Richards and Miss Powers, who held positions under the former administration, will be retained for the present.

J. E. House succeeds Dee Smith as surveyor, and retains the old office force.

OUR friends who have read THE AMERICAN for more than three months without paying for it, should try to let us have at least 50 cents! We would rather collect the subscription price in quarterly installments than in any other way. By paying in that way, subscribers do not miss the amount, while if they allow their accounts to run from one to two years it often works a hardship to them, and costs us a friend, something we cannot afford to lose. We want the good will of every man, woman and child who reads THE AMERICAN, but we hope they will not think it is necessary for us to carry more than three months in order to retain their friendship. How many people do you suppose stand their butcher, grocer or milkman off for ninety days? Then why should a publisher, who has from three to one hundred times as much capital invested in his business, be treated differently by other business men? To those who invariably pay in advance, to those who expect to pay in the near future, and to those who hope to be able to pay some time, we extend our thanks for the encouragement.

FANDERNG TO HOME.

The Custodian of the Fort Smith, Ark., Post Office a Sugar Plum for Romans.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 2, 1893.

This city is ridden to death by the "Catholic Queen." As you may know, she is a "pull" in politics.

It is also next in politics.

Few daily papers west

equal it, either in news-

gatherings or in the strength of editorial openness or in its physical appearance. We are glad to note its increasing popularity in Omaha.

Up to the first of the year the custodian of the government building employed a Protestant engineer. This party has been discharged and two Roman Catholics appointed to fill his place. While a Protestant was doing duty, one man was supposed to be sufficient for the work, but since his removal the work proves too arduous for a single employee, therefore his Roman successor is allowed an assistant. Who says Home is not in politics? The beauty of all this comes from the report that the Roman Catholic faction declared that they withdrew their influence from the appointment of their chosen one, and placed it in favor of the party now occupying the position, against his opponent for the office, after the Roman Catholic delegate was debarred. Owing to this statement they claim the right to the majority of his appointments in both positions which he holds. It might be advisable for some officials to remember that the next president of the United States will most likely be of the persuasion opposite to the appointment of Roman Catholic political church puliters to public office. Church and state must be kept separate.

A Democratic A. P. A.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 29, 1893.

John C. Thompson, Esq., Dear Sir: I was born in Missouri, and have for twenty-eight years voted the democratic ticket, never being aware of the controlling power of the party until last June. I must say I have been brought from darkness to light, for which I am very thankful. I think I believe in the principles of my old party, and do not care that so long as I live I shall never again vote for an old party.

Q. Do you think I am going to get better?

A. I told her that she was not so well.

Q. What did she say?

A. She said she wished I would have an attorney come and arrange her affairs.

Q. What reply did you make to that?

A. I said I would. I asked her who she would like to have. She said it did not make any difference.

Q. Tell all the conversation you had with her?

A. That was the whole of it.

Q. Why did she not mention her name?

A. She did not mention her name.

Q. How long has she been in your office?

A. About five years.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?

A. No, she is not.

Q. Is she still in your office?